

Man Cited by Police Following Accident

Clyde Harvey Hampton, 45, of 2040 South Stage rd., was cited by state police following an accident Tuesday night for failure to yield the right of way.

The Hampton car was backing from a driveway and across the westbound lane into the eastbound lane when the accident occurred, police said. A car driven by Alfred Fosdal, 44, of route 4, box 398, Medford, struck the Hampton car on the left rear door, they reported. The Fosdal car was damaged on the left front fender. No injuries were reported, state police said.

New York—UPI—Entertainers Frank Sinatra and Danny Kaye returned to the United States Tuesday night from a trip to London during which they hot-nobbed with blue-bloods from Queen Elizabeth II on down.

TRUCE IN LEBANON—A Lebanese Phalangist, holding flag, stands by peacefully as a bulldozer clears away a stone barricade in a Beirut street. Premier Rashid Karami's coalition cabinet has at last won support of both factions in the strife-torn country.
