They'll Do It Every Time — By Jimmy Hatlo

Quotes From the News

By United Press International

Washington–AFL-CIO President George Meany, charging that political campaign orators this year are using the "big lie" technique to pin a pro-Communist label on organized labor:

"This is an unforgivable and completely unjustified trick."

Washington–Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn, warning his party that the GOP must get out the vote this year:

"It was the stay-at-home Republican who cost us control of Congress in the mid-term elections of 1954."

Springhill, N. S.–Harold Brine, one of 12 trapped miners in a collapsed coal mine, after rescue workers contacted the men by means of a pipe:

"We're all right. The air has been pretty good. Some of us are hurt but not badly. We're awful damn thirsty."

West Lafayette, Ind. – Purdue "golden girl" Adelaide Darling, on criticism of her "wiggling" while doing a hula hula as a drum majorette:

"It seems to be what they want around here. After all, my business is to be a showman."

Recession Not Good For Anyone; Holmes

Salem — The recession in Oregon has not been good for anyone, Gov. Robert D. Holmes said in an address scheduled for delivery at the Federal Retirees dinner in Portland Monday evening.

"A Republican spokesman —a Republican editor—and a Republican backer of the Republican gubernatorial candidate told a group of Jackson county Republican women that the recession 'had been good for us—we were going too high too fast," the Governor said. He referred to a Medford meeting Oct. 20, reported in the Medford Mail Tribune Oct. 21.

"Well, Democrats don't think that recessions and depressions are good for anyone," Governor Holmes continued, "The Eisenhower recession silenced our woods, shut down saw mills, set back our plywood industry, hurt farmers and drove a lot of small business people to bankruptcy.

"But Republicans habitually think in terms of only a few people, of privileged people, and that is why you can tell them from Democrats. I don't think Oregon can afford a Republican governor. I don't think it can afford much more Republican recession. I don't think it can afford the kind of thinking the Republican big-wigs like, follow and defend."

ILLINOIS VALLEY Club Discusses Bulbs

HUNGARIAN DEMONSTRATION—Wearing chains and prison stripes, Hungarian patriots picket the Park Avenue headquarters of the Soviet UN delegation in New York. The orderly, hour-long demonstration marked the second anniversary of the abortive Hungarian revolution. The pickets chanted in English, 'Drop dead, Khrushchev," and sang their national anthem in Hungarian.

Dental Society Holds Meeting

Dr. John L. Woehler, Sierra Madre, Calif., was guest speaker at the monthly dinner-meeting of the Southern Oregon Dental society held at the Rogue Valley Country club Tuesday.

Dr. Woehler, who spoke on dental economics, has revised the requirements for hiring the executive dental secretary and qualifications for dental chair assistants. It was reported that outline of these qualifications and requirements will be available to schools and colleges.

The speaker stressed that dentists should keep the dental fees at present levels but they should increase the dental efficiency of the offices and dental time.

Dr. Don E. Smith, Grants Pass, president of the society introduced the speaker. Dr. John Dickson, vicepresident, received the Kiwanis plaque for the Medford Children's Dental clinic. Approximately 100 members, dental assistants and their wives, attended.

MR. DUNCAN—
The Voters of Jackson County
WANT TO KNOW...

1. Did YOU vote against tax relief for people over 65 with limited income?
2. Did YOU let a Multnomah County caucus control your vote—then apologize for this type of conduct?
3. Did YOU campaign for economy in government then vote for 30 million dollars in expenditures over the Governor's recommended budget?
4. Did YOU state in the 1956 voters pamphlet that taxes should be reduced—then vote for the highest tax on record?
5. Did YOU vote against stopping state real property taxes? Since this bill passed, and is well received, are you now campaigning that it was a wonderful accomplishment?
6. Did YOU push legislation which would make Sacred Heart, Rogue Valley Memorial and all other hospitals the target of many more lawsuits?
7. Did YOU work for a multi-million dollar surplus instead of giving tax relief?
8. Did YOU vote for annual sessions of the legislature and at the same time campaign for economy in state government?
9. Did YOU resist and work against the 30% tax reduction voted by the Senate at the special session?
