News and Notes From Camp White

By SID HOLLINGSWORTH

One of the most notable benevolent enterprises of the State Elks association is their participation in a nationwide undertaking of the BPOE in furnishing deer and other game hides to VA hospitals for leather work among handicapped veterans of the wars.

The campaign is sponsored by the Veterans Service committee of the Elks, and last year $175,000 worth of tanned leather was delivered as part of their service to hospitalized veterans.

The report of this committee is of special significance to Oregon, for it shows this state running a nip and tuck race with Montana for top honors.

Oregon Elks obtained the most hides, but the Montana hides ran ahead in value, due, it was said, to heavier weight per hide. The Oregon report showed 5,923 delivered at an appraised value of $13,500. The Montana record showed 5,889 delivered, appraised at $14,444.

California was third for the region with 4,798 hides valued at $11,487. New Mexico was fourth among western states with 2,155 hides valued at $4,566. The total for Arizona, Wyoming and Nevada was 438 valued at $966.

Baker led Oregon towns in number of hides obtained with 1,136. In this area Roseburg led with 325 at $767 value. Myrtle Creek delivered 129, Ashland 91, Grants Pass 22, and Medford 14.

After the raw hides are obtained, they are salted down, stored, and later tanned. It is a large scale operation and the Elks are so pleased with the showing that they have continued the drive this year on an even larger scale than last year.

One benefit that may not be apparent is the fact that deer, elk and other animal skins are put to a worthy use in giving war veterans the incentive to get well.

Another commendable effort in leather work at Camp White is the arrangement that has been made with Mann's Department store for sale of the finely tooled leather bags, purses, wallets and other items made by the more advanced craftsmen at the domiciliary.

This undertaking is sponsored by Post 15 of the American Legion in cooperation with Special Services, which supervises all handicrafts at the station.

The store has provided a good display and much interest has been shown among patrons in this work of handicapped veterans living here. Sale has been brisk and is expected to be better as the Christmas season approaches.

The Fifty Plus club has formed a group at Camp White and meets twice a month. The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon Nov. 5. The members are all past 50 years of age, as the name implies.

The local club was host to the Medford group at their last meeting and about 50 were present for cards, dancing and refreshments. The Camp White orchestra provided music.

Keegan Townsend, district commander of the American Legion, announced the appointment of Clifford Hyde, Post 15 member, as post service officer, at the auxiliary entertainment Monday evening. Hyde has represented the Legion in a number of recent undertakings of benefit to handicapped members.

Alcoholics Anonymous at the domiciliary is in the process of changing pilots. "Razor Jack" will take over the helm with the return to San Francisco of "Earl G." who has guided affairs of this important group at Camp White for some time.

The Veterans administration has declared "open house" among its 170 hospitals, domiciliaries and regional offices as part of Veterans Day observance this year.

Accordingly, Manager Banks I. Paul has explained the purpose of this program in a statement. The idea originated with the new administrator in Washington, Sumner G. Whittier.

The day selected is Nov. 10, since it conforms with the occasion and does not conflict with plans for special observance on the 11th the national holiday.

The special purpose of the open house at this time, Paul declared, is to present to the public "the new concept of domiciliaries and the planned living program, which is designed to resocialize and rehabilitate the veteran for return to the community of his choice.

Guided tours will be conducted through the domiciliary on Monday, Nov. 10, at 10 and 11 a.m. and 2 and 3 p.m.

The annual Halloween carnival of the VAVS will be held as scheduled Friday evening, Oct. 31, in the theater. On this occasion, special booths are set up and decorated by volunteers.

The American Gold Star Mothers, Mrs. Margaret Aikin, in charge; Military Order of Lady Bugs, Mrs. Helen Lusk; VFW auxiliary, Mrs. Lelia Birch; American Legion auxiliary, Mrs. Polly Offutt; United Spanish War Veterans auxiliary, Mrs. Austia Barneburg; Trench Rats, Pat Graham; WW I auxiliary and department, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leuty; Blue Star Mothers, Mrs. Ardens Kretschmer; DAV auxiliary, Mrs. Bertha Neff; and Junior Red Cross, Mrs. John Day, will occupy the booths with games.

Crater Graduates' Addresses Needed

Central Point – Mrs. Victor Noel and Mrs. Bill Askwith are compiling names and addresses of graduates of Crater High school and former Central Point High school in order that the alumni can be kept posted of plans for H. P. Jewett Days next May 7 and 8.

Activities of the two days will honor Jewett who will retire in August, 1959, after 37 years as superintendent of School District 6.

The two women report that they can obtain addresses of many of the alumni through various valley directories. However, there is the problem locating many whose names are not in directories, those who no longer live in this area and women graduates whose names are changed through marriage.

Graduates who know their names are not in available directories, whose addresses have recently changed or who feel that they might not be contacted are asked to write or telephone Mrs. Noel or Mrs. Askwith. If alumni in this area know the addresses of graduates residing in some other locality, this information also should be given the two committeewomen.

Mrs. Noel's address is P.O. box 701, Central Point, and her telephone is NOrmandy 4-2263. Address for Mrs. Askwith is box 695, Central Point, and her phone is NO 4-2460.

DISCUSS MISSILE SITES

Manila –(UPI)– The United States and the Philippines will open talks here Nov. 12 on the possible establishment of U. S. missile sites in The Philippines, Foreign Secretary Felixberto Serano announced Tuesday night.
