

Crater Closes Grid Season By Upending Klamath 32-6

Central Point—Crater High school's Black Comets closed out their 1938 gridiron slate by romping to easy triumph over Klamath Union High at Klamath Falls on Friday night. The score was 32 to 6. Victory assured the Comets lone third place in the Southern Oregon conference and gave them a five-win three loss record for the year.

Crater now has three straight victories over the Pelicans in football.

Running of Wayne Allen, Jim Eldred and Allen Barnes and defense which allowed Klamath just 72 net scrimmage yards were features of the Pelican feather plucking expedition. And, Crater drew some inspiration from Klamath newspaper stories which spoke of a alleged weak Comet defense and weak opposition during the season.

Allen went 90 and five yards for touchdowns and passed to Eldred for another. Eldred raced 50 yards for a TD and Higginbotham boomed one for the other.

The Comets were on top 7 to 0 at the quarter. They built the gap to 20 to 0 in the second chukker and headed 20 to 6 at halftime. Third quarter score was 26 to 6. Klamath's one scoring drive was its only real threat of the night. Comets Score Early

Crater's first touchdown came with the game only four plays and 1 minute 50 seconds old. Eldred broke loose on a quick hit and ran his 50 yards to the goal. He also ran the extra point.

Allen intercepted a Pel pass in the first quarter, and, on a drive which carried over into the second period, he sneaked to the pay zone from five yards away. Next came the highlight run of the evening with Allen gathering in a Bob Drace punt on the Comet 10 and rambling the long distance to the tally stripe. Eldred packed the conversion.

Klamath rose up for an 85-yard promenade, using 10 plays and the help of penalties against the Comets. A 15-yard pass play, Blake Griggs to Ron Olivera, paid off for the TD.

Crater at the half was at the Klamath Falls one-foot line. The Comets weren't allowed a time out in the waning seconds to stop the clock. Officials ruled they had used up their allotted four, although Crater disputed one time-out charged to it for equipment repair.

Tom White recovered a Klamath fumble on the Pelican 28-yard line to pave the way for a third stanza Comet marker. On the seventh play of the series, Allen pitched to Eldred for 16 yards and the touchdown.

Spectacular Play

Allen, looking for a receiver on the play, was trapped, shook loose, slipped but caught his balance and started to run on the play. Just back of the scrimmage line he spotted Eldred and threw. A Klamath player tipped the ball but Eldred nabbed the deflected pigskin.

In the fourth panel Crater moved 62 yards in eight plays to the end zone. The Comets made it to the goal from two yards away on an Allen to Loyal Higginbotham pass but a penalty nullified the effort and put the ball on the seven. Allen, trying to pass, didn't find a receiver open and ran to the one. Higginbotham went over from that point.

Allen had a fine night with his sharpness on the passing option, giving Klamath fits with his elusiveness.

Crater had 141 total yards to Klamath's five on punt returns but just 19 to the Pel's 120 on kick-off runbacks.

The loss was KF's seventh in eight games this season. The Pelicans wind up the season next Friday with Southern Oregon conference play at Ashland.

Four Plead Guilty In Michigan Case

Ann Arbor, Mich.—(UPI)—Three University of Michigan students awaited further disciplinary action after pleading guilty to charges involving a football-pool gambling operation.

A fourth student, David Martin, 19, Detroit, was expelled from Eastern Michigan college, Ypsilanti, Mich., after pleading guilty to a similar charge. He is free on $150 bond pending sentencing Nov. 7.

The three Michigan students were awaiting trial later this month when they suddenly changed their minds and entered pleas of guilty Friday to charges of engaging in an illegal operation.

Among Seven of School

The three-Mike Dodgson, Grand Rapids, Mich., Nick Mitea, Ecorse, Mich., and John Miller, Utica, Mich., were among seven Michigan U. students arrested as participants in football syndicates operating on campus.

Wolverine first string full-back Tony Rio and basketball captain Jack Lewis, both of Chicago, were among the remaining four students whose trials were scheduled later this month. The others are Carl Riseman, 21, Detroit, associate sports editor of the student newspaper, and Durwood Collins, Houston, Tex.

Rio and Lewis were suspended from their teams pending settlement of their cases.

Marshfield 27-0 Victor

By United Press International

Oregon prep football stalwarts remained mostly true to form Friday night except North Salem which has already won a berth in Oregon football playoffs. It was humiliated, 19-6, by a team from Ft. Vancouver high school in Washington state. North Salem is ranked No. 4 in the Oregon coaches' poll.

Medford, ranked No. 2, had difficulty with Ashland, finally overcoming its southern Oregon neighbor, 27-0. Astoria, in third place, defeated Central Catholic of Portland, 31-6. McMinnville and Forest Grove fought to a 13-13 tie.

Sixth - rated Marshfield swamped eighth place Roseburg, 27-0 and Pendleton defeated Baker, 34-13 in the Blue Mountain conference. Both teams had been unbeaten. Crater of Central Point was a 32-6 victor over Klamath Falls.

UO Frosh Air Game Trips Rooks

Portland—(UPI)—The Oregon Frosh unleashed a furious passing attack in Multnomah Stadium Friday night to swamp the Oregon State Rooks, 40-18, in the first football contest between the two freshman squads this season.

Four of the six Frosh touchdowns were on passing plays with Jim Suter of Portland throwing three of the TD passes.

The Rooks scored their three touchdowns in the fourth period, two on runs and one on a 31-yard pass from Dick West of Hood River to Gary Schneider, Sherwood.

After the last Rook touchdown, Larry Reed of the Frosh took the ball on the one-yard line and ran it back 99 yards for the final Oregon score.

Kid Bassey Decisions Ring Foe

New York—(UPI)—Featherweight champion Hogan (Kid) Bassey, who outpointed Carmelo Costa Friday night, halted all plans today pending the recovery of his critically sick manager.

Manager George Biddies, 54-year-old pub-keeper of Syon, Eng., was on the critical list with pneumonia at the Metropolitan hospital. He had been taken to the hospital in an ambulance Wednesday.

Bassey tried to stop Costa of Brooklyn in a hurry. He floored the speedily elusive Carmelo twice in the third round and gashed both his brows, but couldn't stop him.

Ninth in Row

Bassey, standing only five feet three and weighing 127 pounds to Costa's 128½, registered his ninth straight victory by the official rounds score: 6-3-1, 5-4-1, 8-2.

Costa, 24, may have been saved by the bell that ended the third round. Bewildered and rubber-legged, he had just staggered to his feet at the count of seven when the bell rang at the automatic eight-count.

Costa, a 5-1 underdog, provided stiff competition in the closing rounds. He also had an edge on boxing in the first two sessions.

Cleveland, NY Giants In Key Tilt

United Press International

The New York Giants pit the National Football league's top-ranked defensive line against Jim Brown and the undefeated Browns at Cleveland in Sunday's key professional game.

Coach Paul Brown's high-scoring Browns (5-0) lead the runner-up Giants (3-2) by two games. If the Browns win Sunday, they will be three games in front with only six to play and the Eastern Division race will be virtually finished. The Browns are favored by 10 points.

The Baltimore Colts (5-0) are heavy 12-point favorites to retain their one-game Western division lead by defeating the visiting Green Bay Packers (1-3-1). The Chicago Bears (4-1) are four-point picks to remain close on the Colts' heels by defeating the Rams (2-3) at Los Angeles.

The Forty-Niners (2-3) are 3½ point choices to defeat the Detroit Lions (1-3-1) at San Francisco; the Chicago Cardinals (2-3) are favored over the Philadelphia Eagles (1-4) by six at Chicago, and the Washington Redskins (2-3) are favored over the Steelers (1-4) by 1½ at Pittsburgh.

Purdue Gets Victory

Lafayette, Ind.—(UPI)—Purdue's determined defense held Illinois to 33 yards rushing today, recovered three fumbles to set up two touchdowns and a field goal and produced a 31-8 triumph before 46,357 Homecoming fans.

The Boiler-makers' Skip Ohi set a new Big Ten record by kicking two field goals, from the 20 and 17 yard lines.

In the past, no Big Ten team ever kicked more than one field goal in a game.

INDIANS NAME EVERS

Cleveland, Ohio—(UPI)—The Cleveland Indians have named former major league outfielder Walter (Hoot) Evers farm director to replace Mike McNally. Evers played with the Detroit Tigers from 1941 to 1952 and wound up his playing career with the Indians in 1955.

Fresno State Gets Victory

San Diego, Calif.—(UPI)—Fresno State college scored a narrow, 22-20, victory over San Diego State college Saturday afternoon before some 9,600 fans in Aztec bowl.

Hard-running halfback Dale Messer led his team to victory in the California Collegiate Athletic conference game by scoring in the first and third periods. Fresno's Billy Wayne added another touchdown in the third to put the Bulldogs on top.

San Diego's scoring was accomplished with touchdown passes from quarterback Joe Duke to Braxton Pinkins in the first period, to Bob Shank in the third and to Bob Ball in the final period of the annual homecoming tilt.

Fresno, which picked up four points by passing, held the edge on rushing yardage, with a total of 287 yards gained as compared to San Diego's 68, while the losers outpassed the winners, 276 yards to 49. Duke completed 19 of 33 passes for his team.

GOLF TROPHY RETIRED

Pinehurst, N.C.—(UPI)—J. Wolcott Brown of Sea Girt, N.J., boasting his third victory in four years in the Southern Seniors golf championship, has retired the Jack Harkins Trophy presented to the winner. Brown fired an even-par 71 Friday to nail down a 10-stroke victory in the event, which he also won in 1955 and 1957 when he got his first two legs on the trophy.

AWARD TO GRAHAM

New York—(UPI)—Frank Graham, New York Journal-American sports columnist, has been named winner of the annual Grantland Rice Memorial Award of the sportsmanship brotherhood. The award is given "for an outstanding example of sports reporting in the Rice tradition."

Washington Triumphs 6-0; Oregon Muffs Opportunities

Seattle, Wash.—(UPI)—Luther "Hit-and-run" Carr took a screen pass from Bob Hivner in the third quarter today and threaded his way thirty yards for a touchdown as Washington defeated Oregon, 6-0, in a Pacific coast conference Football game before 30,000 fans.

The scoring play was good for 37 yards in all and climaxed an 80-yard-drive in just six plays.

Oregon had two scoring opportunities in the second half but both went awry. A fifteen yard penalty for illegal substitution killed one Webfoot chance just before the end of the third quarter. The Ducks were on the Washington 12-yard line before the penalty.

The second Oregon threat came in the final eleven on Dave Grosz' passing arm. But Washington's Bob Schloret intercepted in the end zone for an automatic touchback and that was the end of Oregon.

Attack Delayed

Washington's attack was a long time getting started. The Huskies made a net gain of seven yards, passing and rushing in the first period and didn't make a first down until the second quarter.

But Oregon was able to get only one serious drive mounted in the first half. The Ducks did penetrate as far as Washington's fourteen in the first period, but the attack bogged down and John Clarke's field goal attempt fell short.

Washington also tried a field goal which failed when the quarterback momentarily bobbled the ball and George Fleming's attempt from the 37-yard-line failed to carry to the goal posts.

Carr and Hivner were the stars of Washington's touchdown march. Hivner completed four of five pass attempts during the drive, three of them to Carr, and also swung ten yards around left end for a much-needed first down. Then he hit Carr with the crucial pass. The razzle-dazzle halfback weaved his way through a horde of tacklers and dashed into the end zone to give the Huskies their first PCC win of the season.

The touchdown play enabling Washington to maintain its jinx over Webfoot Coach Len Casanova. It was Casanova's eighth attempt to beat the Huskies. He succeeded only once, in 1954. It was Washington's 29th victory in the traditional series which dates back to 1900.

OSC Vaults to First Place In Bowl Race, Wins 14-8

Corvallis, Ore.—(UPI)—Oregon State vaulted into first place in the race to the Rose Bowl Saturday as Halfback Paul Lowe came off the bench in the second half to spark a thrilling 14-8 victory over California.

Lowe scored the winning touchdown on an eight yard run around right end late in the third quarter to climax a 43-yard drive which followed an interception of a Joe Kapp pass.

The victory gave Oregon State a 4-1 record in Pacific Coast conference play to a 3-1 mark for California. Each team has three counting games left.

California dominated the game on offense throughout and twice was halted inside the Oregon State 10. But Oregon State, making it 16 straight games at home without a defeat for Coach Tommy Prothro, made the break pay off to win.

Cal Jumps Off

After California jumped off to an 8-0 lead the first time it got the ball, sub state center Doug Bashor picked off an attempted pitch-out from Kapp on the California 25 and ran to a touchdown. Dainard Paulson ran right end for the two extra points to tie it up.

That's the way it remained until Halfback John Horroilo picked off a pass from Kapp on the Cal 43 in the third quarter.

Then Lowe took over. He twice passed for first downs and then ran seven yards in two plays before circling right end for the touchdown.

Kapp guided California to a 56-yard touchdown drive in 13 plays in the opening period. Soph Fullback Bill Patton scored from the three and Wayne Crow passed to End Tom Bates for the extra

San Jose Scores 41 To 6 Win

Boise, Idaho—(UPI)—An eager band of San Jose State college Spartans continued their mid-season comeback here Saturday with an aerial barrage which downed a surprisingly hapless University of Idaho football eleven, 41 to 6.

The small, but hard charging Spartan forward wall, coupled with the dead-eye passing of quarterback Mike Jones and the bull-like rushes of substitute fullback Sam Dawson, turned what was supposed to be an "even" game into a rout. The Spartans scored four times via the air route and twice on the ground.

A crowd of 9,500 fans watched the one-sided affair under sunny skies in Bronco stadium. It was a non-conference match between the Pacific Coast conference Idaho and independent San Jose of California.

Idaho, with two first stringers sitting on the bench—one fullback Ken Hall, the team's leading ground gainer—moved the ball well enough in the middle of the field. However, the Vandals were at San Jose's mercy when they moved the ball within the shadows of the Spartans' goal posts. Idaho notched 18 first downs to 19 for the California visitors.

USC Scalps Indians For 29-6

Stanford, Calif.—(UPI)—Southern California's fired up Trojans, cashing in on a disastrous series of Stanford mistakes, ruined the Indians' homecoming Saturday, 29-6, before 52,000 sun-kissed fans.

Getting a brilliant running performance from Don Buford, who carried the ball 14 times for 92 yards, the Trojans took a 21-6 halftime lead as they scored two wins in a row for the first time this season.

But they got a lot of help from Stanford on the way to victory. It went like this: 1—Stanford fumbled and Tackle Dan Ficca recovered for USC on the Stanford 38. Twelve plays later Hillard Hill plowed over from the three for a touchdown.

2—The Trojans got an earned touchdown as Halfback Angelo Cloia, behind beautiful blocking, rambled 18 yards around end to score, capping a 93-yard drive—all on the ground.

Stanford Fumbles

3—Stanford fumbled and Euford recovered for the Trojans on the Stanford 38 again. Buford scored this time from the 25.

4—The Trojans picked up two points on a safety when a blocked punt rolled back 23 yards into the end zone, where it was recovered by Bob Nicolet.

5—Southern California which hadn't completed a pass all day, scored in the third quarter on a 21-yard heave from Tom Maudlin to Hill.

The lone Stanford touchdown came in the second quarter on an aerial attack directed by Quarterback Nicolet. The payoff was a seven yard pass from Nicolet to Skip Face.
