

Mrs. Frederick J. Stock Jr.

Newlywed Couple Lives Here

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Stock Jr., are making their home at 1320 Queen Anne street, Medford, following their wedding Friday, October 24, at Second Evangelical and Reformed church in Portland.

Mrs. Stock is the former Miss Claudine Brandow, the daughter of Mrs. Zeta Brandow and Clyde Brandow, both of Portland. Mr. Stock is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Stock, also Portland.

The bride wore a floor length white lace over satin gown with chapel train and her fingertip length veil was held by a pearl crown. She carried gardenias and stephanotis.

Miss Carolyn Brandow was honor attendant for her sister and Miss Carol Anderson was bridesmaid. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Hauzenberger and Mrs. Ronald Winkler. They wore blue velvet frocks and carried white and yellow chrysanthemums.

Twin nieces of the bridegroom, Janet and Janis Pederson, were flower girls and their brother, Douglas, was ring bearer.

Richard Hauzenberger served as best man and Duayne Barnhart, Craig Warnock and Douglas Donaca seated the guests.

The couple traveled to San Francisco on their wedding trip. The bride attended Portland State college and was employed as a bookkeeper for the Skyline Memorial Gardens, Portland. Mr. Stock is a graduate of Lewis and Clark college and is a case worker with the State Welfare department here.

Theme of the conference was "You Can Count on Her, Can She Count on You?"

Also attending from Medford were Mrs. Richard Gray, Mrs. Jack James, Miss Ruth Kilbourn, Mrs. Wilberta LeRoy, Bonnie Allingham, Mimi Jones, Martha Sanborn and Sherrie Pritchard.

Art Show Announced

One observance of National Art Week locally will be the art show being presented by Medford branch, American Association of University Women. It will be at the public library in the children's department, downstairs. Times for the display are Monday, November 3 from 6:30 to 9 p.m. and Wednesday from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. Coffee and cookies will be served Monday evening.

The committee for the show includes Mrs. Edwin Gebhard, Mrs. Frank Kehoe, Mrs. Everett Lasher, Mrs. Charles Freeman, Mrs. Roland Mayer, and Miss Catherine Fonken. They report a gratifying response from local artists and cordially invite the public to enjoy this opportunity of seeing what is being done in the Medford area in various forms of art.

Miss Helen Webster, librarian of the Medford Public Library has acted as ex-officio member of the show committee. Since this is Book Week as well as Art Week it is appropriate that the show can take place in the library.

A. C. Brisbane, 1847 Stewart avenue, plans to leave Medford Wednesday for Casper, Wyo., where he will visit his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Harris and family.
