

Mrs. Delmar Smith Is Hostess For Club

Central Point—Mrs. Delmar Smith was hostess October 22 for a meeting of Central Point Grange Home Economics club. Dessert luncheon was served with C. F. Smith and Mrs. Walter Mang assisting.

The group decided to omit the November meeting since it would be too close to Thanksgiving. The December meeting will be held at the Otto Niedermeyer home.

Mrs. Mang presented a contest with Mrs. Smith playing piano selections.

It was announced that Robert Kuest, 4-H club member, was received presented the Sears Roebuck company award for his work in poultry.

Guild Makes Study Of Presbyterianism

Westminster guild of First Presbyterian church will meet Monday, November 3, at 7:45 p.m. in the fireplace room of the church.

The program and devotions will deal with the question "What is a Presbyterian?" and will continue the study of this subject begun last month. Mrs. R. A. Brewer and Mrs. Eloise Winklebeck will be in charge of the program.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. J. A. Medley, Mrs. Virgil Bolton and Mrs. H. E. Marsh.

Coggins, Medford, aunt of the bride, made the bride's wedding gown and the frocks for her attendants.

Gilbert Shibley, served as best man for his brother and Ernest L. Groth and Elwin Shibley seated the guests.

Mrs. John C. Henderson was soloist and Miss Ardie Schuck played the organ.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the American Legion hall. Among those assisting at the event was Mrs. Coggins who cut and served the wedding cake.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Oregon State college. The couple are both employed by the Board of Christian Education.

Members of the Elks lodge and guests who attended the Hawaiian parties given by the lodge last week had the highest of praise for the decorating committee. The committee, composed of (left to right) Ralph Malack, Mrs. Richard Phair, Ray Huson and James Clark, worked for a week before the three-day event opened Thursday night to transform the party room into an island setting. Hilo Hattie and her troupe provided entertainment and played for dancing each evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James LeRoy Shibley

Former Medford Resident Wed in California Rites

Mr. and Mrs. James LeRoy Shibley are making their home near Abiquiu N. Mex., following their wedding October 12, in Bieber, Calif. Mrs. Shibley is the former Miss Ruby Darlene Henderson, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. John F. Groth of that city and former Medford residents. Mrs. Shibley is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett S. Shibley, Estacada, Ore.

The bride attended Medford High school and is a graduate of Eugene High school. She attended LaVerne college, LaVerne, Calif., and has served two years in Christian Volunteer Service work in Puerto Rico.

The father of the bride officiated at the afternoon ceremony. Baskets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums decorated the church.

The bride wore a white peau de faille gown fashioned with full skirt that terminated in a chapel train. Her fingertip length veil was held by a nylon cap and she carried red and white rosebuds on a white Bible. Mr. Groth gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Donald E. Green, Alturas, Calif., was honor attendant for her sister and Miss Winifred Shibley, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They both wore gold brocaded satin gowns with rust chiffon sashes and carried gold baskets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums.

Miss Sylvia May Coggins, Medford, cousin of the bride, and John C. Henderson II were candlelighters Miss Coggins wore a rust chiffon over tafetta frock with cummerbund of gold satin and her wrist corsage was of bronze chrysanthemums. Mrs. C. E.

Community Day Plans Completed

Plans for the observance of World Community Day were completed at a recent committee meeting of the Medford Council of Church Women. The event is scheduled for Friday, November 1, in St. Mark's Episcopal church. A short business meeting will be held at 11 o'clock, with the president, Mrs. Everett Faber, presiding. Election of officers will be held.

A covered dish luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. and those attending are asked to bring hot dishes, salads and desserts. The hostess group will provide coffee, rolls and butter. A reading during the luncheon period will be given by Mrs. Milton

Snow. Each year articles are collected for special needs and the call this year is for yarns and yardage which will go to homeless women who, as refugees, are trying to care for their families while they wait for an opportunity to better their conditions.

The afternoon service following luncheon is to be held in the sanctuary of the church. Mrs. C. L. Miller, chairman for the afternoon will preside. Dr. George Roseberry will give the opening devotions and will install the new officers.

Musical numbers will include a speaking choir from Hedrick Junior High school directed by Jerome McDougall and a vocal selection by Mrs. J. C. Kaylor. Mrs. Ernest Conrad will be at the organ.

Mrs. George Bolster will lead the responsive portion of the program. Ushers will be women of the hostess church and include Mrs. H. Goldsmith, Mrs. Robert Dames, Mrs. Donald McNeil and Mrs. C. O. Lovejoy. A Nursery will care for small children. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster and the Rev. John F. Power will dedicate the offering of both money and materials donated.

Member Honored On Anniversary

Pythian club honored Mrs. Audley White in observance of her 50th wedding anniversary at a meeting held last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Arnold Motschenbacher. Mrs. Leroy Cline was co-hostess.

Mrs. White was presented a gift and corsage from the group and the hostesses had prepared a specially decorated cake for the occasion.

Cards were played with prizes being won by Mrs. John Russell, Mrs. Mabel Nicholson and Mrs. William Sweet.

Past Chiefs' club of the Pythian Sisters will meet Wednesday at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Harry Bryant, 1312 Reddy avenue, for a covered dish luncheon.

Gold Hill Unit Changes Session

Gold Hill—Due to the regular meeting date of the Gold Hill Health unit falling on election day, the unit will meet instead on Monday, November 3 at the home of Mrs. E. C. Hoffman on Pacific Highway 99 north of Gold Hill. Co-hostesses Mrs. C. E. Brown and Mrs. Darrell Ross will assist Mrs. Hoffman with the one o'clock dessert luncheon which will precede the business session.

Mrs. Ted Schoenemann, president of the group, has requested that each member bring pens, since the annual tuberculosis association Christmas seals will be prepared for mailing at this time. Mrs. Loyd Dusenberry and Mrs. Melvin Burnette are in charge of the seal sale this year.

Additional plans will be made for the rummage sale, which will be given by the local unit in Medford at the FehI building on November 20 and November 21. Mrs. Arthur Boye is chairman for this project.

Persons having suitable articles for rummage may leave them at the Walker's Signal Service station in Gold Hill.

Meeting Announced By Adarel Chapter

Jacksonville—Adarel chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet Thursday, November 6, at 8 p.m. at the Jacksonville Masonic temple.

Committees in charge will be Mrs. George Redhead and Mrs. Clarence Williams.
