How To Be Better Hostess Topic For Extension Units

Six home extension units will meet this week.

"Improving Ourselves as Hostesses" will be the topic of the Medford Parents Home Extension unit this month. The meeting will be held Tuesday, November 4, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hertager, 824 Pennsylvania avenue. Mrs. Charles Rettmann and Mrs. William J. Thompson will present the project.

Mrs. C. P. Smets and Mrs. M. H. Fields will be hostesses for the evening. Members are to take their service. For further information and transportation call Mrs. Glen L. Stewart, SPing 2-9013.

"How to Improve Yourself as a Hostess" will be demonstrated at the meeting of the Wilson Park Home Extension unit Tuesday, November 4, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. David Shaffer, 932 Stewart avenue.

Project leaders are Mrs. Ronald Harding and Mrs. Gary Free who will show slides.

Co-hostesses are Mrs. Alvin Boswell and Mrs. Ronald Caperna. Members are to have ready a "thought for the day."

Lake Creek unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Grace Haskins, Eagle Point, Wednesday, November 5, at 10:30 a.m.

The project lesson "Improving Ourselves as Hostess" will be given by Mrs. Joe Arens and Mrs. Leland M. Charley. This is the Thanksgiving meeting and a menu consistent with the day will be served. Members not attending the October meeting and wishing information as to which food to take may call Mrs. Mabel Stanley or Mrs. Nora Bradshaw.

Table service is required by all attending.

Mrs. Edna Sawyer and Mrs. Lyle Hard will lead the discussion on "Improving Ourselves as Hostesses" at the meeting of Upper Applegate group to be held at the Grange hall Wednesday, November 5 at 10:30 a.m. There also will be demonstration of making Christmas toys by Mrs. Otis Buck.

Everyone is to take a sack lunch and service for dessert. Coffee and dessert will be furnished. Child care will be available and all interested are invited.

Mrs. Robert Russel and Mrs. Arnold Motschenbacher will be project leaders at the Thursday, November 6, meeting of the Westside unit. The meeting, to be held at the Central Point Grange will include a lesson on "Improve Yourself as a Hostess."

Potluck luncheon will be served and persons attending are to take their own table service.

Persons having yarn to donate to the 4-H knitting project are asked to take it to the meeting.

Griffin Creek Home Extension unit members will learn how to improve themselves as hostesses when they meet at 11 a.m. Friday, November 7, at the Griffin Creek Grange hall. Methods for entertaining will be demonstrated by the project leaders, Mrs. Paul R. Doe and Mrs. Ralph Marlatt.

Hostesses for the covered dish luncheon will be Mrs. Edward Mathern, Mrs. Noel Erskine and Mrs. Clark Lewis and they remind members to take their own table service.

Baby sitting will be provided by Mrs. Vada McCullough, 1221 Happy Valley road. Mothers are to take lunch for their children. For further information call Mrs. Glen V. Allen, SPing 2-4747.

The pattern workshop is getting underway with Mrs. Doe as an instructor and Mrs. Mathern and Mrs. Erskine as project leaders.

Vary hot dogs by slitting one side and stuffing with slivered or grated cheese, relish, applesauce or canned crushed pineapple.
