You've heard of "lucky seven" and it's a cinch that Coach Len Casanova of Oregon has heard of "luckless six" as he set about today figuring some means of getting a touchdown.

Washington defeated the favored Ducks, 6-0, on Saturday to make the third time this year that the Emerald Green of old Eugene has been dropped by that score. Oklahoma started the fad this season by clipping them, 6-0, in a game which saw Oregon hailed for its great effort against the Sooners. Three weeks ago, underdog Washington State followed with another 6-0 shutuout and then Washington pulled off the same result as the Ducks lost their third in a row.

Bears Dethroned

Further up the line, Oregon State defeated California, 14-8, and snatched first place in the Rose Bowl race away from the Bears. Coach Tommy Prothro's singe wingers, who never have lost a game under him at Corvallis, made it 16 wins on local soil after putting the tight clamp on quarterback Joe Kapp.

Washington State took over third place behind California by pasting UCLA, 38-20. The Cougars never were behind.

Southern California trampled on fumbling Stanford, 29-6, while using a powerful line to cut the Indians offense down.

4th Key Duck Among Injured

Eugene—(UPI)—Coach Len Casanova planned a light workout for his Oregon Webfoots today and worried about the possibility that Saturday's loss to Washington might put a fourth member of the first string on the sidelines.

End Alden Kimbrough bruised his side in the Seattle game and was scheduled to undergo a medical examination today to determine seriousness of the injury.

Three key Ducks who did not see action against the Huskies were end Ron Stover, halfback Charlie Tourville and guard Joe Schaffeld.

The Webfoots face Stanford in their final home game of the season this Saturday.

Tickets Go Out in Rush

A block of some 220 reserved seat tickets for the Medford-Grants Pass High football game was sold out in 20 to 25 minutes at the senior high office here this morning.

The game is slated for Friday at Grants Pass with the District 6 A-1 championship at stake.

Today's ticket sale here was scheduled for 7 a.m. and got underway about 6:50 a.m. when it was apparent that more people were on hand than there were tickets. Many persons went away without tickets.

Ragsdale Crippled

A number of persons were on hand at the high school around 5 a.m.

Medford apparently has lost the services of Dick Ragsdale for the big game. The sophomore left halfback suffered possible torn knee ligaments or broken cartilage in the Ashland game, putting him on crutches. He also was out of school today because of flu.

Another left half, senior Gerry Lyons, hurt a calf muscle in the Ashland fracas. Seriousness of his injury was not learned this morning. Senior quarterback Pond, who was weakened by flu and got hit in the head at Ashland, is reportedly all right.

The main line of the former Grand Trunk Railway between Montreal and Toronto opened in 1856, two years after the line to Quebec.

SPORTS

JV Crews Scoreless

Grants Pass and Medford High school junior varsities fought to a scoreless tie Saturday afternoon on a slow turf at Grants Pass.

Each club drove deep into the other's territory three or four times but could not muster scoring punch. GP got to the Medford four and the Tornado to the Cavemen eight yard line.

Phil Humphreys of Medford broke away for a 70-yard run to the GP end zone but officials ruled he stepped out of bounds on the 10 yard line. The Tornado moved to the eight, was thrown back for a loss and then yielded the ball on a fumble.

Bob Custance of Medford tried a field goal boot with the ball held on the 27-yard line. It was wide an short and, in addition, the Tornado was penalized for delay of the game on the play.

Medford won a previous game between the two jayvee teams 18 to 0. The game played last Saturday originaly had been set for this evening but was postponed because of conflicting activity at Grants Pass.

Odell's Gross Low at RVCC

Dr. Ralph Odell, with an even-par 72, had low gross in week end golf sweepstakes at Rogue Valley Country club.

Fred Engle and John Humphrey tied for low net with 68s.

Other gross counts included Ed Hall 74, Dick Knight, Jim Curley and Clayton Lewis each 77 and Lee Flink 79. Net bests included Harry Withrow 69, Brad Broyles 70 and Bob Voegtly and Deane Lambert each 71.

NW Court Loop Talked

Portland—(UPI)—The first step toward possible formation of a collegiate basketball league made up of Northwest Independents and schools of the dying Pacific Coast conference was reported during the week end.

Al Negratti, athletic director and basketball coach at the University of Portland, said nine Northwest schools of the dying Pacific Coast conference was reported during the week end.

Al Negratti, athletic director and basketball coach at the University of Portland, said nine Northwest schools have been invited to attend a meeting here next Friday to to discuss possibility of such a league.

Schools invited include Oregon, Oregon State, Washington State, Idaho, Portland, Seattle, Gonzaga, Montana State and Portland State. Negratti said participation in the meeting would not commit schools in any way. It was not known immediately how many schools would attend.

There also has been talk of reviving the old Northern division of the Pacific Coast conference after the PCC dies next July. This would include Oregon, Oregon State, Washington State, Idaho and Washington.

McDaniel Hurls LC To Triumph

United Press International

Lewis and Clark relied on an aerial attack to drub Whitman, 40-27, in the only Northwest conference action of the week end. Royce McDaniel hurled the Pioneers to the win Saturday by completing 18 of 37 passes for a total of 352 yards.

In a non-conference game, unbeaten Willamette rolled over the Loggers of College of Puget Sound 40-7 for its seventh win of the season.

Linfield scored a victory over Portland State, 34-7, getting two touchdown passes and nine other completions from freshman Bill Parrish.

Cal Poly exploded for 36 points in the second half to record a 48-0 win over Pacific in a non-conference contest. College of Idaho won over Eastern Oregon 20-6.

SF Forty Niners Try Free Kick

San Francisco—(UPI)—The San Francisco Forty Niners invoked the little-known rule 9, section 5, in their game with the Detroit Lions Sunday. It didn't work.

With the first half almost over, Hugh McElhenny called for a fair catch on the Forty Niner 39. The San Franciscans then baffled the crowd by lining up in free kick formation in other words, kick-off formation.

The rule says "a field goal may be scored by a free kick after a fair catch."

Kicker Gordy Soltau missed the 61-yard boot, but the Forty Niners went on to win 24-21.

Seattle Ramblers Rally To Trim SOC

Ashland—Seattle Ramblers overcame a 12-point first half deficit Saturday night and overtook the Southern Oregon college football team 16 to 12 in the Myrtle Bowl game at Coos Bay.

Led by the running of Del Brood and Laval Meunier, the Red Raiders could do no wrong in the first half. With its new winged "T" offenses SOC looked like a new team over past performances this year.

The second half showed a marked difference in all around play with the exception of the Raider defense who held the Seattle club on the four yard line for one full series of downs.

The Raiders punted when they got the ball and the Ramblers drove back to the 15 on the return run to put the situation on the spot again for SOC.

Ashlanders in Hole

Southern Oregon was in a hole the whole second half except for one time when it drove to the Rambler 17 only to lose the ball on downs.

It was after this drive faltered that Seattle drove 99 yards after a penalty against it for the touchdown which earned the victory.

Brood played his game of the year for the men of SOC in picking up 88 yards rushing. He had been playing only in spots this year due to injuries.

Phil Sword and Larry Yarnell shone on defense with two pass interceptions each. Yarnell cut off two drives in the first half and returned one of the interceptions for 30 yards. Sword brought one back for 24 yards and another for 2 before he lateraled to Anday Travis who ground out five more.

Brood scored the first TD for SOC with only 36 seconds remaining in the first quarter from three yards out, The running of Brood, Meunier, and Larry Maurer set up the tally in the drive which started on the SOC 46 yard line.

Double Reverse

In dire need of a first down with the ball second and 16 on the Rambler 26 Meunier fouled up the pass-expectant defense with a double reverse from left to right that scored with 11:50 remaining in the second half.

The Raiders had the ball on the 21 by virtue of Brood's 21 yard gallop on a previous play but Jack Brown had a pass intercepted as the men of SOC lost possession.

Seattle after getting nowhere on one play fumbled on the second and SOC recovered. Maurer lost six on the first play and then Meunier came romping around end for the score.

Lance Locke missed the conversions on both touchdowns.

Seattle drove down to the four yard line in the third quarter where the Raider defense held four times to gain possession. Tony Brauner immediately punted but the return brought the ball back to the 15 in SOC territory.

Again SOC held for three plays but with a fourth down situation on the six-yard line and one yard to go for the first down Seattle's Bob Lydum tricked the defense with a pass to Ed Johnson and the touchdown. Bill Castrow kicked the first of his two conversions.

Give Safety

In a show of strategy, SOC was deep in its own territory on the three yard line when Brauner downed the ball in the end zone to give the Ramblers a safety but also it gave SOC a free kick from the 20 yard line in an effort to get out of the end of the field.

With three minutes remaining the Ramblers had a third down and four yards to go situation when Lydum hit on a pass to end Sam Buckley who flipped back to Royal Dotson on a play that netted 27 yards and a first down on the SOC 48.

A run and 39 yard pass to Don Alen from Lydum put the ball in scoring position on the four yard line where Dotson carried for the score.

Attempting to get off one long scoring pass Brown had an interception spoil all chances for SOC in the waning minute of play.

HOCKEY

NATIONAL LEAGUE

The Boston Bruins make hay even when the sun does not shine.

Although hobbled by injuries, Milt Schmidt's skaters blanked the Toronto Maple Leafs, 2-0, Sunday night after bouncing the Detroit Red Wings, 3-1, in Saturday's TV game.

The win victories enabled the Bruins to climb to within one point of the pace-setting Montreal Canadiens in the National Hockey League race.

In Sunday night's only other game, the Red Wings bounced back to edge the New York Rangers, 2-1.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

The Buffalo Bisons hold a commanding eight-point lead—their largest of the season—after racking up a pair of wins during the weekend in the American Hockey league.

The Bisons, led by scoring ace Bill Sweeney, clubbed the Providence Reds, 5-1, Sunday night, to extend their latest winning skein to three games.

In other Sunday night action, the Springfield Indians came from behind to trim the Hershey Bears, 4-2, and the Rochester Americans, lead by Cecil Hoekstra's two tallies, downed Cleveland, 6-3.

Owls Take OCC Title

United Press International

Oregon Tech wrapped up the Oregon Collegiate conference football championship Saturday night at Monmouth, the first clear-cut OCC title in the school's history, by erupting for 10 touchdowns to bury Oregon College of Education, 66-7.

The lopsided defeat was the worst administered in the conference since 1952, when OTI turned the trick against Southern Oregon 89-0. That year, Oregon Tech shared its only other loop crown with the Wolves.

Foster Paces

OTI, undefeated against college teams this season, was paced Saturday by a 161-pound halfback, Otis Foster, who set a conference single game scoring record by personally racking up 33 points, including five touchdowns.

Three OCC members were defeated Saturday in non-conference contests. Eastern Oregon was drubbed 20-6 by College of Idaho, the Seattle Ramblers won over Southern Oregon, 16-12, and Portland State was beaten by Linfield, 34-7.
