

Girl Scout Training Announced

A combined craft and dance session for Girl Scout workers will be held at St. Mark's Episcopal Guild hall, Fifth and North Oakdale avenue, November 5, from 9:30 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. Tables of craft will be displayed with suggestions for all age Scouts. An opportunity will be provided for leaders to share ideas and receive help on craft work and they are invited to bring their ideas and samples of craft to the meeting.

The display of craft and a short work session on Christmas items will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. From 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Mrs. J. W. Barnard will give instruction in dancing for a May festival. Baby sitting will be provided for all who wish to bring their children. Coffee will be served for those who bring a sack lunch.

After lunch instruction will be given on various crafts. The crafts being emphasized are nature, Christmas making, gift wrapping, costume making, book binding, and Brownie service projects. Emphasis is being placed on making items from materials available in the home.

This is the second session of training given on the dances for the coming May festival. The first session given in October was attended by 98 adults from the Medford district. Mrs. Darrell Huson, Mrs. Kenneth Brown and Miss Colleen Hope, who instructed, reported excellent progress being made. Twenty eight children were cared for in the nursery by volunteers. They were Mrs. Homer Elze, Mrs. Edward Leach, Mrs. G. N. Gitzon, Mrs. John Nelson and Mrs. J. W. Stewart.

Harmony Auxiliary To Plan for Bazaar

A bazaar will be planned at a meeting of Townsend Harmony auxiliary to be held Wednesday, November 5, at 11 a.m. at Carpenters' hall.

A costume party was held at the meeting of Townsend club last week, with the costumes worn by Mrs. Myrtle Ahart and Mrs. Nettie Rusko judged best. Mrs. Lulu Stringer and Mrs. Rusko received prizes for the best cartoon.

Mrs. Eve Prentice furnished accordion music for dancing. Songs and Halloween stories filled the intermission time.

Official To Visit Medford Auxiliary

Mrs. Neely Williams, president of District 7, Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary, will make an official visit to Greater Lake auxiliary here Tuesday, November 4. The meeting will be held at VFW hall at 8 p.m.

Plans for the annual Last Man's dinner, the annual Veterans' breakfast and the coming visit of the national president will be made.

St. Michael and St. George are pictured above as they battle it out in hand to hand combat—not for the cause of Christianity—but out of playful enthusiasm. The pair are Michael Higgins (left) and George Reed, first graders at St. Mary's academy, who were amongst the youngsters attending the Halloween party held at the school Friday. Plywood shields and rubber swords served as battle gear. Western-style boots worn by St. Michael and the revamped football helmet on St. George added a touch of incongruity to the combat scene.

Children of the two first grade rooms at St. Mary's academy Friday afternoon observed Halloween by dressing in gowns and robes symbolizing their Patron Saints. A party for the youngsters and their mothers was held in a room of the school's gymnasium, where Halloween refreshments were served. Admiring each other's costumes on the steps of the building, above, are, left to right, Cecelia Green, Mark Krueger and Pamela Scherzinger. The word Halloween is supposedly a contract of Hallowed Evening—the even of All Saints day. This is the first time such an event has been put on at the school and is an effort to bring back the religious implications of Halloween.

Presley Leaves Girl Friend Behind

Friendberg, Germany—UPI—Elvis Presley left his new blonde German girl friend behind today to go on his first maneuvers in Germany.

As trucks and tanks of the 32nd Tank Battalion began the long convoy to the Grafenwoehr maneuver area near the Czech border, blonde typist Margrit Buegin, 16, began a new week in her Frankfurt office.

"But when he's back we'll continue our acquaintance," she said.

Elvis gave a noisy party on Sunday night in his hotel where the sounds of his guitar and singing bounced down to the sidewalks below and caused a crowd to collect.

Between plunks on his guitar he confessed he liked Margrit "very much" and added, "and I'm glad her parents like me as well."

Elvis will be away until Dec. 20, nearly seven weeks of stiff field exercises.

Membership PTA Drive Concluded

Jackson county parent-teacher association units have concluded membership enrollment month with an estimated five per cent increase in membership. "Additional members may be enrolled throughout the school year, with all persons interested in improving the welfare of children and willing to uphold the bylaws, being eligible for enrollment," states Mrs. Lewis Dusenberry, Trail, county council membership chairman.

Mrs. Russell Case, Portland, president of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, conducted a recent workshop in Medford for local unit and council presidents of Klamath and Jackson counties. She was assisted by Mrs. Joseph Edmiston, Milwaukie, vice president of region III of the Oregon Congress.

The main topic for discussion was the possible division of the state organization into districts, and smaller councils, replacing the present county council structure. Jackson county and Josephine county would comprise one district; Klamath county and Lake county would comprise another district. Directors of the proposed 18 districts would replace the 30 county council presidents currently serving on the board of managers of the Oregon Congress.

The district plan is considered by its proponents to be more functional, to give more service to local units, and to develop more leadership for use in the local units and at the state level. The majority of the state PTA Congresses are organized with the district structure.

Clackamas county has been operating a pilot program on the proposed district plan since June 1958.

Chef Russell Simmons is shown here offering a before-the-crowd arrives sample to Richard Phair, club manager and William Ruck, general chairman of the lodge's social committee. Caring—about herself and others—and about her country's natural resources, is the keynote of the current Camp Fire Girls project. "She Cares—Do You?" Learning about the world around her, Camp Fire Girls in Jackson county, together with Camp Fire Girls from coast to coast, will take an active part in conserving the country's resources including plant and animal life and minerals.

"The goals of the project are twofold," said Mrs. James P. Rowan, president of the Rogue Camp Fire Girls council, when she announced the general theme of the coming activities. "Our first goal is to provide an active service to this great nation by having girls take part in community activities that promote the wise use of natural resources. The second goal is to help Camp Fire Girls develop an awareness of what makes this country sound."

Mrs. Rowan said she hopes both girls and adults throughout Jackson county would join Camp Fire Girls now and take part in this vital new

Quick But Fancy

New York—UPI—An easy but fancy dessert is cherry bombe. Combine 1 pint vanilla ice cream, 1/4 cup chopped maraschino cherries (about 10), 2 tablespoons chopped walnuts and 1 tablespoon cherry juice. Pack into 4 1-cup molds. Freeze until firm. Unmold. Serves 4.

Hat Picture

Always stand up and look in a full-length mirror before making your final selection of your next "pick me up chapeaux." The height of the crown, width of the brim and crown should balance the whole picture of "you."

Freezing a week's supply of sandwiches makes it easier to get the children off to school on time. Best sandwich fillings are processed cheeses, meats, canned fish, and peanut butter. Omit salad dressing and greens. Instead, tuck a paper cup of mayonnaise and lettuce wrapped in waxed paper into the lunchbox in the morning.
