To help raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom, the junior class is sponsoring a slave auction Nov. 3, 4, and 5. Members of the freshman class are to be auctioned off to students to perform reasonable jobs for one day.

GAA held their Halloween costume party, Thursday, Oct. 28, in the cafeteria. About 60 girls attended. Nancy McKay, GAA point manager, explained the point system and awards.

Games were played and prizes were given to the following: first place, Sharon Terry; second place, Mary Stewart; third place, Judy Whaylay; and tied for fourth place, Janet Johnson, Mary Elin Burkhardt, and Rachel Hamilton.

Prizes were given for the best costume and first place went to Cheryl Ghelardi who came as a "Purple People Eater." Second place went to Pat Allen who came as a hobo.

Miss Coldren, Arvella Prom in disguise, told the girls "unfortunate fortunes."

Committee chairmen for the party were Doris Owens, decorations; Rae Burrit, advertisement; Alice Thompson, program; Sylvia Yell, refreshments; and Janet Johnson, clean-up.

GAA members who were interested in bowling started a 10-week bowling schedule Wednesday, Oct. 29, at the Medford bowling lane. Members were charged 25 cents a game and received their bowling shoes free. Girls who did not know how to bowl were given lessons.

Cast members for "Cheaper by the Dozen," the fall play, are as follows: Mrs. Gilbreth, Sandra Smith; Mr. Gilbreth, John Caster; Ernestine, Betty Jones; Frank, Richard Hamersly; Jackie, Robert Allen; Glenda Branch, hostesses; Joan Scov, decorations; Nelda Robbins and Arvella Prom, programs; Jeanette Purdy, exhibits; Vernola Hutchinson, registration; and Mary Howard, luncheon.

Medical Minded Maids, a newly formed club for girls interested in all fields of medicine, held a meeting Oct. 21 at which Miss Carol Culp, a student nurse from the University of Oregon, spoke. She spoke on various fields of nursing and her experiences in the fields. She also talks about medical schools and the daily procedure when working in a hospital and the rules that you have to follow.

Bill Manasco was chosen general chairman for the Photo club dance to be held Nov. 7. Other committee chairmen are June Asher, decorations; Iva Governor, refreshments; and Alvin Kroon, advertising.

Keeping with the theme of "Modern Design," Nancy Hopper will provide entertainment in the form of a modern jazz dance.

This year we have a new principal, Bruce Metzger, from Oak Grove.

Mrs. Alice Brown's first grade pupils decorated the main hall bulletin board this week. It is interesting, as the art work was done by the pupils. It is a Halloween mural of witches, ghosts, and children trick and treating.

United Nations Day was observed at Jackson school. The bulletin board in the main hall had pictures and articles on the United Nations. Larry Halme and Catherine Watson each wrote an article on the subject. They also went from room to room and briefly told what the United Nations is.

Friday, Oct. 24, Jackson school held its first student body meeting of the year. The officers, president, Catherine Watson; vice president, Teresa Riggs; secretary, Karyn Fixsen; and treasurer, Mike McDonald, were introduced. Vice President Teresa Riggs presented Don Perry with a safety award which had been presented to them by Governor Holmes at the YMCA on Oct. 17. The treasurer, Mike McDonald, told how the student body money was being put to use.

The Junior Red Cross representatives, Patricia Warren and Linda Graham, with their advisor, Mrs. Lucille Stroh, put on a skit to show how the Junior Red Cross helps needy children and how we can help the Junior Red Cross. Other members in the cast were Roger Halme, Karyn Fixsen, Lydia Orgain and Victor Synder.

U. S. RECOGNIZES GUINEA. Washington—President Eisenhower has formally extended diplomatic recognition to the independent government of Guinea, a former French territory on the west coast of Africa.

The bureau of engraving and printing of the treasury department produces all the paper money and other securities of the federal government.

BOX SEAT
Lisbon—(EP)—Diamantino Freitas and his wife leaned out the window of their modest home in the cramped "Bairro Alto" district Sunday to watch firemen at work on the street below. The fire chief excitedly ordered them out to the street. It was Diamantino's top floor that was on fire.

Myrtlewood is said to grow only in the Holy Land and the coast region of Oregon. It is used to make wooden dishes.
