Washington Staters Picked Over Beavers

New York —(UPI)— Iowa and Louisiana State University, two top-ranked teams in college football, each was made a two-touchdown favorite today to win this Saturday.

Iowa, ranked No. 1 in the nation, was picked by 14 points over Minnesota in a Big Ten conference game at Minneapolis. LSU, rated second by a narrow margin, was a 13-point choice at home against Duke in a Saturday night game.

Army, which travels to Houston, Tex., to play Rice in one of the day's leading inter-sectional battles, was favored by 7 points, while Auburn, which ranks fourth right behind the Cadets, was picked by the same margin at home against Mississippi State.

Oklahoma, the nation's fifth-ranked team, was made the biggest favorite on this week's "line." The Sooners were picked by 28 to beat Iowa State at Ames, Iowa.

In games to be televised regionally, Notre Dame was picked by 6 over Pitt at Pittsburgh—East, and Kansas was the choice by 8 over Nebraska—Midwest.

There was one "pick-em" (even) game on this week's program. That was between Kentucky and Vanderbilt at Lexington, Ky. Three other Saturday contests were listed as 1-point games—Pennsylvania over Yale, Purdue over Ohio State, and Washington State over Oregon State.

In Friday night games, Syracuse was picked by 12 over Boston College, Florida State was the choice by 1 over Miami, Fla., and Alabama was picked by 1 over Tulane.

Here are the point-spreads on other leading Saturday games:

Inter-sectional: Villanova 10 over Dayton, Boston 13 over Detroit, Mississippi 13 over Houston.

Plea Issued for Increased College Sports Activities

New York —(UPI)— College athletic officials today issued a collective plea for increased sports activities and facilities at our higher institutes of learning.

The plea was based on an extensive National Collegiate Athletic Association survey on college athletics, physical education and recreational programs which revealed:

—A critical lack of indoor and outdoor facilities at many educational institutions; for example, seven of 395 schools surveyed did not have gymnasiums and 50 did not have softball diamonds.

—Inadequate provisions for required physical education;

56 of 395 colleges do not require physical education for men; only 35.5 per cent of college male undergraduates are enrolled in physical education courses.

The college athletic leaders also pointed out that mathematics is being stressed in some schools at the expense of muscles.

"Correlation between a sound body and a sound mind makes it mandatory that physical fitness planning maintain pace with programs designed to produce scientists," they warned.

On the brighter side, the NCAA survey showed participation and expenditures in intercollegiate athletics, intramural and recreational activity at an all-time high.

Amateur Boxing Card Planned At Vets Home

Final arrangements have been made for a 12-bout amateur boxing show for the veterans at the Camp White Convalescent Home on Friday, Nov. 14.

This show, the first one of many planned for the vets, will pit the boxers from the Medford Police Athletic League against their formidable rival, Talent Boys' club.

With each club hustling and training at full blast, the action could give the vets a top show.

In former bouts held in Medford and in Talent, one point was proved. It is necessary to reach into the far corners of the state to fill a card which will wow Rogue valley fight fans. Jim Zack, coach of the PAL boxers and Don Spaulding, Talent club coach, have plenty of fistic scrappers on hand to give an entertaining evening.

While this is the first amateur boxing show of the season, fight fans of the Rogue valley will soon have the opportunity of seeing some of their favorite battlers, in action. Zack is negotiating to bring Canadian and northwest champions for fall matches in Medford. It is hoped that arrangements can be made for a top card late in November.

Watkins Loses Utah Election

Salt Lake City —(UPI)— Democrat Frank E. Moss won Utah's three-way race for the U.S. Senate by unseating veteran Sen. Arthur V. Watkins, who based his campaign for reelection to a third term on his support of the Eisenhower administration.

Former Gov. J. Bracken Lee, who also ran for the Senate with a campaign promise that he would try to abolish federal income taxes, ran a poor third.

Newcomer David S. King, a Democrat, also won over another GOP veteran, Rep. William A. Dawson.

Rep. Henry Dixon was the only incumbent Republican to win. He defeated attorney M. Blaine Peterson.

Victory by the two Democrats split Utah's previously solid GOP congressional delegation and left Dixon and Sen. Wallace F. Bennett as the state's only remaining Republicans in the nation's capital. Bennett was not up for reelection this year.

Democrats Gain Control of State Legislature

Portland —(UPI)— Democrats will control the Senate of the 1959 Oregon Legislature for the first time in 80 years.

The line-up on the basis of nearly complete returns, indicated 18 Democrats and 12 Republicans.

Last year, the Senate was evenly divided—15 Republicans and 15 Democrats.

There were 12 contests in the Senate with Republicans ahead in six of them and Democrats six.

The difference was that Democrats had had 12 hold-over Senators plus Sen. Dan Thiel, Astoria, who was unopposed. That left them with only three races to win for control.

Senate Republicans had only three holdovers plus two unopposed Senators—Francis W. Ziegler, Carvallis, and Carl H. Francis, Dayton.

Best Showing

As expected, Democrats made their best showing in Multnomah and Clackamas counties.

Multnomah races saw Alice Corbett and William Grenfell Jr. forge ahead of Republicans A. A. Horsfeldt and Harriet P. Krause.

Veteran Monroe Sweetland and Rep. Richard Groener led their Republican opponents in Clackamas county. Independent Elmer Deetz, Canby, also led the Republicans but was not elected.

Republicans made their best Senate showing in Marion county where Rep. Eddie Aherns and Salem mayor Robert White were elected handily.

The vote in Lane county was closer with Democrat Robert Straub and Republican Donald R. Husband elected if present trends continue.

Republican Melvin Goode was victor in Linn county and Democrat Gordon Hudson, was trailing Edwin Durno by 127 votes.

Sen. Walter Leth scored an easy victory for Republicans in Polk county and Democrat Loyd M. Keybeat apparently beat out present Sen. Leander Quiring in a close Umatilla county race.

Goldwater Wins Arizona Reelection

Phoenix —(UPI)— Democratic Arizona gave Republicans Barry Goldwater, Rep. John Rhodes and newcomer Paul Fannin smashing victories in a "democratic year."

The explanation for a Republican landslide in the key Arizona races still was wanting today.

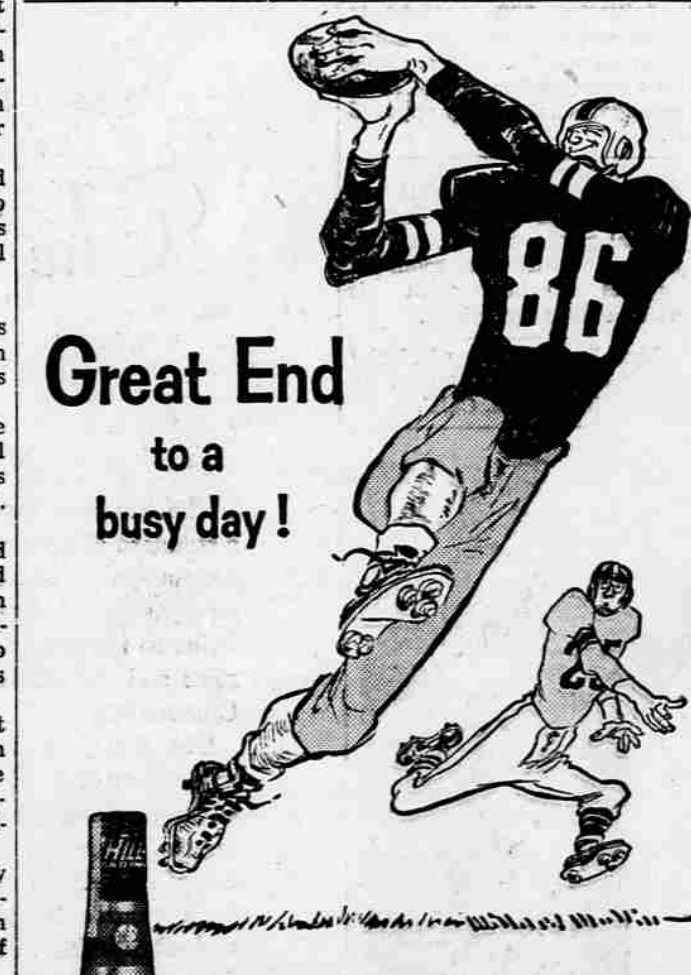

The senate race was one of the bitterest in the state's history, and incumbent Goldwater, getting strong Democratic support, shattered the dreams of Gov. Ernest McFarland in a comeback bid for the seat he lost while Democratic majority leader in 1952.

Fannin's show of strength was a surprise in that he pasted Democratic aspirant Robert Morrison, state attorney general, by a fair-sized margin in the governor's race.
