EAGLE POINT Church Speaker Named

By LAURA A. McFALL
Eagle Point—The Eagle Point Community Bible church is sponsoring the Rev. Alex McLeod, of Seattle, Wash., as their guest this week. He will speak there every evening except Saturday until Nov. 16. The meetings start at 7:30 p.m.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Eagle Point Community Bible church held an all day meeting with 15 attending recently. A potluck luncheon was served at noon with Mrs. Fred Canterbury and Mrs. Francis W. Terry as cohostesses.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Calvin Lusk was nominated as "Mother of the Year."

The ladies need used clothing, and clean white sheets for bandages. The next regular meeting will be held at the church on Nov. 20 at 10 a.m. with a potluck luncheon and all ladies are urged to attend.

The ladies of the missionary also attended the semi-annual Women's missionary rally Oct. 21 at the Williams Community church, Williams. The speaker was Mrs. William Berg, missionary from the Philippine Islands. Mrs. Lewis Collins reported on the various missions in Japan. It was announced that the next rally will be held at the Cave Junction Community church in April.

Man Sentenced to Six Months in County Jail

Kenneth Lloyd Larson, 31, of 46 Bigham drive, Central Point, was fined $5 costs and sentenced to six months in the county jail by District Court Judge James M. Main Wednesday afternoon on a charge of operating a vehicle without an operator's license in his possession.

Larson, who pleaded guilty to the charge, had originally given the Oregon state police, who arrested him, the name of Steve Al Steverson. Judge Main also revoked Larson's parole on which he was placed several months earlier.
