

Soldier Held In Girl's Death

Oshkosh, Wis. — (UPI) — Authorities were due to arrive here today with a young AWOL soldier wanted for questioning in the death of Ruth Schmidt, 17, whose body was found by hunters.

Vernon R. Dillman, 22, waived extradition in Nebraska after he and another AWOL soldier were arrested while hitchhiking near Big Springs, Neb.

Sheriff Charles Lowrie of Winnebago county, Wis., and two deputies left Ogallala, Neb., Friday with Dillman in custody. He was held on a morals charge.

Lowrie said Dillman was seen with the Schmidt girl in Oshkosh on the night of Aug. 15, shortly before she disappeared. Her body was found by hunters last week.

Dillman told Nebraska authorities he enlisted in the Army under the name Jerry Schefers about a month after he left Oshkosh. He and his companion, Joseph Honor, 17, were stationed at Fort Carson, Colo. Honor was turned over to military authorities.
