

Fashions And Food Tea Theme

Food and fashion to tempt and intrigue are being arranged by members of Medford Women's club for presentation at the Fancy Foods and Fashions tasting tea and style show on Monday, November 17, at Mon Desir dining inn.

The 12:30 o'clock buffet is being prepared by Mrs. Julie Tummers of the inn, and will feature several exotic dishes. Some of the recipes for these were acquired by Mrs. Tummers on her recent visit in the Hawaiian islands. A number of other dishes for sampling will be offered to give guests ideas for holiday entertaining in their homes. Certain recipes will be made available for those who desire them.

Fashions, to be shown by Town and Country shop of Eagle Point, have been selected with the emphasis on glamour for the coming festive season. Accessories will be shoes from Burelson's shoe salon and hats from Hadleys. Models have been selected from the club members. Mrs. Gene Chamberlain, model chairman, will be commentator.

Proceeds from the event will be used to establish a fund for use in connection with the clothing pool set up in the schools for the first time this year. Members of Medford Junior Women's club have assumed responsibility for sorting and preparing the garments for distribution by Mrs. Martha Donahue, school district nurse. The fund will provide for new items to supplement used clothing, such as underclothing, stockings and shoes where needed.

Telephone reservations are being taken by Mrs. John J. Holmes, SPring 2-8519, and Mrs. Larry McConnell, SPring 2-9130.

Guests Here

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Martini, Charlevoix, Mich., were guests the past month of Mrs. Ray E. Wright, 1100 Reddy avenue. Mrs. Martini and Mrs. Wright are cousins.

Girls' Community Club Scene of Wedding Rites

Miss Joyce Ann Pestka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pestka, 3631 Hanley road, Central Point, became the bride of Donald Lee Lacey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lacey, 2279 Taylor road, Central Point, in a ceremony held October 26.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the double ring rites held at the Girls Community club at seven o'clock in the evening. Approximately 80 relatives and friends attended the event. Baskets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums decorated the club for the wedding and Mrs. Gordon McKewold played the piano.

The bride formerly lived in the club, and her wedding was the first to be held in the new clubhouse, and the first of a former resident.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace dress over taffeta with shoulder length veil. She carried red roses on a white ribbon.

Miss Betty Pestka was honor attendant for her sister and Miss Sharon Pestka, another sister, was bridesmaid. Little Debra Lynn Chapman was flower girl for her cousin. Miss Betty wore a yellow chiffon frock and carried bronze chrysanthemums while Miss Sharon wore pink and shrimp colored chiffon and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The flower girl wore a mint green organza frock and carried a basket of rose petals.

Doyle Lacey served as best man for his nephew. Norman Chapman, William Lacey, brother of the bridegroom, and Jerry Korbal seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the club. Miss JoAnn Cooper cut the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Alfred Korbal, and Mrs. Norman Chapman presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Bennett Austin poured the coffee. Miss Judy Korbal was in charge of the guest book and Miss Marlene Addington and Miss Mary Alice Pestka were at the gift tables.

The couple traveled to the coast on their wedding trip. The bride wore for traveling an aquamarine suit with black accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Crater High school and was dental assistant for Dr. Alfred Fosdal. Mr. Lacey is also a graduate of Crater High school and is an engineman second class with the United States Navy. He is currently serving aboard the USS Tortuga based at San Diego, Calif., where the couple will make their home after November 18.

College Students To Be Speakers For Church Group

Theodore Chang and Myrna Marumoto will be the guest speakers for Congregational Women's Fellowship at a meeting Thursday, November 13. They are students from the Hawaiian Islands attending Southern Oregon college and will wear island costumes.

The meeting will begin with a sack lunch at twelve o'clock. Coffee and dessert are to be furnished. There is nursery car for young children. A study group will meet at a parsonage at 10:15 a.m.

Vigsand - Selby Ceremony Held in Medford Church

Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Vigsand are making their home at 1225 Withington street, Medford, following their wedding October 31 at First Presbyterian church here. Dr. D. K. West officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 45 relatives and friends.

Mrs. Vigsand is the former Katherine Eva Selby, daughter of Mrs. Faye McCulley, Happy Camp, Calif., and Marvin E. Selby, Fort Jones, Calif. She has been making her home here and is employed as a clerk in the county assessor's office. Mr. Vigsand, formerly of Central Point, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vigsand, Santa Ana, Calif., and is a laboratory technician with West Main Doctors' clinic here.

Chrysanthemums, ferns and white satin bows on the pews decorated the church for the seven o'clock evening ceremony.

The bride wore a pink knit suit with white orchid corsage. She was attended by Miss Sylvia Smith, her cousin. Henry Sommerer served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. C. Marion Smith, 215 North Columbus avenue. Assisting Mrs. Smith was Mrs. Frank Harden, who cut and served the wedding cake baked and decorated by Mrs. Arthur Hertager. Mrs. Henry E. Sommerer poured the coffee and Mrs. Joe Beach presided at the punch bowl. Miss Judith Harden was in charge of the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Yreka High school and Robertson School of Business.

Out-of-town guests included Eugene Selby, Fort Jones, Calif., father of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Mapleden, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Barton, all Horse Creek, Calif.; Mrs. Lil-

Aid for People of Greece Club Project; Tea Planned

Mrs. Walter Brown, Klamath Falls, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, has announced help for the people of Greece as her project.

Through "CARE", self-help packages of vocational, health, and educational tools will be sent to training centers in order that the needy can gain the skills, the knowledge and the vigor to build self-sufficient lives, Mrs. Brown states.

To support the project, Medford Travel Study club, of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, will hold a silver tea Wednesday, November 12, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. in the Girl's Community club.

Men and women both invited to attend.

Mrs. Willis T. Fasel, First District international affairs chairman, is in charge of the entire CARE project for Medford.

Mrs. Fasel has appointed Mrs. Edward C. Root, chairman, and Mrs. William E. Boone, co-chairman for the silver tea. Others on the committee are Mrs. Carrie Walters, Mrs. Meredith Leitch, Mrs. Robert D. Toomey, and Mrs. Clay M. Lee.

"CARE" boxes will be placed Monday, November 17, and will be found in store, banks and business places for the entire week.

Mrs. John Sansone and Mrs. Vincent N. Nobell arranged for these. Mrs. Alexander P. Collins is chairman of placing the boxes and supplying members to take charge of them. She will be assisted by Mrs. Horace F. Knight, and Mrs. Fasel.

Mrs. Fasel appointed Mrs. Lee publicity chairman.

An entire village can be reclaimed from misery through "CARE" self-help packages, it is stressed.

Greece is still one of the poorest nations in Europe, the club points out. "Twenty-five per cent of her people earn less than a dollar a week. A pair of shoes costs $8.00, two month's earnings for thousands of people. CARE tools are needed urgently to train and equip more young people for the job of building a strong and secure Greek nation," the club statement reads.

lie M. Hart, Yreka, Calif.; Henry Vigsand, Santa Ana, Calif., father of the bridegroom; and Mrs. Eugene Selby Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, and daughter Jean, Hornbrook.

Prior to the wedding the bride-elect was honored at a bridal shower given by Mrs. Harden at her home, 909 Sunset avenue.

Dinners Given For Bride-Elect; Rites Saturday

Eagle Point — Miss Linda Malloroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Malloroy, Eagle Point, was honored at pre-nuptial parties last week. She is the fiancée of David Woolfolk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Woolfolk, Brownsboro. The wedding is planned November 15 at Berean Baptist church, Camp White.

Wednesday evening the bride-elect was honored at a dinner at Mary's Casa given by Mrs. Frank McDowell and Mrs. Richard Morgan, staff members with Miss Malloroy for Dr. Alvin Roberts and Dr. Wayne Roberts, Central Point. Nine persons attended the dinner and a bridal shower which followed at the home of Mrs. McDowell, Stevens street.

Mrs. Donald Geren and Mrs. John Ousterhout, Eagle Point, were hostesses for a bridal shower for Miss Malloroy Thursday evening at the Ousterhout home. More than 20 relatives and friends of the honored guest attended.
