APPLEGATE VALLEY Girl Leaves For Training

By MAUDE ZIEGLER

Applegate Valley — Miss Mary Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams, left last week for Washington, D.C., and Bainbridge, Md., where she will undergo nine weeks basic training as a Wave recruit.

Miss Williams, a graduate of Jacksonville High School enlisted for three years.

Before she left, her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stegret, and children of Ft. Jones, Calif., visited her.

Thirty-eight young people attended the Youth Fellowship dinner of the Ruch community church last week. The progressive dinner began at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hunter, and continued at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Main, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert DeVoss, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ramsay. Jerry Coe, president of the Youth Fellowship, led devotions. Skating once a month at Grants Pass and basketball games will occupy the young people this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Reavis of Medford have purchased the Louis Crammer ranch here. Although they do not expect to build on the property soon, Reavis has been repairing fence. A small section of the place was bought by Mr. and Mrs. Ken Howard of Stewart Ave., Medford, who are building a new home. Mr. and Mrs. Crammer have resided in Butte Falls for several years.

David Gregory was host to a group of friends Saturday at a winter roast celebrating his 12th birthday.

About 500 feeder steers were sold by more than a dozen cattlemen here at the feeders' auction held at Medford last month. The cattle brought an average price of 26 cents. A number of owners also plan to sell at the December sale. Cattlemen say they still are scrambling for the last "tagends" of their herds which remain on low range during the good weather.

Achievement night for Applegate and Ruch 4-H clubs will be held at the Applegate school gymnasium Saturday, Nov. 15. The program will start with a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m., and youngsters will receive pins or cards for projects completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Saltmarsh went to Roseburg recently, where they visited Mrs. Mattie Lyons, sister of Mrs. Saltmarsh.

Mrs. Otis Buck will be hostess to Little Applegate Knitting club at her home Nov. 18. The sewing club of that area will meet with Mrs. Milton Houston Nov. 20. Officers will be elected.

Ranger and Mrs. Vern Taylor and son, David, will leave Friday for Lakeview, where Taylor has been promoted to the supervisor's staff of the Fremont National forest. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were honored with a farewell party Monday evening at the suppression building here given by forest service personnel. Friday evening they were honored with a dinner party at the Rogue Valley Country club by the Medford staff, which also was a farewell to Al Hansen of the Medford office, who is transferring to the Chugach National forest in Alaska.

A Halloween carnival given as much to keep the kids out of mischief as to make money for the Ruch PTA brought the trick of all tricks on Halloween when the gobbler waiting placidly in a crate to be someone's door prize disappeared.

A frantic search outdoors located the turkey in a pickup; he was retrieved, and later won by Mrs. Harlan Cantrell.

A good crowd participated in the carnival, which netted $180.00 for the PTA.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Holid of the community are residing in the new rental home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fossen at Ruch.

An outstanding achievement of the Grange ladies and their home economics club of which Mrs. Edna Sawyer is chairman, was the preparation and serving of a turkey dinner to 180 4-H leaders, Junior leaders, and their wives recently. The ladies were complimented on their table decorations of green and white carried out with ivy sprigs and the 4-H emblem centered with lighted candles. There were many compliments on their chiffron pumpkin pies made to a standard recipe.

The forest service has leased a site near the Hunter and Best mill for a new log scaling station. The station will be operating in about a week, and Don Moulton of Medford, who has been the scaler at the Ranger station for some time, will be in charge. The site was changed in order to serve the truckers coming from Thompson creek. The brush burning crew of six men will soon be planting "clear cuts" to 15,000 young pines and firs, local officials say.

Mrs. Otis Buck was honored with a surprise birthday dinner Saturday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wayne Reavis, on Ross lane. Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cox, and Mr. and Mrs. Buck.

Mrs. Earl Best was elected vice chairman of the Ruch Parent Teacher association Friday to succeed Vern Taylor who is leaving the community. It was voted to provide Christmas candy for school children again this year. Upper grade students presented the program with a pantomime of the solar system during an eclipse.

Mr. and Mrs. Arion Christensen and son, Jimmy, have spent the last week in San Francisco.

Mrs. Lelah Myers of Sebastopol, Calif., was a recent guest of her daughter, Mrs. John Deter. Deter, an extensive tomato grower, is harvesting green tomatoes that still have escaped frost. The tomatoes are taken to a special processor in Medford for quick ripening. Deter has 10 acres on the Old Stage rd. near Jacksonville as well as several acres in tomatoes at his home here, where he raises a particular dryland variety.

Mrs. Harry Davis and Mrs. Lyle Hard gave the demonstration on "Improving Ourselves as Hostesses" at the Upper Extension Unit meeting last week, which included details of table setting and color selection.

Mrs. Mike Loftus, citizenship chairman, reminded the group of the importance of watching for warnings of radioactive fallout, since the danger has been encountered in Portland and California. The group will hold a Christmas dinner at the December meeting, and will bring gifts and food for the needy instead of having a gift exchange.

Rural Reflections: Human nature and its paradoxical doings was reflected in plight of Helga Mitchell recently, who ran out of gas on Top o' the Hill, while her husband is co-owner in a gas station. Mike Wilmoth, formerly a gas station man, came to her rescue, and supplied the needed article.

Tougher Labor Bill in Works

Washington — (UPI) — Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) is working on a new labor reform bill expected to be tougher than the Kennedy-Ives bill which was passed by the Senate but rejected by the House this year.

McClellan, chairman of the Senate Rackets committee, disclosed Tuesday that he plans to offer a bill to the new Congress which will convene in January. He said "the need for legislation is already clear."

The rackets group Thursday will open intensive hearings into secondary boycotts — union campaigns by picketing or other tactics against companies not directly involved in labor disputes.

Although McClellan would not discuss details of his new bill, it was recalled that at the last session of Congress he sponsored a bill of his own which was broader and tougher than the measure sponsored by rackets committee members John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) and Irving M. Ives (R-N.Y.).

McClellan declined to discuss the scope of his committee's new inquiry beyond a previous announcement that witnesses would be called from New York, Texas, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Ohio and other areas.

KEEPING 'EM HONEST

Yonkers, N.Y. — (UPI) — Burglars broke into the Angus Steak House here and took $3,100 in cash as well as a tin box containing $400 in IOU's from the restaurant's customers. Apparently appalled at the thought of anyone getting away without paying for his meals, the burglars telephoned the restaurant's assistant manager to advise him where the box—and the IOU's—could be found.

Grange News...

Central Point Grange

The election of officers was held Friday night. The following were named: Master, Benton Boyce; overseer, Charles Moorehouse; lecturer, Mrs. Gaston Floux; steward, Homer Jeffries; chaplain, Mrs. Chet Wendt; assistant steward, Arnold Bohnert; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Quest; secretary, Mrs. Charles Taylor; Ceres, Mrs. Bill Straus; Pomona, Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer; Flora, Mrs. Charles Moorehouse; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Arnold Bohnert; executive committee, Otto Niedermeyer, Delmar Smith and Charles Taylor.

Committees reported agriculture products prices little change, with corn up again. Steers failed to bring prices expected; horticulture, found bartlett pear prices low; the annual horticulture meeting to be held at Corvallis Nov. 20 and 21 announced by Edwin Gebhard; legislative report suggested the necessary effort to curb high taxes.

HEC announced by Chairman Mrs. Marshall Weidman. The next meeting will be held Dec. 8 at the home of Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer. A Centennial dinner early in January is scheduled to replace the annual turkey dinner not to be given this fall.

The chaplain, Mrs. Chet Wendt, was welcomed back after an extended absence due to illness. Mrs. Wendt reported that the musician, Mrs. Delmar Smith, had recently lost a cousin by death. Mrs. Sanford Richardson was reported now out of the Portland hospital and recuperating at the home of her son, Donald, in that city. Mrs. Richardson expresses deep gratitude to friends and organizations for their kind expressions for her welfare and hopes to soon be able to recognize these by letter.

Individual pumpkin pies were served by the refreshment committee, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Caster and Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Smith.

Porter Unable To Meet Hatfield

Eugene — (UPI) — Rep. Charles O. Porter (D-Ore.) said Tuesday he would be unable to meet with Gov.-elect Mark Hatfield early next month as suggested by Hatfield to discuss issues which might affect the state at the next session of Congress.

Porter, reelected last Tuesday, said his schedule already was full and that he planned to be in Washington, D.C. the second week of December.

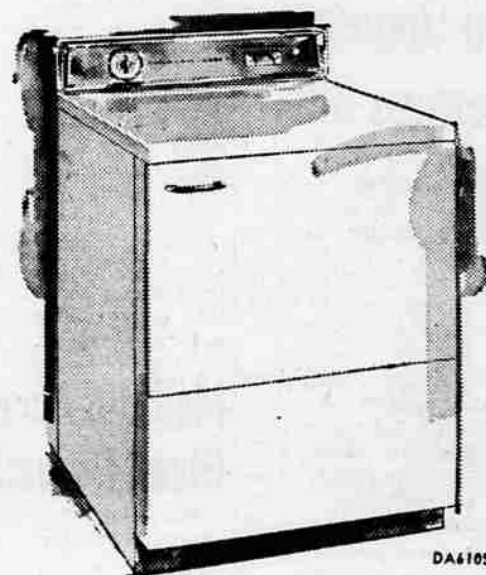

However, he added, "I shall at any time be glad to advise the governor-elect on any particular matter in which he feels he needs assistance from me. He can be sure that I shall be in touch with him from time to time about issues where Oregon's fourth congressional district has special interest and in which I think the governor has a duty to act."

Hatfield made the suggestion in a letter to Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.), dean of the state's delegation.
