

Tornado, Pirates Collide Here on Friday in Prep Game of Week

The "Big One." The "Game of the Week." Top treat of the Oregon high school championship quarter-finals. Rogue valley football fans have that treat in store for them on Friday night.

Play-off conflicts are listed for the week end on 12 prep gridirons through the state

There will be some general admission seats under cover Friday night for the Medford - Marshfield football game here.

These will be in an area above the walkway in the south end of the old grandstand on the west side of the field. They will be available on a first-come first-served basis. Seats below the walkway will be for the Marshfield students.

Only other general admission seating will be in the open bleachers. The game is a sellout so far as reserved seats go.

but spotlight of attention will be on the Medford stadium. For Medford and Marshfield and Coos Bay take to the turf in a collision of top-rated gridiron giants. Kick-off time is 8 p.m.

The bid for Oregon Class A-1's highest football laurels, a contest between the state's second and third ranked powers, the intensity of a traditionally strong and spirited rivalry, a second meeting of the year between the Black Tornado and the Pirates . . . Those spices add flavor to the battle.

Semi-Final Berth
Winner will move on into the state semi-finals against Pendleton and North Salem who vie Saturday at Salem.

Marshfield is the District 5 titlist and Medford co-holder in District 6.

How do Medford's Tornado (No. 2) and Marshfield's Buccaneers (No. 3) compare? Go back six weeks for an answer. In a tremendous, tense, bruising battle of defense, the Pirates had the yardage edge and Medford got the only score. With Bob Pond holding, Mike Murray kicked a field goal in the early stages of the game. Then the Black Tornado stopped three major Marshfield threats to preserve a 3-0 nod and its first triumph over the Bucs in 11 years.

"Marshfield has come a long way since that October game," a Pirate backer declared this week. So has the Black Tornado. And offense, despite prospects for a soggy field, could be the feature Friday.

Medford may not have Murray and the services of his educated shoe. A victim of the flu, he ran a high temperature for several days and is not expected to suit down Friday. He was not yet back in school today.

Wide Open Offense
The Pirates, who now need no introduction to Medford fans, have been termed basically a young team but are not much more so than the Tornado. Marshfield's offensive aggregation is lighter than others fielded at Coos Bay in other past recent years. Yet, it still has good backfield weight and any lack of overall heft is offset by a quick-moving, wide open T-formation game.

The Bucs run the gamut of the T with crossbucks, options, pichouts, belly series and veer plays. And, with their rushing, sparked by Walt Hunter, Gary Rossi and Les Goebck, the Pirates of CB combine the aerial throwing of Bob Burke.

Medford will try to more than match its explosive opposition with its multiple attack, molding single wing crunching power with the eruptive elements of a T assault. The Tornado will have Skip Bennett, Gerry Lyons, Ron Reich, Ken Durkee, Danny Sieg and Len Griggs packing the pighide with Bob Pond, Lyons and Durkee the air game threats.

Bucs Have Weight
Marshfield generally will have a per-man weight advantage on the Black Tornado. Medford's offensive unit averaging 173 pounds will go against a Marshfield defensive crew balancing at 185 per man. Tornado defense with an average of 174 will attempt to stop a Buccaneer attacking gang which boasts 181 pounds per man.

The Medford offensive line is 184½ per player compared to 192 to 220 for the Marshfield defensive unit. Tornado defenders, however, average 190 to 190 to 184 for the Pirates offensive crew.

More weight among the backs provides Marshfield with its team average and in the defensive line most of the Pirate bulk is centered in one griddler, 250-pound guard Cecil Parker.

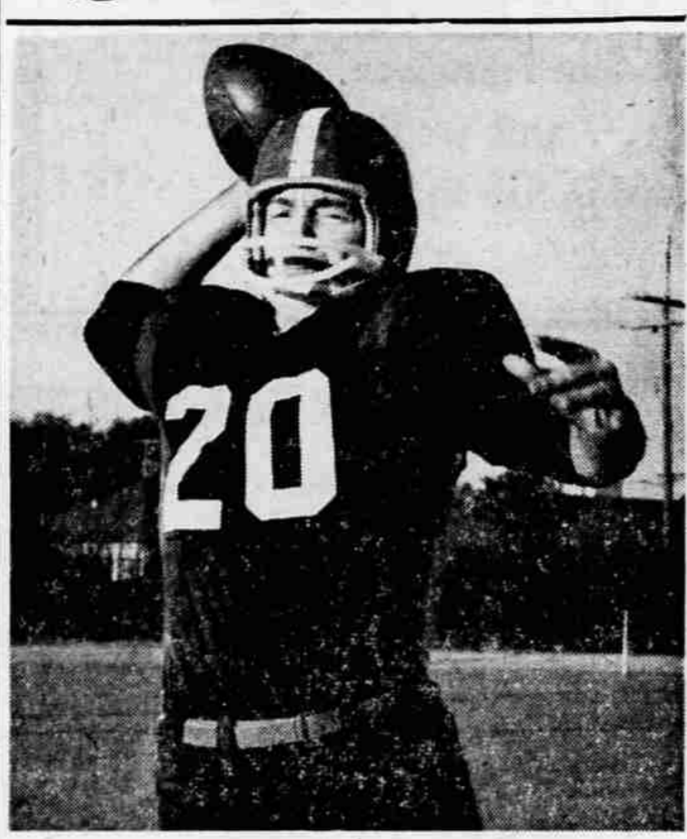

In addition to clashing themselves during regular season action, the Tornado and the Pirates have met two common foes with like results. Medford knotted Grants Pass 0-0 and laced Klamath Falls 53-0. The Bucs were held to 6-6 by the GP Cavemen and thumped Klamath 47 to 0.

Records Told
Marshfield, loser only to Medford in non league play, disposed of Springfield 26-21. South Eugene 34-0, Roseburg 27-0, and North Bend 28-13 in its Midcoast conference. The Pirates also battered Hillsboro 39 to 7 and Sweet Home 48 to 7.

Tornado record is marred only by the tie with Grants Pass. It tripped Crater 26-0, Ashland 27-0 and Klamath Falls in other Southern Oregon contention and topped North Salem 21 to 7. David Douglas 10 to 0 and Eureka, Calif., 33-0.

Only North Salem, and it for one lone touchdown, has crossed the Tornado goal this fall. Marshfield has given up eight TDs but only Springfield and North Bend among other than Medford scoring foes

MEDFORD TRIBUNE SPORTS

Webfoots Hold Signs Show Defense Drill Enthusiasm For Tussle
Eugene, Ore. - (UPI) - Rebounding Oregon drilled on defending the single-wing formation today not only in preparation for next Saturday's battle with UCLA, but also for the traditional tussle with Oregon State.

Coach Len Casanova reported good news on the injury front. Charlie Tourville was back at his starting halfback position and guard Joe Schaffel was also suited up and ready to go.

gave the Pirates serious opposition. And Medford didn't cross the Coos Bay end zone. Platoon Again

Black Tornado two-platooning came into vogue in the October Medford-Marshfield game and the Tornado again will cast its lot with separate offensive and defensive units with the possibility of some interchange. Five prospective starters for the Pirates play both ways.

On defense it may be Gary Winetrot and Dennis Jensen, ends; Lynn Knight and Don Mann or Gary Heath, tackles; Pat McLaughlin, middle guard; Fred and Al Funsten and Jim Clark, linebackers; John Harvey or Ken Durkee and Cal Dean, halfbacks, and Don Peek, safety.

Marshfield Starters

On defense the possibles are Jerry Larsen and Dick Shanley, ends; Kent Morris and Kent, tackles; Cecil Parker and Norm Brewer, guards; Hank Windell, Goldbeck and Jenkins, linebackers, and Hunter and Rossi, halfbacks.

With Murray almost surely out, McLaughlin takes over his spot at Medford's middle guard and Don Harrison will handle kick-off and place-kicking chores. Lyons has been running well in Tornado drills this week but Spiegelberg may give first left half call to Durkee whose running and passing more than adequately filled the gap in the Ashland and Grants Pass games.

Defensive tackle Don Mann is another victim of the flu but is expected back for service.

The Tornado wound up its heavy drills last night, running its offense in dummy scrimmage, going full blast in contact passing scrimmage and then working on defense until it was too dark to see.

WHEN WERE FOOTBALL SCORING RULES LAST CHANGED?
Beginning with this season offense after touchdown will count as 2 points if made by rushing or passing and one point if made by kicking. The last previous change in rules was made in 1912 when the value of a touchdown was changed from 5 points to 6 points.

Domiciliary To Receive Boxing Ring

George O. Nelson, Portland, Oregon department commander of the American Legion, will present a boxing ring and equipment to the Veterans Administration domiciliary, Camp White, Friday night.

Presentation will be made at a Camp White card match of the mittmen of Medford Police Athletic League and Talent Boxing Club.

The ring is being donated by the Oregon department of the Legion and boxing gloves and other equipment by Medford American Legion Post 15.

Nelson will make the presentation to Banks I. Paul, acting manager of the domiciliary.

The full program of matches will open the 1958-1959 amateur boxing season in the Rogue river valley.

Legionnaires throughout the valley are asked to be on hand. They should wear their Legion caps, district officials said.

Chattanooga, Miami Advance In College Poll

New York - (UPI) - Mississippi Southern, Miami of Ohio and Chattanooga, three teams which often give major football schools busy days, ranked 1-2-3 today in the United Press International small college ratings.

Mississippi Southern, a 26-14 victor over North Carolina State of the Atlantic Coast Conference last Saturday night, was No. 1 for the eighth straight week. The Board of Small College Coaches which rates the teams gave Mississippi Southern 34 first-place votes and a total of 391 points.

Miami, which bowed to Indiana of the Big Ten recently by only five points, advanced from third to second after shutting out Marshall (W.Va.), 26-0. The Ohio school received one first-place vote and 229 points.

Chattanooga made the biggest advance, moving from 11th to third in the wake of its 14-6 triumph over Tennessee of the Southeastern Conference. Chattanooga drew one first-place vote and 196 points.

Riders Sign For Cycle Turkey Run

About a dozen local motorcyclists already are signed up for the fifth annual turkey run of White's Cycle shop.

The run is set for Sunday, Nov. 23.

A cross-country run is slated rain or shine with the first rider to leave White's shop, 3330 North Pacific highway at 10 a.m. A turkey scramble will be conducted at the conclusion of the cross-country event and bike men will be required to complete the run to take part in the scramble.

The run will be conducted on a point system with check points along the route.

Phillips Poultry is providing an oven ready turkey for the third straight year. Trophies for first, second and third places in the run have arrived, shop proprietor Jack White has reported.

Entrants should report to the cycle shop from 9 to 9:30 a.m. on the day of the run to get their numbers.

Schoendienst Awaits Result Of TB Testing

St. Louis - (UPI) - Second baseman Red Schoendienst of the Milwaukee Braves rested in Mount St. Rose Tubercular Hospital today awaiting the outcome of tuberculosis tests.

The red-headed player was suspected of suffering from tuberculosis.

Schoendienst entered St. John's hospital here with a respiratory ailment last Saturday and officials announced Tuesday night that he might be afflicted with TB.

Dr. Raymond F. Martin, Schoendienst's physician, said it was decided to transfer the colorful ball player from St. John's to the tubercular hospital where better facilities were available. Such a move, Martin said, was "standard operating procedure" for persons suspected of tuberculosis.

Lukehart Will Start for OSC

Corvallis, Ore. - (UPI) - Oregon State blocking back Gary Lukehart returned to practice today and will start against Stanford, according to coach Tommy Prothro.

Speedy wingback Earnel Durden reinjured his knee in Wednesday's two-hour practice drill, but Prothro said he would also be available for action against the Indians.

No Dodger Inked For 1959 Season

Los Angeles - (UPI) - Not a single member of the 1958 Dodger baseball team that finished seventh in the National league has yet been signed to a contract for the coming season, General Manager Buzzie Bavasi said today.

Bavasi, also Dodger vice president, said "in the past by this time, I've generally had at least 15 players signed for the following season."

But the Los Angeles executive was explosively clear at the end of the last season that he was unhappy with the seventh place finish and some performances.

"After we finished seventh, I was so mad that I didn't dare discuss contracts until I cooled off," he said at the close of the campaign, he was ready to cut the salaries of a couple of players by 25 per cent.

"That is as much as the law allows. And some other fellows would have been hurt, too," he said.

But Bavasi said this contrasted with what he called his reputation as an easy mark in contract discussions based on past years—when the Dodgers were riding higher than in 1958.
