

Oklahoma Clinches Bowl Bid, Clemson, West Virginia Now Conference Champions

United Press International Oklahoma clinched the Orange Bowl bid, Clemson and West Virginia won important conference championships and the Quantico Marines knocked Rutgers from the unbeaten and untied ranks Saturday on the next-to-last big Saturday of the college football season.

Louisiana State, first-ranked in the nation and with Rutgers' defeat it's only remaining major perfect-record team, played Mississippi State in a night game at Jackson, Miss., L.S.U. sought to clinch the Southeastern conference's Sugar bowl bid with either a victory or a tie.

California clinched at least a tie for the Pacific Coast conference title and Ohio State and Tennessee sprang major upsets in other key games. California edged out Washington, 12-7, to remain the PCC's chief Rose Bowl candidate. Ohio State, ranked No. 13, upset second-ranked Iowa, 38-28, and unranked Tennessee beat eighth-ranked Mississippi, 18-16.

Oklahoma won its second straight Orange Bowl berth with a methodical 39-0 victory over Missouri, Clemson clinched the Atlantic Coast conference title and possible Orange Bowl bid with a 13-6 win over North Carolina State, West Virginia won the Southern conference championship by steamrolling William and Mary, 56-6, and the Quantico Marines upset Rutgers, 13-12.

Army Whips Villanova
Third-ranked Army whipped Villanova, 26-0, fourth-ranked Auburn downed Georgia, 21-6, fifth-ranked Wisconsin defeated Illinois, 31-12, seventh-ranked Purdue beat ninth-ranked Northwestern, 23-6, Nebraska upset 10th-ranked Pittsburgh, 14-0, 11th-ranked Syracuse walloped Colgate, 47-0, 12th-ranked Air Force Academy topped Wyoming, 21-6, 14th-ranked Texas Christian defeated Texas, 22-

8, Texas A&M edged out 16th-ranked Rice, 28-21, and Arkansas nipped 17th-ranked Southern Methodist, 13-6, in other games.

Brewster Hobby passed for two touchdowns and Bobby Boyd ran 22 and 38 yards for touchdowns as Oklahoma ran its unbeaten streak in the Big Eight to 70 games. Missouri staged only one threat, a 62-yard march which broke down on Oklahoma's 13-yard line in the third period.

Clemson struck for two fourth-period touchdowns, on a 52-yard push and the other on a 15-yard run by Bob Morgan after North Carolina State battled the Tigers scoreless for three periods. West Virginia piled up 476 yards and held William and Mary to minus 12 yards rushing as Halfback Mel Reight tallied two touchdowns. Jarry Jefferson, ex-Illinois halfback, ran five yards to put Quantico ahead, 13-6, in the third period and the Marines won when Bill Wolff's rushing try for a two-point conversion failed after a fourth-period touchdown.

Joe Kapp led a 65-yard third-period drive and plunged over himself as California overcame a 7-6 halftime deficit to topple Washington. Bob White hammered out 209 yards in 33 carries and scored on two one-yard plunges and a 71-yard dash as Ohio State won its high-scoring battle against Iowa, whose Randy Duncan completed 23 passes for 249 yards. Gene Etter, a 155-pound halfback, raced 75 yards in the fourth period to give Tennessee its upset over Ole Miss.

Army remained unbeaten when Capt. Pete Dawkins brought the Cadets to life in the second period for a 13-0 lead. Dawkins returned a punt 80 yards and caught a 46-yard pass in the second period, then caught a 48-yard touchdown pass for Army's third score in the third period.

Talent Has Edge in VA Ring Card

Camp White - An overflow gathering of fight fans at the Veterans Administration domiciliary greeted the first of a series of ring entertainments sponsored by the American Legion department of Oregon, Friday night in the theatre.

The boys from the Medford Police Athletic league and Talent Boxing club made the show interesting in an even dozen three-round matches, which Talent won, taking seven of the twelve events. The youthful fighters weighed in at from 55 to 145 pounds.

Paul Mitchell, in the final event, scored the only knockout for Talent, stunning Chuck Kimball, of PAL, so that he could not continue.

Legion officials, headed by Department Commander George Nelson, of Portland and including Glenn Howe, department service officer, Eugene Orr, Medford, national rehabilitation representative and District Commander Keegan Townsend, of Medford, formally presented the new ring to the domiciliary. It was accepted by Acting Manager Banks I. Paul. Domiciliary officials included also Chief Medical Officer Arthur S. Anderson and Special Services Chief Frank Glonning.

Dual Purpose
Commander Nelson stressed the fact that the program of ring events serves the dual purpose of giving to the men who gave in the wars and helping in another Legion effort in the encouragement of youth activities.

Jim Zack, coach and Bob Apple, his assistant, were in the corner of the PAL boxers, with Don Spaulding and Dean Dorman handling the Talent club boys.

Leo Gaynor, a domiciliary section leader, and a fight professional, refereed the bouts, with Joe Nogle and Everett Marlow serving as judges.

STEELERS COULD BE RUGGED FOR GIANTS

United Press International The New York Giants, who handed the Cleveland Browns and Baltimore Colts their first 1958 defeats in the last two weeks, face a really rugged National Football League hurdle today in the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Don't snicker. The Giants (5-2) have a well-earned reputation for whipping first-place teams and then falling on their faces against clubs with so-so records such as the Steelers (3-4).

The Giants, tied with the Browns for first place in the Eastern Division, are slim, 1½ point choices for their clash with the Steelers at Pitt Stadium. The Browns, who have dropped two straight games after sweeping their first five, are 5½ point choices to beat the Redskins (3-4) at Washington. The Steelers and Redskins are two games behind the Giants and Browns, and can turn the Eastern division into a four-team race by winning.

Colts Are Underdogs
Baltimore, a game ahead of the second-place Bears (5-2) in the Western race, is a 3½ point underdog against that club at Chicago in Sunday's other top game. Baltimore has a 6-1 record.

The Los Angeles Rams (4-3) are 10-point choices to down the Packers (1-5-1) at Green Bay. If the Rams win, they will be only a game out of first place, providing the Bears beat the Colts.

In Sunday's other games, the Lions (2-4-1) are 7½ point favorites to tame the San Francisco Forty Niners (3-4) at Detroit while the Chicago Cardinals (2-4-1) and Eagles (1-5-1) are rated even for their game at Philadelphia.

Kapp's 65-yard TD Gives Bears Game

Seattle, Wash. - (UP) - California's Joe Kapp, engineered a 65-yard touchdown march in the third period Saturday to lead the Golden Bears to a 12-7 Pacific Coast conference football victory over Washington and kept their Rose Bowl express on the track.

Kapp climaxed the winning touchdown drive himself by punching over from one yard out.

The brilliant quarterback completed 11 of 14 pass attempts and was his team's best ground gainer. One of his passes was intercepted in the end zone to stop what appeared to be a certain scoring drive.

A total of 29,500 chilled fans watched the contest, one of the cleanest ever played. There were only three penalties for a total of 12 yards, seven against Washington and five against California.

California scored first by moving 51 yards in 11 plays after the opening kickoff, with Walt Arnold going over on an one-yard plunge. California gambled for two points but Kapp's pass attempt was no good.

It looked for a while as if this gamble that failed might strike a mortal blow to Cal's Rose Bowl hopes, for Washington scored an equalizing touchdown on Carver Gayton's five-yard run and George Fleming kicked the extra point to put the Huskies ahead, 7-6 at halftime.

But Kapp, California's all-American hopeful, rose to the occasion and sparked his team to the winner's circle with that third period march.

California had two other scoring opportunities but failed to make good on either of them. One drive bogged down on Washington's 10 and Tony Perrin's field goal attempt fell short. The other march penetrated to Washington's three in the waning minutes of the fourth period when the Huskies' Chuck Allen intercepted Kapp's pass in the end zone.

December 1 Draft Date In Baseball

New York - (UP) - Baseball's annual grab bag, the majors' draft of minor league players, will be held at Washington, D.C., Dec. 1 with noted names as Walker Cooper, Art Houtteman, and Satchel Paige among the players who might be picked.

The office of baseball Commissioner Ford C. Frick today announced "field rules" for this annual take-a-chance game which once in a great while uncovers a new star but usually leads to disappointment.

For one thing, it will cost more to "play" the game this year. A big league club will have to pony up $25,000 for each player picked, instead of last year's sliding scale which had a top of $15,000. For another, more players will be available because of the big change in the rules—an unlimited number of players may be drafted from each team, instead of the old limit of one.

Even so, baseball men see little chance that the total of players picked will be much bigger than the 11 selected last year. None of those 11, incidentally, set the big league on fire and almost all of them are back in the minors now.

The draft will be made in the usual manner, from bottom to top in the big league standings. The Philadelphia Phils, last-place team in the National league, get choice No. 1; the Washington Senators, last in the American league, have No. 2; then come the seventh-place teams and so on. Then each team gets a second choice in the same order and this goes on until each team has no more selections to make.

The draft is held in conjunction with the annual winter baseball meeting.

Ohio State Gets Upset Over Iowa

Iowa City, Iowa - (UP) - Bruising Bob White powered rugged Ohio State to a 38-28 upset victory over Big Ten champion Iowa Saturday to put a little blight on the Hawkeyes' Rose Bowl trip.

White, who sent Ohio State to the Rose Bowl last year when he broke Iowa's line in a 17-13 victory, pulled out the victory again Saturday. He pile-driven for three touchdowns, including the final one which put Ohio State in front to stay.

With the score tied, 28-28, in the final period, White took charge. The 207-pound blockbuster hit Iowa's line for 60 of the 80 yards in the final Buckeye drive.

White carried the final six times and dived into the end zone from the one to put Ohio State ahead for the fifth and last time. It was White's third touchdown. Shifty Don Clark added two more on long runs.

White's line-shearing running off-set record-busting offensive play by Iowa.

Iowa set a new Big Ten total offense mark for the season by grinding out 427 yards. Duncan also set a Big Ten and Iowa passing mark with 23 completions in 33 attempts for 249 yards. The old mark was set by Tommy O'Connell of Illinois with 22 completions against Iowa in 1952. Iowa's new record for total season offense per game was 416.6 yards. Wisconsin held the old mark of 415.5 set in 1952.

Indiana Nips Michigan
Ann Arbor, Mich. - (UP) - Indiana, long the doormat of the Big Ten, upset Michigan 8-6 Saturday in a rain-drenched contest for its third straight conference victory and ruined Bennie Oosterbaan's final home game as coach of the Wolverines.

Teddy Smith, a doubtful starter because of a charley horse, did all the Indiana scoring as the Hoosiers assured themselves their first winning season in 11 years. Smith broke a scoreless deadlock in the third period with a two-yard dash inside right end and then he went around right end for the winning two points.

Army Beats Villanova
West Point, N.Y. - (UP) - Capt. Pete Dawkins fired up his Lethargic Army teammates with an 80-yard punt ruckback and a pair of 46 and 48-yard pass catches Saturday to score the first three touchdowns in a 28-0 victory over Villanova.

The triumph sent the Cadets into their traditional clash with Navy, Nov. 29, with their best record since 1950. Army, ranked third this week by the United Press International board of coaches, has won seven games and played a tie with Pittsburgh.
