

Oregon Cities Delegates Hear Walter Pearson

Eugene—UPI—A Democratic state senator said Monday the 1959 Legislature should not "go on a spending spree" because it would mean more taxes.

State Sen. Walter Pearson of Portland, told delegates to the Legislature may have to change exemption provisions of the income tax structure to provide more money. But he said the income tax rate should not be increased.

Pearson spoke to the League of Oregon Cities convention. He is chairman of the Legislative Interim Tax Study Committee.

Stand on Sales Tax

Speaking on a sales tax which he has long opposed, Pearson said that if a sales tax ever were necessary in Oregon he would insist it be used to offset property taxes in amount of sales tax returned to local government.

Mayor Terry Schrank of Portland told delegates that Oregon cities should work together to get more tax revenue. He said cities have been losing the fight for tax money.

Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco was to address tonight's banquet. Gov. Robert D. Holmes cancelled his appearance because of a minor eye infection.

Urges Participation

One of the speakers Monday was Gerry Frank, general manager of Salem's Meier and Frank Department store and chairman of the city's Committee on Governmental Cooperation. He told the delegates all citizens should participate in government. Frank also outlined a "massive cooperation plan" he said Marion and Polk counties had with the state, the city of Salem and the Salem school district.

Dulles States Talk; Five-Day Vacation

SHADY COVE-TRAIL Smorgasbord Scheduled

By EVALYN P. WATSON
Shady Cove—The Shady Cove-Trail Lions club is sponsoring a smorgasbord Saturday, Nov. 22, from 7 p.m. until midnight at the Rogue River Lodge.

Paul Bulkin, a lion member, will cook for the smorgasbord and on the menu will include roast turkey, beef, ham, cold cuts, salads, baked beans, pickled herring, cheese and relishes.

Proceeds from the dinner go toward one of the Lion's main projects, helping to provide glasses for children in the community who could not otherwise afford them and to aid the blind. Last year the Lions club provided glasses for three children.

Harry Hastings of Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Zella Tullis of Trail.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goode and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jantzer of Shady Cove are vacationing in Reno, Nev.

The Saturday afternoon matinee movies sponsored by the Shady Cove PTA will start Nov. 22 at 1:30 p.m. at the school gym. The first movie will be "Little Nellie Kelly."

Ted Conway and Ed Strother of Shady Cove have opened an office in Eagle Point and are representing W. A. Darling, Real Estate firm, and the Hamilton Investment fund here.

Strother worked for a number of years for the internal revenue department in Washington, D.C., and was a licensed Certified Public Accountant.

Conway plans to continue his construction work in the Shady Cove-Trail-Eagle Point area and will assist as necessary with other office routine.

Newcomers to Shady Cove who will live here while the work is being done on the Lake of the Woods road project by the bureau of public roads are Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Briggs and 3-month-old son, John.

Other news among the BPR people living in the Shady Cove-Trail area is the birth of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Don Nogode of Shady Cove. The baby weighed 6 pounds, 9 ounces. She was born at the Rogue Valley hospital on Veterans Day and has been named Elyzabeth Lauryl.

Cuban Rebels Kill Four, Wound Eight

Havana—UPI—Rebel tommy-guns killed four and wounded eight policemen here Monday night in a gang-style massacre apparently inspired by the police slaying of four insurgents 10 days ago, it was reported today.

Gunmen poured a murderous crossfire into the ranks of police going off duty at the 15th Precinct in suburban Marianao. Four were killed and seven wounded.

The eighth policeman was wounded a few blocks from the station, apparently as the gunmen fled from the scene.

Although none of the killers was positively identified, police said there is no doubt they were rebels avenging the killing of insurgent leader Angel Machaco Almeida and three of his band in suburban Vibora a week ago Saturday.
