ILLINOIS VALLEY Lions Start Project

By RUTH ROUSCH
Cave Junction—The Illinois Valley Lion's club has started on their project of repairing old toys for Christmas distribution.

A call for toys in any condition is being made throughout the valley. A spokesman for the organization said that any toy however broken can be either fixed or used in supplying needed parts to repair other toys.

The toys can be brought to the Caves Building Supply in Cave Junction or to Southern Oregon Archery company, in Kerby.

A revival of the roaring mining era will be the theme for the Illinois valley in observance of the Oregon Centennial celebration. Tentative plans call for the whole area to go western in recreating the pioneer atmosphere.

A program utilizing the natural historical landmarks is the goal of the Illinois Valley Centennial committee. There are still some buildings in the valley which date back 100 years. The oldest post office in the county is in Kerby.

Marguerite Rebekah Lodge of Kerby initiated Mrs. William Sowell at a meeting Nov. 12. The second nomination of officers was completed and election will be held at the meeting Nov. 26.

The landscaping of the library grounds which is a contribution of the Illinois Valley Garden club, is well underway.

The Lion's club sponsored project of constructing an auxiliary athletic field on the land in back of the high school started recently. Bob Martin supplied the operator for the cat donated by Joe Ollis and Howard Bears donated the oil for the operation.

The new field will be used as a track field and for football practice.

Mrs. Chester Maris of Smith River will speak at a meeting of the Illinois Valley Garden club Friday, Nov. 21, at the Immanuel Methodist church in Cave Junction.

Hostesses for the day, Mesdames James Payne, Clyde Broeffle, Wayne Petch and Wesley Vahrenwald will serve refreshments at 1 p.m., preceding the afternoon session.

Twin sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Robinson of Cave Junction on Wednesday, Nov. 5. Weights were 6 pounds, 11 ounces and 6 pounds, 3 ounces.

Valeria Rauber left the Valley Friday afternoon for Albuquerque, N.M., to be with her son and family and with Richard who is attending university there. Mrs. Rauber plans to be with her family for the Christmas holidays and stop with friends in southern California on her return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spitz left Tuesday for Los Angeles where they expect to stay until after the Christmas holidays.

The DeMolay Mother's club has decided to make Christmas corsages to be sold in the early part of December as a money raising project.

The Illinois Valley HEU group met recently at the home of Mrs. William Baskin near Takilma. Reports were heard from committee chairmen, Mrs. Fred Salvage reported on the cake decorating project and Mrs. Walt Col-

Rabbit Club
The Valley Experimenters 4-H Rabbit club held their first meeting for the new year Sunday, Nov. 16. We elected officers for the coming year. Clifton Mitchell was elected president; Mike Burrell, vice president; Janet Glidden, secretary. Tony Glidden was appointed reporter.

After discussing 4-H rabbit projects and signing up both old and new members, we had a short study on checking doe rabbits by feeling to make sure they had been bred.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 21 at 243 South Stage rd. at 2 p.m. Any boys or girls living in our area who are interested in rabbits are invited to attend our meetings.

Tony Glidden, Reporter.

M.Y.H. 4-H Club

Saturday, Nov. 15, a branch of the Lone Pine Mermaids was organized. M.Y.H. 4-H club was the name chosen for the club. The club projects are sewing, second year; sewing, fourth year; cooking, fourth year, and cooking, fifth year. The members elected their officers. They are president, Evelyn Young; vice president and program chairman, Doris Young; secretary, Georgia Mitchell; news reporter, Susan Hall, and song leader, Elene Mitchell. Mrs. H. B. Mitchell is the leader of the club.

The secretary read the constitution of the 4-H clubs. She also told about the awards that the club can win. The books were handed out and discussed, on them followed.

The members discussed the entire year program. The meetings will be on Saturday every four weeks. They will usually be at the home of Mrs. H. B. Mitchell.

The fifth year division in sewing is to have their pattern and material for pedal pusher outfits before the next meeting. The fourth year and fifth year cooking are to bring favorite recipes for a recipe book. A demonstration and dress alteration will be given by Mrs. Mitchell Dec. 13.

Susan Hall, Reporter.
