

'SPACE PROBLEM'—During a break in the main political meeting of the United Nations, which is discussing outer space problems, it seems there are some "inner space" problems, too. For instance, U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge (rear, 1) strolls into the room to find United Kingdom's Sir Pierson Dixon in the U. S. seat. Aware of Lodge's entry, Sir Pierson arises (2). Lodge found that immediate "space" disputes between the two countries are easily settled (3) and takes his seat (4) after being temporarily dislodged.
