

Abundant Food Supplies Listed for Western States

(The following guide to the nation's best food buys for this week and was prepared in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture and Interior.)

Washington—Housewives won't have any trouble finding nearly all the popular foods for pre-Thanksgiving menus this weekend, and most price tags will be aimed at the food budget.

In the protein foods, beef chuck roasts will be abundant, pork roasts and hams, and nearly all kinds of poultry—turkeys, broilers, fryers, baking hens, and ducklings. Legs of lamb will be featured.

Fruit bins will continue to offer a plentiful supply of apples from this season's very large crop. Pears are plentiful, and oranges and grapefruit are arriving in increasing quantities. There is an abundant supply of cranberries. Grapes will be offered at many markets.

Food shoppers will find no dearth of vegetable selections. These include cabbage, potatoes, sweet potatoes, cauliflower, bunched greens, turnips, squash, celery and lettuce, carrots, cucumbers, onions, fresh Florida corn, and snap beans.

At the fish counter, best buys will include shrimp, fish sticks, and canned tuna.

Those are the week-end's most favorable buys, nationally speaking. Now for a closer look at the food situation in this particular area:

West—Arizona, California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington, Wyoming: Consumers will find a bountiful display of holiday foods in the stores this week-end. Turkeys are in ample supply and attractively priced in most markets. Other poultry items, particularly broiler and fryer chickens, also are in good supply.

Among the red meats, beef and pork are in the best supply and prices are about the same as a week ago. There is a better supply of lamb this week. Calf and veal remains in light supply.

Eggs will be 3 to 4 cents a dozen higher this week in many markets as supplies have been declining in the past several weeks. Butter supplies are ample.

At the fish counter, best buys will include shrimp, fish sticks, and canned tuna.

Medford Guests Attend Meeting In Cave Junction

Cave Junction—Bethel 36, International Order of Job's Daughters, initiated two candidates at a meeting Monday night in the Masonic Temple in Kerby. Honored Queen Diana Strohkirch presided.

Mrs. William Sult, Medford, grand marshal, and deputy of the Oregon grand guardian; L. R. Manning, Medford, grand inner guard; and Mrs. Dolores Ackerman, guardian of Bethel 56, Shady Cove, were honored.

Other visitors introduced were the Misses Pat Nelson, Pat Ellis and Jan Barker of Medford Bethel 14, Medford, Marcia and Lola Ackerman, Shady Cove, and Mrs. Manning.

Initiated were Kathy Basham, Cave Junction, and Lou Ella Alcorn, O'Brien.

Miss Jean Beem sang, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. M. C. Beem. Miss Carmel White announced her senior princess project will be a supper to be served to the Masons at a special meeting in December.

Milton Pierson was installed as the new associate guardian to replace Lester Hoff who resigned when he moved from the community. Mrs. Sult served as the installing officer.

Queen Diana announced Sunday, November 30 as the date for the four Masonic organizations, Masons, Eastern Star, DeMolay and Job's Daughters, to attend services at Immanuel Methodist church in Cave Junction.

Mrs. Sult, as inspection officer, presented Queen Diana with a Jobie doll.

An addendum was presented in honor of Mrs. Sult under the direction of Mrs. William Weingart.

Refreshments were served.

Fagone Family On Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Fagone and children, Toni, Patty Ann and Sammy, 629 Pine street, left last evening for Corvallis where they will be guests of relatives for an early Thanksgiving dinner. They will then continue to Portland where they will attend a performance of Jean Shannon and the Brooks Brothers, night club entertainers booked at Amatos. The troupe is managed by Paul Handler, war-time friend of Mr. Fagone, and Miss Shannon and Mr. Handler were guests of the Fagones here earlier this month.

Crater PTA Unit Seeks Members

Gold Hill—Mrs. Melvin Burnett, membership chairman of Crater Parent-Teacher association, states that parents and friends of students in the Gold Hill and Sams Valley areas, who wish to become members of the unit may pay dues to either Mrs. Kenneth Richardson, co-membership chairman, Mrs. Fred Lester, ways and means chairman of the unit at Lester's Market in Gold Hill, Mrs. Paul Molloy, also of Gold Hill, or send the money to Miss Geraldine White, dean of girls at Crater High school, Central Point.

Mrs. Burnett said that the goal for this year has been set for 300. So far, 136 people have joined. Those who wish to join and find it inconvenient to contact one of those named above may obtain memberships at the Crater High PTA meeting scheduled for Monday, November 24 at 8 o'clock in Crater cafeteria. Mrs. Burnett will have a table set up for this purpose.

Film Announced At Griffin Creek

Griffin Creek Mothers' club will sponsor the first in a series of matinee film showings for children of the valley on Saturday, November 22, in the Griffin Creek school gymnasium.

The film will be shown from 1 to 3 p.m. This first movie is entitled "The Treasure of Lost Canyon" and will be in color. According to Mrs. J. Morris Tucker, who is responsible for procuring the film. It is based on a story by Robert Louis Stevenson.

Also scheduled are "Cartoon Carnival" and another comedy.

Children six years of age and older may attend. Pre-school age children may attend only if accompanied by a parent. A charge of 15 cents per child is made to cover the cost of film rentals.

Lodge to Hold Dance Tonight

Hal McIntyre's orchestra will play for the annual Thanksgiving ball of the Medford Elks lodge tonight in the temple. Dancing will begin at 9:30 o'clock and continue until 1:30 a.m.

Elks and their invited guests may attend the event. McIntyre's orchestra, considered one of the nation's big time dance bands, will continue to Corvallis Saturday to play for the annual Homecoming ball at Oregon State college.

Refresher Course To Open Tonight

Waggin Wheelers Square Dance club is sponsoring a six-lesson refresher course in square dancing starting at 8 o'clock tonight at Kershaw square on Corey road.

The course is designed for square dancers who have not danced for some time, and who would like to take up the recreation again, or for beginners who have not attended an intermediate course.

For further information phone Douglas Decker, Normandy 4-1465.

Grade Teachers To Hold Session

DeVere Taylor will present a program for a meeting of Grade Teachers' association to be held at Jefferson school Monday, November 24, at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Taylor's program will concern Oregon Education association, and it is stated that it pertains to the welfare of all teachers.

Members of the faculties of Washington and Wilson schools will be hosts.

Woman's Society To Serve Coffee After Service

Gold Hill—Thanksgiving was the theme for devotions presented by Mrs. Thomas Z. Smith at a meeting of the Woman's Society of Gold Hill Community Methodist church held in the home of Mrs. Frank Carter, Upper River road, November 14. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Lawrence Smith and Mrs. Ivan Smith.

Nineteen members and two visitors, Mrs. M. R. Scank, Sams Valley and Mrs. Spencer, Gold Hill attended the session, which was conducted by Mrs. E. C. Hoffman, president of the group.

Arrangements were made at this time for members of the society to be in charge of the coffee hour which will be held following the Special Thanksgiving worship service, Sunday, November 23 at the church. All members and friends of the church are invited to attend church school and the worship service that morning. The Rev. Howard Walton, pastor, states, as well as the coffee hour. He has selected "Thou Preparest a Table," as the title for his sermon on that date.

Mrs. Lawrence Smith was in charge of the program presented during the afternoon, with several members taking part. It was on the Bill of Rights in observance of Human Rights day, which is planned for December 10.

At the close of the business meeting refreshments were served by the hostess and co-hostesses.

The December 12 meeting of the group will be held in the home of Mrs. Paul Molloy, Second avenue, Gold Hill.
