Washington (UPI)—Authori- tative sources said today the United States is preparing to send Communist Yugoslavia about $100 million more in economic aid.
Part of the new assistance, they said, will be designed to take up some of the slack left when Russia last summer backed out of its agreement to assist Yugoslav Marshal Tito's industrial program.
This will bring to about $900 million the amount of American economic aid to Tito since 1950 to help him pursue a course independent of Moscow.
