Miss Marilyn Ann Paull Wed to Ted Dean Yarnell

Central Point — Miss Marilyn Ann Paull became the bride of Ted Dean Yarnell in a ceremony held November 15 in Meeker Memorial chapel at the First Methodist church. Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the three o'clock afternoon wedding attended by 75 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle M. Paull, 313 North First street, Central Point. Mr. Yarnell is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion C. Yarnell, 2348 Camp Baker road, Medford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Chantilly lace frock in ballerina length fashioned with bouffant skirt, scooped neckline and bracelet length sleeves. Her shoulder length veil was held by a crown of pearls and lace and she carried a white orchid on a white Bible with satin ribbons knotted with white rosebuds.

Miss Charlene Paull was a honor attendant for her sister. She wore a beige lace frock in ballerina length and carried a cascade bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums and ivy leaves. Candelighters were Donald Paull and Ralph Paull Jr., cousins of the bride.

William Weddle served as best man.

Soloist was Miss Shelia Schuerman. Yellow and bronze chrysanthemums, white flowers and greenery decorated the church for the event.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Paull wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. Mrs. Yarnell chose a blue taffeta dress with black accessories. Their corsages were of yellow spider chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents with 200 relatives and friends attending.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Robert Lance, Mrs. Gordon Tidwell, Mrs. William Weddle, Miss Pat Callaway, Miss Flora Chavis, Mrs. Allan Gosnell, and Mrs. Gordon Gilmore.

The couple traveled north on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a black tunic suit with blue accessories. They will make their home at 539 Effie street, Medford.

The bride is a graduate of Crater High school and was employed by Ardmore Chemical company of Oakland, Calif. Mr. Yarnell is a graduate of Phoenix High school and is employed by Workman Lumber company, Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Augard

Augard-Rawstern Rites Held at Meeker Chapel

The wedding of Miss Ellen Bertha Rawstern to John Thomas Augard was an event of November 7, and the nuptials are at home at 803 West Eleventh street. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Ambrose, 870 Ross lane, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen B. Augard, Cottage Grove, Ore.

The wedding was held in Meeker Memorial chapel, First Methodist church, with Dr. George Roseberry officiating at the eight o'clock evening rites. Mr. Ambrose gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of rose point lace over nylon tulle and satin, fashioned with full waltz-length skirt. She carried a white orchid encircled with white pompon chrysanthemums.

Mrs. O. D. Milburn was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a gown of geranium pink crystaletle, ballerina length, and carried bronze chrysanthemums. The bride's gown was first worn by Mrs. Milburn at her wedding, and Mrs. Milburn in turn was dressed in the frock which her sister had worn as her attendant at the Milburn-Rawstern wedding.

Miss Milla Gust lighted the candles.

Herbert Chapman, Ashland, was best man for the bridegroom and Stephen Augard Jr., Cottage Grove, the bridegroom's brother, seated the guests.

Yellow and bronze chrysanthemums were arranged with candelabra holding pale yellow candles to decorate the church, and yellow ribbons were on the pew ends.

Mrs. C. R. Adamson played the wedding music and Rodney Hammer, cousin of the bride, was soloist.

A reception for 80 guests was held at the Ambrose home, which was decorated with the bronze and yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Louis Nesberg and Mrs. Thomas Hannah baked the wedding cake.

The bride was graduated from Medford High school and attended Southern Oregon college and Robertson School of business. She is a secretary at Bear Creek orchards. Mr. Augard was graduated from Cottage Grove High school and is a trim saw operator for Daugherty Lumber company, White City.
