Mr. and Mrs. Leighton Ray Skov (Brainerd photo)

Skov-Pence Ceremony Held At First Methodist Church

Miss Rosalie Sharon Pence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pence, 33 Willamette avenue, became the bride of Leighton Ray Skov, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Skov, 1185 East Pine street, Central Point, in a ceremony held November 2 at First Methodist church.

The Rev. Melvin Dixon, St. Luke's Methodist church, officiated at the double ring ceremony held at two o'clock in the afternoon and attended by more than 75 persons. Chrysanthemums decorated the church for the wedding.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a blue Chantilly lace sheath dress with overskirt of nylon net.

She carried a bouquet of white roses encircling a white orchid.

Mrs. Larry D. Brown was honor attendant for her sister and Miss Joan Skov, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Mrs. Brown wore a blue lace dress while Miss Skov wore a blue taffeta sheath frock and both carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

Warren Strauss served as best man and Arnold Gene Pence, uncle of the bride, and Russel Skov, brother of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Mrs. Pearl Frank cut and served the tiered wedding cake and Mrs. Joe Parkerson poured the punch. Miss Janet Swift was in charge of the guest book.

The couple traveled to Eugene on their wedding trip. They are making their home at 1205 East Main street, apartment 5. The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and is employed as a bookkeeper for Burelson's Ladies Ready-to-Wear. Mr. Skov attended Crater High school and is employed by Crater Lake Motors.

Catholic Rites Marry Couple

Cave Junction — Miss Maxine Marie Koontz, daughter of Mrs. Reba Koontz of Hereford, Ore., became the bride of Robert John Brouillette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isador Brouillette, Cave Junction, in rites held November 8 at St. Joseph Catholic church in Unity, Ore. The Rev. F. Her Swank officiated.

The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums and red carnations. Music was provided by Miss Linda Hagner, Baker. The Misses Claire Montgomery, Masietta Chaves, Kathy Davis and Mary Lou Shively sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Henry Koontz of Walla Walla, Wash., wore a ballerina length white chantilly lace over satin gown. Her finger tip silk illusion veil was held in place by a white velvet crown and she carried white chrysanthemums centered with a red rosebud corsage.

The bride's two attendants were her sisters, Mrs. Merton Loeks and Miss Nancy Hilger. They were dressed in identical dresses of red satin, ballerina length, and carried nosegays of Hawaiian red athenias with white chrysanthemums.

Charles Brouillette, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Merton Loeks, brother-in-law of the bride, was usher.

Mrs. Koontz wore a blue chantilly lace afternoon dress and a white gardenia and red rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue and white print dress with gardenia with rosebud corsage.

A reception was held in Unity Community hall.

The couple will be at home in Lakeview where the bridegroom is employed by the Safeway market.

The bride is a graduate of Unity High school and attended college in Portland. She has been employed by the Portland Gas Company. The bridegroom is a graduate of Illinois Valley High school and attended Southern Oregon college.

Attending the wedding from here were Mr. and Mrs. Isador Brouillette and daughter, Linda, Mrs. Dale Brown, Mrs. Donald Beard and Mrs. William McKinnon.

Meeting Planned By Women's Club

Scottish Rite Womens club will meet Monday, November 24, at 8 p.m. at the Medford Masonic temple for the monthly social event.

Cards will be played followed by refreshments with the men. Mrs. Fred Purdin is chairman of the committee.

Wives, mothers, widows and sisters of Scottish Rite Masons are invited to attend.

Ceremony At Church Weds Pair

Cave Junction—An event of November 15 was the wedding of Miss Linda Vivian Deaton, daughter of Mrs. Vivian Deaton, to Spencer Allen Gates, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gates. The candlelight service was held at Immanuel Methodist church, with the Rev. Harold Mackey officiating.

Fall leaves, chrysanthemums and ferns decorated the chancel. Mrs. M. C. Beem furnished wedding music, and soloist was Mrs. Wayne Saffer.

Hal Moore Sr., a close friend of the family, gave the bride in marriage. She wore a full length gown of bridal lace and taffeta with a pearl crown holding her fingertip veil of silk illusion. White carnations encircled a white orchid in her bouquet.

Mrs. John Gates, sister-in-law of the bridegroom and matron of honor, wore a red and white ballerina length dress of net and taffeta and carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Miss Karen Berkner and Miss Diana Strohkirch, candlelighters, wore white afternoon dresses.

John Gates, brother of the bridegroom was best man and ushers were James Findley and Larry Farmer.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Deaton wore an afternoon dress of turquoise trimmed in gold with a corsage of yellow carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore beige with brown accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Eagles hall in Kerby. Gary Ellis sang and played the guitar.

The wedding cake was cut

Bazaar To Have Grandma's Pantry

A "grandma's pantry," featuring homemade jams, jellies and mincemeat, will be a new addition to this year's annual bazaar to be held by St. Mark's Episcopal church Thursday, December 4, in the Guild hall.

St. Catherine's guild will hold its final meeting before the bazaar tomorrow night, Nov. 24, at 8 o'clock in the parish hall. Members who have been making aprons and hand embroidered tea towels are asked to bring them.

The business session will be conducted by Mrs. Donald P. McNeil, president. The guild's bazaar chairmen are Mrs. Paul C. Chinn Jr., Mrs. Frank Hunt and Mrs. Frank Wilson.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Warren Lesseg, Mrs. Mark Taylor and Mrs. Anne Reames.

To Leave

Mrs. Elmer Wilson, 422 Beatty street, will leave Monday for Elko, Nev., where she will spend the next several weeks with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Wilson, and their family. Mr. Wilson is an attorney and served by Mrs. Hal Moore Sr., and Miss Joy Parkinson. Serving the coffee and punch were Mrs. Lester Henry, Mrs. Louis Aller and Miss Lorraine Frost, Mrs. Arthur Kellert took charge of the guest book and Mrs. Amelie Dick and Miss Strohkirch assisted at the gift table.

The young couple, who attended Illinois Valley High school, are now at home in Holland, Ore. The groom is engaged in the logging business in the Illinois Valley. The new Mrs. Gates is a past queen of Bethel 36, Job's Daughters.

Sorority Chapter Cancels Party

A party planned by Alpha Lambda chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha International sorority, for November 24 has been canceled due to the death of a chapter member.

The last meeting of the sorority was at the home of Mrs. Willie Fischer. Mrs. Fischer announced state convention plans.

Mrs. John Mast gave a Twp-ware demonstration following the business meeting. Guests present in addition to Mrs. Mast were Mrs. D. E. Lewis, Mrs. Calvin McKibben, Mrs. Douglas Stevenson and Mrs. Harold Clift, Eugene. Mrs. Clift is a former member of the chapter.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Dean Eppinger, Mrs. Ernest Lytle and Mrs. C. C. Peterson.
