Power Company Names Winners

Winners of a Medford area 4-H recipe contest sponsored by the home service department of the California-Oregon Power company have been announced.

They were Norma Noble, Eagle Point, first prize; Patsy Charley, Central Point, second prize; Sandra Waddell, Ashland, third prize. Group winners were Kandy Kids, Central Point, first prize; Pan Dandies, Siskiyou area, second; Toothpicks and Sweet Dishes, Lone Pine area, third.

Prizes were small electric appliances donated by the power company. Prize winning recipes also will be printed in a monthly recipe sheet published by COPCO.

The 4-H units compiled groups of recipes in "cook-book" form under the titles of main dish, sandwich or snack, cake, pie, cookie or other dessert, or potluck (this covered any other type of recipe).

The group entries were judged on education value of the project to the group, conformance to rules, and on taste appeal, originality, practicality and accuracy of the individual recipes.

As the rules for the 4-H recipe contest were the same as for the Seventeen magazine contest, the 4-H recipes are being returned to the girls, enabling them to meet the December 1 deadline of the Seventeen contest. The magazine contest is open to everyone, individuals and groups—Girl Scouts, food classes in school, etc., for girls between the ages of 13 and 20.
