Woman Pensioner To Get Operation

Alhambra, Calif. — (UPI) — An 80-year-old woman pensioner whose $450 savings for an eye operation were stolen by a purse snatcher will be operated on anyway.

The local Lions club announced over the week end that newspaper readers who read of Eva Des Autels' plight had contributed $150 towards the operation and that the club would make up the rest of the cost.

Miss Des Autels, a $55-a-month pensioner, had saved $450 from her small earnings as a seamstress, but the money was stolen last week. She needs the operation to save her right eye.

Prince Charles Confined to Bed

London — (UPI) — Prince Charles was confined to bed today for the ninth day since he caught a cold visiting his parents to celebrate his 10th birthday.

Buckingham Palace said Charles' condition "is not serious" and that he should be up and about at the Cheam boarding school in a day or two.

It said he caught a "catarrhal cold" while visiting with his parents at the country home of Earl Mountbatten last week end. Charles was 10 Nov. 14.

Julie London To Marry Composer

Hollywood — (UPI) — Actress Julie London, former wife of television star Jack Webb, will wed pianist-composer Bobby Troup some time before Christmas.

Troup, regarded as instrumental in launching Miss London on her singing career which led to her starring film roles, said over the week end that Miss London currently was in Mexico making a movie.
