SHADY COVE-TRAIL Couple Stops For Visit

By EVALYN P. WATSON
Shady Cove-Trail Mr. and Mrs. Ray Nendel spent three days recently as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kelley of Shady Cove. They were en route to their winter home at Orcutt, Calif., after spending the past six months at their summer home on Orcas Island in Puget Sound. The Kelleys and the Nendels plan to meet in January in Florida.

Phyllis Briggs, who is attending the University of Oregon at Eugene, spent the week end at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Briggs, and celebrated her 18th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Callahan and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blair, both of Medford, spent Sunday afternoon visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bartus of Shady Cove.

The Missionaries of the Trail Community church will have their Christmas party Dec. 3, at which time the "secret pals" will be revealed. Those having Boyd coffee lids are requested to bring them to the meeting.

The Shady Cove Garden club met on Monday at the home of Mrs. Walter Turner of Trail. Mrs. Ivan Hale and Mrs. Cecil Kee were co-hostesses. The program for the meeting was on "bees" with a talk by Delmar Smith of Central Point.

Mrs. William Shepherd of Shady Cove attended a meeting of the Rogue Valley Flower Show Judges council on Nov. 14 at the home of Mrs. Gastox Floux of Central Point. She attended as a representative of the Shady Cove Garden club.

Mrs. Jack Ross was ill at home due to a rib injury and unable to be at the Shady Cove school, where she is cook. Mrs. Josephine Leabo was cook until Mrs. Ross returned to work the first part of the week.

Ann Akins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buster Akins of Shady Cove has been ill and was in the hospital in Ashland for a brief time. She has been undergoing tests and observations, but the doctor has not definitely diagnosed her condition. She has been home from school for several days.

A group of Trail and Shady Cove residents made a trip to Eugene Saturday, Nov. 15, to attend a meeting of the Shriners. Those going were Athel Dudley, Ray Briggs, Gus Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Arley Spain of Shady Cove and William Massey of Trail. Taking the degree work in the Shrine were Ray Briggs, Gus Olsen and Arley Spain.

Clyde Holcomb, superintendent of Casey state park is retiring this year after 34 years of service with the Oregon State Highway department. He has been in this area for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Holcomb are moving to Chico, Calif., where they will live within easy driving distance of the homes of all of their four children. Coming to take charge of Casey park is J. W. Bryan of Lakeview, Ore.

Members of the Southern Oregon Mushroom club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barber of Trail Sunday, Nov. 15 and conducted a field trip for mushrooms in the Laurelhurst rd. area. It was a rainy day for a field trip but nevertheless four hardy members turned out, Fred Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Minger and Marvin Trautman, chemistry teacher at the high school. The members were enthusiastic about the area in that it is fine for the variety and abundance of specimens.

Mrs. Barber picked a number of mushrooms and sent them in to display along with the larger display of the
