

IT'S A FAMILY AFFAIR—Little sister, teenage brother and big sister, they are all dolls, and so is the little "mama" who is dressed just like a little doll! It's a new idea, "dress alike," for doll and "mother" . . . there is a variety of different patterns in girls' wear to match the dolls' ensembles. They are easy for true-to-life mothers to make for the little "mother." The Ginny, Jeff and Jan dolls shown here have extensive wardrobes, too.

Picking Right Gift for Teenager Can Be Perplexing at Christmas

Somewhere on that gift list you have the name of a teenager! Picking the "right" gift for him or her can be most perplexing and bewildering. At this vulnerable age, boys and girls do not, as a rule, seek individually . . . so selections have to be "exactly right."

High school crowds in different locales each have their own code of "fads," so it's a good idea to talk it over with someone in that age group before you go gift hunting.

Problem Easier
To make the problem a little easier, here are some "basic" gift ideas that can't go wrong!

FOR THE GIRL — make that gift something she can wear!

Sweaters, soft and cuddly or big and bulky are tops! And, get-together with another gift-giver and "present" her with a skirt to match!

Dances and proms are big events in the life of a teenager, so "formal" accessories such as an evening bag, gloves, stole, or a jeweled sweater — score high! Also good are at-home pants, wash 'n' wear blouses, pajamas, robe or duster, lingerie . . . a car coat, sheer nylons, a light perfume, Chukka boots, a "date" dress . . . records (according to her taste) . . . or a cuddly French poodle (stuffed or real — according to your budget).

Jewelry Ideas
In jewelry: Creamy white pearls make a treasured gift, — whether they are beautifully-faked, or precious cultured ones.

Compacts, purse accessories, personal leather items and luggage items — all are welcome gifts to the teen.

Last but not least, here's a tip for an unusual gift! If that teenage girl has trouble with her hair and skin, give her a trip to a reputable beauty salon to have her hair styled, and perhaps get a few new ideas on make-up and complexion care.

FOR THE BOY — give him a gift to match his interests! They may range from science to sports — and the gift he'll go for is "something he can really use!" Lads of this age become increasingly conscious of their appearance. They may like a new bulky knit sweater, water-proof jacket, records from "bop to Bach," a wallet with a place for his girl's picture, a terry cloth robe, a new bold plaid sportshirt, a new camera or photographic equipment, a shock-proof watch, portable radio, ties, leisure time shoes, storm coat, or typewriter.

Or start him on a new hobby, or a new sport, with the proper equipment!

All your special efforts to play Santa will be rewarded when "your" teenager unwraps your gifts to the tune of "Oh! This is just what I wanted!"

January 6, thought to be the date of the visit of the Three Kings to the manger of the Christ Child, has several names: Epiphany, Little Christmas, Old Christmas, Day of the Three Kings and Twelfth Night.
