Subtle Game Can Be Helpful for Gifts

How often have you heard the men in the family balk over the after-shave lotions and colognes they have received at Christmas. Too often well-meaning friends select what they like and forget a man's personal preference in fragrances. First of all, a man generally likes a light scent, spicy or tweedy bouquets. No matter how wonderful the scent, or how smart the bottle, if it doesn't strike him the right way, he'll never use it!

To solve the problem, play a subtle game of "20 questions" to get him to disclose his preferences!

Diamond Pieces Are Popular for Gifts

Since ancient times the inner fire of a diamond has been likened to love. As a ring on your finger it is the traditional symbol signifying mutual devotion. . . and, nowadays, many families delight in showing their love for Mother and Grandmother by pooling finances in order to give them an impressive diamond gift.

Jewelry designers today have produced diamond pieces in just about every price scale to meet happily with purse and budget.

Small diamonds lend themselves artistically to excellent designs in earrings, brooches, and rings of fine workmanship.

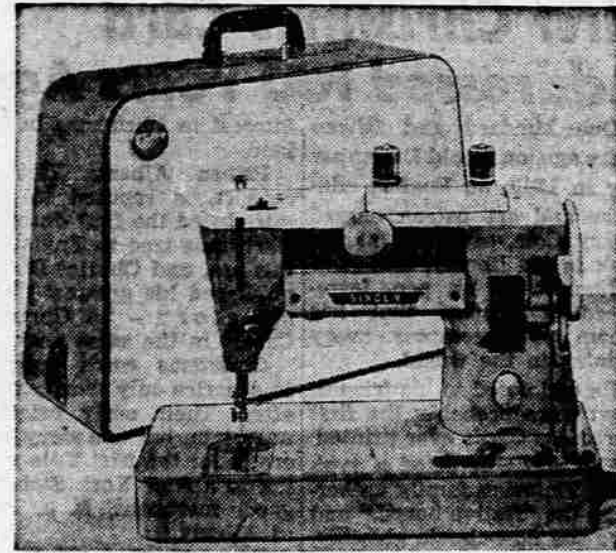

For Sentimental Lady
If you're buying for a lady who is sentimental (and who isn't at Yuletide), consider a heart motif. . . as a locket of gold or platinum paved with diamonds, or a cut-out heart framed in diamonds suspended on a necklace chain.

Religious medals and crosses set with diamonds are popular gift items in tune with the Christmas mood. . . ranging in price from well under $50 to several thousands, depending upon the size and quality of the diamonds.

No Rules Exist
No rule exists to prevent a husband from placing a diamond engagement ring on his wife's finger even after years of marriage; jewelers say many men do it.

Anniversary rings, too, are a memorable way of renewing the original promise to come in a galaxy of delicate blossoms, swirling scrolls, and refreshing modern designs; to be worn either of the fourth finger of the right hand or on the pinkie finger.

Why not visit a reliable jeweler and pre-select several pieces of jewelry well within your price range? Then, be prepared for a stir of excitement as you usher the lovely recipient into the jeweler to make her final choice from those you've already set aside! Remember, diamonds are dateless. . . to be worn a lifetime!

A NEW CASE TO TRY!—The famous Siant-O-Matic Portable Sewing Machine now features a new, sleek carrying case. It offers built-in convenience, is in two-toned beige leatherette to perfectly match the machine colors.

Charity Lacking at Christmas Season

Like bells and stars and Christmas trees and Santa Claus . . . not too many years ago there was another wonderful "Christmas word" in our vocabulary. It was "charity."

At that time its several secondary meanings, one of which is to "help those in need," stemmed always directly from its original meaning . . . "the love of mankind."

Today, almost without exception, the word "service" has replaced "charity" in regard to doing a good turn for less fortunate fellowmen.

It is indeed sad to speculate on what may have prompted this change.

"Service" groups, working sometimes year round, have been organized to distribute baskets of food, trees and gifts to the needy for us. This is, of course, a most commendable institution . . . but even more wonderful if the individuals in and behind the group are truly imbued with charity.

"Love of mankind" was the inspiring element for all the acts performed by the Child born in Bethlehem going through His life. For that reason the virtual loss of the word "charity" is especially felt as Christmas nears.

In celebrating His birth this season, let us attempt to strengthen our hope, renew our faith — and breathe back life into charity . . . doing what we will for one's fellowmen only because our hearts are full of love for others.

Moss growing, an industry 100 years old, has become an annual $480,000 business for central Wisconsin farmers. They raised 300,000 bales last year. The growers raise Sphagnum moss, used principally in holding water to the roots of plants, trees and shrubs in shipment.

To take Brazil nuts from the shell easily, cover the unshelled nuts with cold water and bring to a boil. Boil 3 to 5 minutes, cover with cold water and let stand a minute. Then crack the shells. The meats should come out whole or in big pieces.

The "Lord of Misrule" was a person in England (around 1066) who presided over his subjects with absolute power only during Yule. For this job he was paid well.

Sixty office buildings now under construction in New York City will have as much floor space as contained in three of Washington's Pentagon buildings.

Bracelet Gifts In Pairs This Season

A variety of rigid bracelets, classic or stone-set, carry out the feeling of the trapeze. Stone-set bracelets lend important color to costumes. Wide cuff bracelets are fashion musts for suits and tailored dresses. Slender bangles, and delicate flexible beauties are meant to be worn several at a time for bulk and impact!

Fashion decrees that bracelets should be worn in pairs on both wrists for a chic, balanced look — so wrap up bracelet gifts in "pairs" for Christmas!

GIFT SET — Entirely new is this towel gift set "Basket Planter," with its contents daintily tucked inside a brass flower planter that has an inside metal container. Two of each: bath towels, finger-tip towels and wash cloths.
