

Woolfolk-Malloroy Rites Held in White City Church

Eagle Point—Miss Linda Kay Malloroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Malloroy, became the bride of David Leigh Woolfolk in a ceremony held November 15 at Berean Baptist church, White City. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira V. Woolfolk, Brownsboro.

The rites were read at eight o'clock in the evening by the Rev. Ray E. Nelson, and about 85 guests were present. Mr. Malloroy gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a waltz length gown trimmed with lace and sequins and her veil was finger-tip length. She carried a cascade bouquet of Fuji chrysanthemums centered with a cluster of the same blossoms in yellow. Her pearl necklace was the bridegroom's gift and she carried a lace handkerchief which is an heirloom in the Woolfolk family.

Miss Jo Ann Malloroy was her sister's only attendant. Her frock of golden colored taffeta was of sheath design with overskirt of white nylon organdy with gold coin dots. She carried bronze and golden chrysanthemums.

Miss Susie Palm played the traditional organ music, and Mrs. Russell Ragsdale was soloist.

Calvin Gillespie, Ashland, was best man for the bridegroom, and ushers were Clinton Gillespie, Ashland, and Charles Pettigrew, Lake Creek.

For the wedding and reception which followed in the church parlor Mrs. Malloroy wore a grey-blue wool frock with yellow chrysanthemum corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a figured crepe frock and her corsage was of white chrysanthemums.

Pouring at the reception were Mrs. Donald Bradshaw and Mrs. Robert Fisher. Mrs. John Ousterhout and Mrs. Robert Nelson, sister of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake.

Baskets of gold, bronze, yellow and white chrysanthemums decorated the church and reception room.

Mr. Woolfolk and his bride traveled to San Francisco for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a white wool dress with teal colored coat and black accessories. The couple will live on the Woolfolk ranch near Brownsboro. The bride, a graduate of Eagle Point schools, is a bookkeeper for Drs. Roberts and Roberts, and the bridegroom is a rancher.

Service League To Hold Christmas Charity Ball

With Thanksgiving events now history, valley residents are turning their attention to December and the coming Christmas holidays. This is always the gayest season of the year, with many parties on the calendar.

Invitations to the annual charity ball to be held on Friday, December 12, at Rogue Valley Country club, are now being sent by Medford Junior Service league. This ball has become one of the major events of the holiday season and the proceeds go to support the league Kindergarten for Hard of Hearing Children.

Again this year the women are asked to wear fancy head-dresses. This feature of the formal event was started several years ago and adds greatly to the festivities. Head-dresses are judged during the evening and the winner is proclaimed "Queen of the Ball." Other prizes are given during the evening.

A cocktail hour is planned from 8 to 9 o'clock and the buffet dinner will begin at 9 p.m. Dancing will be both in the main dining room and the Crest room of the club.

Co-chairmen for the event are Mrs. Charles Mickelson and Mrs. Jack A. Edson. Assisting them as committee chairmen are Mrs. B. Kent Blackhurst, invitations; Mrs. Jonathan Middleton, decorations; Mrs. Robert R. Dickey, greeting committee; Mrs. Philip B. Lowry, prizes; Mrs. Robert Cunningham, food; Mrs. Eugene V. Meyerding, orchestra.

Los Altos Couple Guests in City

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Bullis, Los Altos, Calif., were holiday guests at the home of Mr. Bullis' sisters and brother, Mrs. Ralph Boutelle, Miss Helen Bullis, and Seth Bullis, all Florence avenue, Medford.

The relatives arrived in the valley Wednesday and returned to their home yesterday afternoon.

Seth Bullis returned last Sunday from San Francisco where he attended the national convention of Savings and Loan associations, which was attended by more than 4,000 delegates. Approximately eight Medford residents attended.

During his week long stay in the Bay area Mr. Bullis attended a concert of the San Francisco symphony orchestra conducted by Arthur Fiedler and a performance of "The Music Man" with Richard Tucker in the leading role. For the convention delegates a program was held which starred Gordon McRae and Marge and Gower Champion.

Xi Mu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will meet at the home of Mrs. Maynard Paup, 3298 Hollywood avenue, Wednesday, December 3.

Installation Set By Association

Officers of the Women's association of the First Presbyterian church will be installed Tuesday, December 2, by Dr. and Mrs. K. D. West at the church. A luncheon, served by Mercy circle, will be held at 12:30 p.m.

Officers to be installed include Mrs. George Flanagan, president; Mrs. Lloyd Neilson, first vice-president; Mrs. George Osler, second vice-president; Mrs. Walter Roemer, secretary; and Mrs. Joe Dispenziere, treasurer.

Circle chairmen, also to be installed during the afternoon, include Mrs. D. A. Hutchison, Mrs. Max Priebe, Mrs. William Farrell, Mrs. D. W. Husband, Mrs. Thad Hatten, Mrs. William Seibert, Mrs. Ramsey Miller, Mrs. Harold Gregory, and Mrs. Herbert Roberts.

The triple trio will sing. At the close of the meeting the new circle chairmen will meet.

Rites Held In Talent Wed Pair

Talent—Miss Dorothy Mae Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Granby, route 1, box 275, Talent, became the bride of Jack A. Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Turner, 121 King street, Medford, in a ceremony held November 14 at Talent Methodist church.

The Rev. Earnest Bell officiated at the double ring wedding held at five o'clock in the afternoon. Chrysanthemums decorated the church for the ceremony. Mrs. Agnes Day played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Clarence Holdridge, soloist.

The bride wore a powder blue suit with white accessories and carried a purple orchid on a white Bible. She was given in marriage by her brother, Frank Long.

Mrs. R. H. Cosio, Eugene, sister of the bridegroom attended the bride. She wore a light brown dress with black accessories and white carnation corsage.

Mr. Cosio served as best man while Jonathan Granby, brother of the bride, and Daniel Cooper seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Turner home in Medford. Pink and white carnations decorated the tables for the event.

The bride is a graduate of Talent High school and is a student at Southern Oregon college. Mr. Foster is employed by Klamath orchards. The newlywed couple are making their home at 1716 North Riverside avenue.

PEO Treasurer Attends Ceremony

Mrs. Fletcher Fish, Phoenix, returned home Sunday after being in Lebanon, Ore., for institution of a new chapter of the PEO sisterhood. The new chapter was designated DA.

Mrs. Fish, member of chapter BE, Medford, is treasurer of the state chapter. Also present for the ceremonies was Mrs. E. E. Vehrs, Grants Pass, state president, and a large group of state and national officers in Oregon.
