

Miss Joanne Mae Ritter Bride of Milton Sanderson

Gold Hill—Miss Joanne Mae Ritter became the bride of Milton LeRoy (Lee) Sanderson in a ceremony held Thursday, November 20, at First Methodist church in Medford. Dr. G. G. Roseberry officiated at the 8 o'clock double-ring ceremony, attended by 100 relatives and friends. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Ritter, Gold Hill, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton A. Sanderson of Sams Valley. The bride and bridegroom are both members of well known Jackson county families, and their forefathers were among the earliest settlers in southern Oregon.

The wedding color theme was bronze and gold. Arrangements of bronze and gold giant chrysanthemums with miniature yellow and brown chrysanthemums in baskets decorated the church, and white candelabra held lighted white tapers. A satin bow of bronze and gold was at each pew end.

Soloist was Mrs. C. Norman Gail, Gold Hill and Mrs. Alice Boardman, Medford, played the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length dress of white French type Chantilly lace over white taffeta, fashioned with a scoop neckline accented with a seed pearls, fitted bodice and flared skirt. Her fingertip length veil fell from a crown of white seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The crown and veil were designed and made by Mrs. Earl Moore, Gold Hill, for the bride. The bridal bouquet was yellow spider chrysanthemums centered by a white orchid.

Wore Taffeta
The maid-of-honor, Miss Sandra Whitesides, Medford, wore a taffeta sheath frock of burnt orange with a gold net overskirt and matching shoes. She carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Darrel Greb, Central Point and Mrs. Jack Pech, sister of the bridegroom, Medford. They were dressed in gold taffeta sheaths with gold net overskirts and matching shoes, and carried cascades of bronze chrysanthemums. Tiaras of gold net, pearls and ribbon worn by the attendants were made by Mrs. Greb, childhood friend of the bride.

The tiny flowergirl, Vicky Sanderson, sister of the bridegroom, wore a coral taffeta dress with matching bandeau of coral net and rosebuds. She wore white gloves and matching shoes, and scattered petals from a white straw basket. Her wristlet was of bronze and gold chrysanthemums.

Candlelighters were Miss Delores Sanderson, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Marilyn Moore, cousin of the bride, Grants Pass. They wore princess style dresses of moss green taffeta, with white gloves and matching shoes. Mrs. Greb made their headbands of moss green net and yellow rosebuds, and they wore wristlets of bronze and gold chrysanthemums.

Rebekah Lodge Elects Officers

Mrs. R. W. Smith was elected noble grand of the Olive Rebekah lodge at a recent meeting. Others elected were Mrs. Esther Coleman, vice-grand; Mrs. Harry Bryant, recording secretary; Mrs. L. F. Cline, financial secretary; and Mrs. Donald Ivie, treasurer.

The lodge will meet Monday, December 1, at 8 p.m. at the Odd Fellows hall. Mrs. P. M. Aldridge, Mrs. James Fleming, Mrs. L. J. Amer and Mrs. Kenneth Stockoff will be in charge of refreshment.

a sheath of winter blue taffeta brocade with white feather hat and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of mauve pink, with black accessories. Their corsages were white rosebuds.

Grandparents Attend

Among the guests were the paternal grandparents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sanderson, Sams Valley, and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. C. R. Alexander, Medford.

The newlyweds traveled to San Francisco, California for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a sheath dress of deep pink wool jersey with matching satin cummerbund, black patent accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will reside in Medford. The bride, a graduate of Crater High school, is a member of Bethel 38, Job's Daughters, Central Point. She sang in the Gold Hill Community Methodist church choir for several years, being one of the original members of the choir. She is employed in the X-ray department for Drs. Lawson, Gillum and Markee in Medford.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Crater High school. He is a corporal in Company A, 186 Infantry division, Oregon National Guard, and is employed at Fir Ply company in the White City area.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honored at two showers. One was given in the home of the bridegroom's mother in Sams Valley by Miss Sandra Whitesides and Mrs. J. W. Pech, November 13. November 17 she was honored at a shower held in the home of her aunt, Mrs. George McCollum, Old Stage road north of Gold Hill. Hostesses for this affair were Mrs. Frank Carter, Mrs. Earl Moore, Mrs. Melvin Burnett and Mrs. Darrel Greb.

Klamath County Librarian Here

Miss Evelyn Cooper, director of the Klamath County library for the past nine years, spent the Thanksgiving holiday week end in Medford as the house guest of her aunt, Mrs. John Soliss, III Genesee street. Miss Cooper and Mrs. Soliss were the guests of the Charles Hoovers for Thanksgiving dinner, and later entertained Miss Helen Webster, Jackson County library director, at supper.

Miss Cooper spent a day in the Jackson County library headquarters during her visit. During the preceding week Miss Eleanor Brown, director of the Deschutes County library, paid a visit to Miss Helen Webster and spent a morning in library headquarters. She also visited Miss Cora Mason at the Ashland Public library and Miss Myrtle Funkhouser, librarian at Southern Oregon college, before returning to her duties at Bend.

Miss Helen Webster recently went to Eureka, Calif., to observe the operations of the Humboldt County library and the library of Humboldt State college in Arcata. During her visit she was a guest at the farewell luncheon honoring Stephen Ewing, who is leaving the Humboldt county librarianship to take a position in San Leandro, Calif. She was also entertained as house guest by Mr. and Mrs. William Hansen, formerly of Radio KMED, Medford, and now owners of Radio KDAN, Eureka.
