

Ceremony Of Interest Announced

Central Point - Of interest here is news of the wedding of Miss Marilyn A. Pinkham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Pinkham, Springfield. The Pinkhams formerly lived in Central Point and have many relatives and friends in both Medford and Central Point.

Miss Pinkham became the bride of Joe D. Woods, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Woods, Springfield, in a ceremony held Saturday, November 8 at the Conservative Baptist church. The Rev. Owen Douglas officiated at the double ring ceremony held at three in the afternoon. The ceremony was attended by 100 relatives and friends.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin frock with an overskirt of Chantilly lace and net. The scalloped bodice and mitts were of Chantilly lace. Her veil was held by a seed pearl headpiece, and she carried carnations and rose buds on a white Bible.

Maid of honor was Miss Kathy Pinkham, sister of the bride. She wore a pale lavender taffeta dress and carried a nosegay of roses and chrysanthemums. Candelighters were Miss Cheryl Lansbury, Springfield, and Miss Rosie Hansen, Waltherville. The girls wore pastel colored frocks. Miss Marlene Boyer, Springfield, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Charles Wood served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Douglas Salladay and Jim Woods.

White candles graced the altar and baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums decorated the church for the occasion.

Mrs. Joe D. Woods

World Secretary Union Speaker

Mrs. F. S. Hoyman, who made her home in Egypt for many years while she served as a world secretary of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, was speaker of the local union at their meeting November 20.

Mrs. Hoyman told of her work in the distributing of literature and films to schools, colleges and various communities. She recently retired, and is spending some time in the valley with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter, Foothills road.

The Rev. E. C. Bush, of Free Methodist church, gave the devotion at the meeting. Mrs. Bush and Mrs. Loyal Smith provided the music.

Lone Pine PTA Canceled Session
Lone Pine Parent-Teacher association will not meet during December due to the Christmas program which will be held in the school gymnasium December 19, it was announced at the last meeting.

A panel program was presented during the evening on "Who's Got a Secret?" Norman Jahn, president of the association, served as moderator. During the meeting Mrs. W. A. Strawn, magazine chairman, announced that the club had received an award from the state for the number of subscriptions to the PTA Magazine. Cub Scouts presented the flag. Troop leaders are Mrs. Jack Wood and Mrs. Larry Rose.

The second grade room taught by Mrs. Edith Thornton won the room count and will receive a new book for their library and the use of the record player for a month. Refreshments were served with Mrs. Jack Thomsen, room representative for the seventh grade, in charge. Mrs. E. F. Edwards was in charge of decorations. Child care was provided by Mrs. Cecil Hall.

Cabbage is king in the markets right now. Make a crisp cabbage salad bowl adding chunks of Calavo avocado. Toss with a snappy horseradish sour cream dressing.

Six Home Extension Units To Hold Sessions This Week

Six home extension units have scheduled meetings this week and a fifth unit has postponed its meeting until Friday, December 12.

The annual Christmas party of the Medford Parents Home Extension unit will be held Tuesday, December 2, at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Marilyn H. Scott, 601 West 10th street. There will be a gift exchange of homemade items and Mrs. L. E. McConnell will show slides of her recent trip to Hawaii.

Mrs. Charles D. Chitwood and Mrs. Arthur R. Johnson will be hostesses for the evening. All those attending are asked to bring their table service.

For further information contact Mrs. Glen Stewart, SPring 2-9013.

Christmas candle making will be demonstrated at Wilson Park unit meeting Tuesday, December 2, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Calvin Smith, 1209 Leland avenue. The demonstration will be given by Mrs. Smith, project leader.

Co-hostesses are Mrs. Richard Hawkins and Mrs. John Haven. All interested women are invited to attend.

Lake Creek group will meet Wednesday, December 3, at 10:30 a.m. The meeting place has been changed from the Ernest Burrell home to the home of Mrs. James Edge, Eagle Point.

The project lesson will be given by Mrs. Lee Rogers on "Making of Toys." This is an extension of the lesson which was held earlier. Women attending are reminded to bring a recipe of their favorite cookie along with samples.

A Christmas gift exchange will be held, with gifts not to exceed $1. All attending are reminded to take their own table service.

An open meeting with potluck luncheon and gift exchange is planned by members of the West Side Extension unit at 10:45 a.m. Thursday, December 4, at the Central Point Grange.

Each person is to take a tree ornament and table service. Child care will be provided.

The Griffin Creek Home Extension unit has postponed its meeting until Friday, December 12, at 11 a.m. at the Griffin Creek Grange. It had been previously scheduled for December 5.

Mrs. Fred West and Mrs. Glenn Bailey will lead the demonstration on candle making at a meeting of Upper Applegate unit Wednesday, December 3. Instead of exchanging Christmas gifts, members will bring discarded clothing and groceries for needy families, and toilet articles for patients at the state hospital at Salem.

A Christmas menu will be served by the luncheon committee, and child care will be provided. Each is to bring her own service.

A meeting of Reese Creek will be held Tuesday, December 2, at the home of Mrs. Ben Gardner on Crater Lake Highway at 10:30 a.m. The group will have a lesson on tin craft. Each member is asked to bring a gift costing no more than $1 for exchange. All women in the Reese Creek area are welcome.
