

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

MRS. MONTMORENCY'S new maid, recently imported from Scandinavia, developed a mad crush on the grocery clerk, and felt the impulse to write her first note in the English language. Blushingly, she sought the aid of Mrs. Montmorency.

"How do you spell 'wheat'?" she asked, and followed with, "Now how you spell 'loaf'?"

"Making up a list of things we need at the market?" inquired Mrs. M.

"Oh, no," giggled the maid, and showed her letter. It read, "Hey, Mike: I am happy to go dance with you Satday. Wheat all my loaf. Ingrid."

In their "Guide for Bachelors," Messrs. Cadwallader and Nudnick remind readers there is one thing they can be absolutely sure of: "A woman is never more sincere than when she tells a millionaire she loves him."

Lowell Thomas, back from an Alaska jaunt, reports that the general store in Point Barrow advertises, "Whale Blubber and Hershey Bars."

News About Books From the Library

Library friends who donated 93 volumes to the Jackson County library during November included John O'Connor, Arthur H. Thompson, Mrs. Jeanne Y. Gang, Miss Anne P. Livingston, and two anonymous donors.

Books purchased brought the total number of new accessions to 409 for the month, of which 129 were children's books, and 182 new titles for adult readers.

All books added to the library, either by gift or by purchase, are available to all residents of the Jackson County Library district, who may obtain them either at the Medford Public library headquarters or through the nearest community branch.

Welfare Cases Show Increase in County

Welfare cases have greatly increased in three categories this year, according to James Pullman, administrator of the Jackson County Public Welfare office, Friday.

Possibly the greatest increase is in aid to dependent children, Pullman said. From 1955 through October, 1958, cases in this category increased from 58 to 139. These are all approved applications, Pullman said. Cases in this classification are expected to increase another 30 cases in the next two months Pullman said.

Two main causes for this increase in cases of children needing support through public funds are unemployment and the breaking up of homes. Possibly another reason is that welfare department workers are doing a better job in processing applications, Pullman added.

Another Classification
In another classification, aid to the disabled increased from 20 cases in 1955 to 71 in October, 1958, the welfare administrator said.

The third marked increase came in old age assistance, which increased from 98 cases in 1955 to 120 in October, 1958, Pullman said.

Lack of jobs was blamed for the increases in the latter two categories. Here, too, diligence in handling these cases was responsible for the increase in number, Pullman explained.

"The main reason for the increase in number of the cases in aid to disabled and old age assistance is lack of jobs," Pullman said. "Hard times come and the children are unable to support their aging parents as before. Also, jobs are given to the younger persons instead of to the older people when tougher times come and the resulting job scarcity."

Alexandra Falls on the Hay River, which flows into the Great Slave Lake, has a 150-foot drop.

Jazz Concert Slated At High School

The first annual jazz concert by the American Federation of Musicians, Local 597, will be held Monday, Dec. 15, from 8 to 10 p.m. at the Medford High school auditorium.

The three music groups, totaling 15 men who will perform, include John Lusk and his trio, Trick and the Tunsmiths, and Bill (Thunder) Glomb and the Thunderbirds.

All are professional musicians, some having played with well-known bands throughout the country, according to Glomb, who is producing the show.

The public will be admitted free to the concert.

BOY FINDS SELF A HERO

Newark, N. J. (UPI)—Five-year-old Kevin Ryan ran through the four-story apartment house he lives in Friday ringing doorbells to alert the neighbors to a basement fire. No one was injured. Twenty-five persons fled to the streets. And Kevin was hailed as a hero.
