

Beck's Doctor Tells of Being Put on Payroll

Tacoma, Wash. — (UP) — Dave Beck's doctor testified at the former Teamster president's income tax evasion trial here Tuesday that he went on the payroll of the Western Conference of Teamsters as a "medical adviser" while a debt he owed to Beck was being repaid.

Dr. Alexander Grinstein said he was paid $750 per month for 37 months, but that he never kept the money. He said he merely indorsed his pay checks and turned them over to Beck to repay a note for $26,500, plus $1,250 on another loan he had obtained from Beck.

Grinstein said his duties included the setting up of a labor-management health and welfare plan, the first of its kind in the Pacific northwest and one of the first in the country.

In Partnership
Beck is accused by the government of evading payment of $240,000 in income taxes during the years 1950-1953.

Grinstein said he had been in a partnership with Beck since 1947. This partnership involved real estate deals as well as other transactions.

The $26,500 was obtained from Beck, he said, interest free. It involved money he used to purchase stock in the K. and L. Beverages, a beer distributing firm. Grinstein said he owned about 14 per cent of the firm while Beck owned about 35 per cent. Fifty-one per cent was held by Ervin J. Levine of Seattle.

Another firm owned by Beck, Levine and Grinstein was the L-G-G Realty, a real

Anita Ekberg's Automobile Stolen

Rome — (UP) — Two bandits stole Anita Ekberg's sleek Mercedes sports car and then used it to stage a holdup, police reported Tuesday night.

They said the men took the car from in front of Miss Ekberg's home on the Aventine Hill and headed toward Maccarese on the Mediterranean coast, 20 miles west of Rome.

There they robbed a gasoline station and were last seen heading back toward Rome.

Vessels Collide In English Channel

London — (UP) — Two freighters collided in the fog-shrouded English channel today, tearing the stern off one and forcing its crew to abandon the ship.

All the crewmen were rescued by tugboats and lifeboats.

The steamers were the 11,156-ton Greek ship King

Minos II and the Greek freighter Prodrimis II.

The stern of the Prodrimis II was ripped off by the collision. The accident occurred in a dense fog, but the usually choppy English channel was calm.

A Dungeness Lifeboat Station spokesman said all the crewmen who abandoned ship were picked up by the tugs

The King Minos was reported headed for the English coast, helped by several of the tugs that rushed to its rescue. Its bows were badly smashed in the collision.

LOTTERY PARTY

New York — (UP) — A Republican Congressman from the Bronx has decided to form a "third party." It will be known as the Government Lottery party, and Rep. Paul A. Fino said he will seek reelection as its candidate. For six years, Fino has advocated a national lottery as "a painless revenue-raising measure which can easily produce 10 billion dollars a year in additional revenue."
