Soloists Announced
Ashland-Soloists have been announced for the Southern Oregon college presentation of Handel's "Messiah," which will be given in the college gymnasium at 8 p.m. Sunday, December 14. The soloists are: Virginia Cecil, soprano; Lois Windsor, contralto; Louis Clayson, tenor; and Maynard Hadney, bass.

Composed of a group of adult singers from the area and the Southern Oregon college choir, directed by Oscar C. Bjorlie, the "Messiah" chorus has been meeting at the college twice a week to rehearse for this presentation of Handel's famous concerto. Dr. Herbert Cecil, assistant professor of music at the college, will conduct the performance. No admission charge will be made, it was announced, although an offering will be accepted for the orchestra scholarship fund. The public is invited to attend.

Cancel Meeting
The December meeting of the book review group of the Medford branch, American Association of University Women, originally set for December 10, has been canceled.

Mrs. Rolf Hansen Honored at Party
Central Point - Mrs. Rolf Hansen of Spokane, Wash., was honored December 4 with an open house at the home of Mrs. John Clark, 415 South Second street in Central Point. Mrs. Hansen resided in Central Point for several years while her husband, the Rev. Rolf Hansen, was the minister of the Community Bible church. The open house gave Mrs. Hansen an opportunity of visiting with her many friends in Medford, Eagle Point and Central Point.

For the occasion, Mrs. Clark had decorated her home with Christmas arrangements. The centerpiece for the refreshment table was a pine cone Christmas tree which Mrs. Clark had made.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Paul Kroon, Mrs. Dick Lawton, Mrs. Lawrence Leonard, Mrs. Frank McKimmens, and Mrs. Lewis Collins.
