McLoughlin Junior High

By Joel Gregory Lindy Mattson and Suzi Lind The debate squad was announced this week by Don Darnelle instructor. Students who earned places on the team were Lois Stedman, Jo Ann Johnson, Delores Smith, Marsha Watson, Ruth Milligan, Claudia Owen, John Alansky, Carl Washburn, David Elgin, Richard Knight, Wallace Huffman and Joel Gregory.

Go Bulldogs, Go! Again the familiar sounds of the locomotive, and competition yells filled the boys gym as students ushered in the basketball season with a pep assembly Thursday. The seventh grade junior varsity and varsity basketball squads were introduced by Ralph Perkins and Howard Gang, coaches. Gene Helm introduced the eighth grade squad and Dale Bates introduced the freshman team. The first game was held Friday in Grants Pass.

Insurance Agent Wins First Place

Ardis N. Warren, Ashland, recently won first place honors in the annual Oregon competition among some 98 insurance agents selling life insurance. He is with the southern Oregon district of the Equitable Life Assurance Society.

Jerry Gastineau, district manager of the firm, said Warren joined the company only one month before competition started. Warren sold 42 policies with a total value of $276,370. Gastineau said, during October. Nearest competitor was Eli Morgan of Portland who trailed by eight policies with a volume of $119,407.

Warren was guest of Equitable Life on a three-day trip to Eugene, Salem and Portland.

Gastineau said Warren's sale record places him third in the western division of Equitable Life, which includes 11 western states.

A graduate of Southern Oregon college, Warren has taught school, coached and more recently was associated with an Ashland real estate firm.

Curtain Callers To Present Play At Crater High

Central Point — "Cheaper By the Dozen," a three-act comedy with an underlying dramatic theme, will be presented by the Curtain Callers, Crater High school dramatics group, in the high school cafeteria Friday and Saturday, Dec. 12 and 13 at 8 p.m.

The play opens with Frank and Ernest in a reminiscing and continues with amusing and dramatic scenes in the book woven together by Christopher Sergel into an enjoyable play.

Mr. Gilbreth, the psychologist, played by John Caster, and Mrs. Gilbreth is played by Sandra Smith. The children include Ann, played by Sharlette Hale; Ernestine, played by Betty Jones; Dale Nesheim as Bill; Gary Meade as Fred; Emmitt Glass as Dan; Wanda Davis as Lillian; and Robert Allen as Jackie.

Other characters include Brill, played by Arvella Prom; Larry, played by Kent Randahl; Joe Scales, Gay Dean Jones; Dr. Burton, Bill Manasco; and Mrs. Fitzgerald, Margaret Pendleton.

The play is being directed by Jim Backen.

A production staff of more than 60 students working on the play include Jim Hays and Janet Scalberg, assistant directors; Margaret Pendleton, technical director; Byron Roninger, business manager; Bob Gardner, stage manager; Sandy Higginbotham, house manager; Sylvia Yell, publicity director; Patt Hurt, prompter; Jo La Casse, chairman of properties; Louella Rone, chairman of costumes; and Earlene Obenchain, chairman of make-up.

Bill Russell, Senior English instructor, is assisting Backen in directing the play.

CLEANING UP Modern electric refrigerators are easy to keep clean but here's a tip. Be sure to wipe up spills at once before they've had a chance to harden and require scrubbing.
