

Brittsan, Sword Named To OCC All-Star Football Aggregation

Portland - (UPI) - Twenty-two players, including eight from dethroned champion Oregon Tech, were named today to the 1958 Oregon Collegiate conference all-star offensive and defensive teams by the five coaches.

Oregon Tech forfeited the title after it was discovered four of its players were ineligible under OCC rules. The players were not named.

Oregon College of Education, which finished second and has been recommended for the title, got five players on the two teams as did Portland State. Southern Oregon and Eastern Oregon both had one position on each team.

Pilots Clip Montanans

Pocatello, Idaho - (UPI) - The Portland University Pilots came from behind in the second half Friday night to defeat tournament favorite Montana State college 57-49 before 5000 fans in the opening game of the Idaho State college invitational basketball tournament at Pocatello.

Portland was paced to victory by Chuck Rodgers and Dick Jolley, who each tallied 12 points in the second half to put the Pilots out in front.

The lead changed hands several times in the closing minutes and Portland finally took over with five minutes left in the game when Rodgers tied it up at 40-40 with a field goal and followed with a free throw which gave the Oregon team a 41-40 advantage.

Montana's Little All-America candidate Larry Chanay was high point man in the game with 22. He also accounted for 12 points in the second half.

Roseburg Subdues Crater Five 51-39

Roseburg - Roseburg high utilized a strong third quarter and more shooting accuracy Friday night to overcome the Crater Comets 51 to 39 in a non-league maplecourt fracas here.

Crater nearly matched the taller Roseburg five in the battle for the ball under the backboards but could not put the ball through the hoop with consistency.

The Indians took control after a close first half by outscoring the Central Point quintet 19 to 9 in the third panel. They were on top 43 to 32 after that period and stretched their command to 15 points at 47 to 32 in the opening stages of the final quarter.

Score was tied 10-all at the end of the opening chukker and Roseburg had a slim 24 to 23 nod at halftime.

Tom Barrong and Bob Steele, with 20 and 18 markers, respectively were the main offensive guns of the Indians while Barrong and Dave Flury were the strong men under the backboards. Bill White with 13 points and Wayne Allen with 12 were top scorers for the Comets. White and Chuck Turner sparked the rebounding effort with some aggressive aid from John Burns.

Roseburg took only two-thirds the number of field shots that Crater did but had a 432 shooting mark compared to Crater's 257. At the free line the Indians had more firing chances and averaged 61.9 to the Comets' 43.7. The host club made 19 tries from the field to Crater's 17. Rebounding margin was 44 to 39 for Roseburg. Free heave edge was seven to 13.

Second quarter of the battle was a hectic struggle with the lead switching four times and the count knotted on equal number of occasions. The Comets once had an 18 to 15 gap but Roseburg went ahead 19 to 18 on goals by Ron Franks and Rod Hoenisch. Two gift tosses by Allen and one by Kerman Bennett put Crater back in front 21 to 19. Barrong's follow shot deadlocks the game and his gift made it 22 to 21.

A lay-in bucket by Allen gave the Comets a 23 to 22 bulge but Steele hit to give the Indians the lead for keeps.

In the third quarter Roseburg pushed its margin to 29 to 23. Burns hit from the field for Crater but the Indians ran their total to 36 before the Central Pointers could score again.

Roseburg out-tallied the Comets only 8 to 7 in the last quarter.

San Francisco - (UPI) - Between the two of them, the San Francisco Forty Niners and the Green Bay Packers have won only five games in the National Football League this year, but they'll play to 47,000 fans in Kezar Stadium Sunday.

San Francisco has been installed as an 11-point favorite, but coach Frankie Albert says he'll be satisfied "just to win."

The Forty Niners will stick pretty much with the lineup that licked Green Bay two weeks ago and nearly turned back the Baltimore Colts last week.

This will mean that veteran Y. A. Tittle again will get the call at quarterback over sophomore John Brodie. Hugh McElhenny and R. C. Owens will be the halfbacks and Joe Perry the fullback.

Bart Starr will do the signal calling for the Packers, who have won only one game all year, while also getting one draw. Don McElhenny and Joe Johnson will be the halfbacks and former Notre Dame quarterback Paul Hornung will be at full.

Hawkinson Tire To Send Veteran Team To Face Tatum Stars

Hawkinson Tire will send a team of Rogue Valley basketball veterans averaging slightly over six feet in height against Goose Tatum's Harlem Stars at Hedrick Junior High school gym Tuesday night. Game time is 8 o'clock.

The Hawkinson team, a member of the newly-organized Southern Oregon Independent league, is sponsored by Carl Bismark of Hawkinson Tire Tread Service of Medford and is managed by Fred Johnson. It is made up of veterans of high school and independent teams.

Following is the team roster:
Don Harris, six feet, four; 1948 all-state from Jacksonville and with the former Yellow Cab team of Medford; Doug Witte, six feet, four; two-year all-star at Phoenix; Bob Serak, 5-11, who played school and independent ball in Chicago; Dick McLaughlin, 6-3, Medford high ace who was named to the all-state second team in 1956; Derald

Wooton and Dick Niles, both 6-3 and experienced in Medford High and independent ball; Fred Johnson, six feet, with the former Yellow Cabbies; Darrell Johnson, 5-9, school ball in Iowa, the Air Force and independent teams; Willard Lilly, six feet, independent; Dale McCay, 5-9, freshman ball at OTI and independent experience; Ron Peery, 5-11, Medford High, and Bob Plankenhorn, 5-11, Medford High.

The Harlem Stars replace the Harlem Globetrotters on the Medford traveling schedule this year. The Globetrotters will by-pass Medford in their Pacific Coast swing for the first time in four years.

The Tatum club averages well over six feet in height and their clever ball handling, "dead-eye" shooting and comedy antics make them one of the nation's outstanding traveling teams.

Tickets are on sale at Lamport's Sporting Goods store, 226 East Main st.

Utah's Redskins Trounce Ice Cold Oregon Staters

Salt Lake City - (UPI) - Utah's sharpshooting Redskins overwhelmed a frigid Oregon State Beaver squad 70-41 here Friday night.

Senior center Pearl Pollard and lanky Delyle Condie paced the Utes to an early lead which allowed Coach Jack Gardner to play his reserves through much of the second half.

Pollard tanked 13 points and Condie picked up 12 as 11 players figured in the Utah scoring.

After the game, Slat Gill, Oregon State coach observed philosophically: "We got something out of the game anyway - a chance to experiment with all court press."

The Beavers, playing cold without Lee Harman, trailed 38-26 at the half.

The Beavers were held to only three field goals in the second half, although they had plenty of shooting chances.

Eagle Mat Gang Opens At Ashland

Eagle Point - Nine lettermen are on the 23-man Eagle Point high wrestling squad which opens its slate on Tuesday night at Ashland.

Coach Gail Schoppert has listed the monogram men as Sid Jacksons and Ben Nork, seniors; David Shepherd and Don Arnold, juniors, and Warren and Don Pestka, Roy Moore, Terrill Cowden and Ed Kneworthy, sophomores. Arnold, however, hurt his knee in football and is resting until after the Christmas holidays.

Among the promising candidates are Max Hawks, Dick Hertager, Tom Muse, Lewis Lacy, Bill Pfeifer and Dick Ayres. Pfeifer, a sophomore, Hawks, a junior, and Muse, Hertager and Ayres, freshmen, may have varsity spots in the meet with Ashland.

Schoppert has announced plays for a Southern Oregon A-2 invitational tourney at Eagle Point on Jan. 24. Brookings, Henley and Glide will contend along with Eagle Point.

FOUR EXECUTED

Vienna - (UPI) - Four Romanians convicted by a Bucharest military court have been executed, Bucharest Radio reported Friday. It said five other defendants received life prison terms. Neither names of the prisoners nor the charges against them were revealed.

Willamette Dominates Star Squad

Portland - (UPI) - Champion Willamette placed 10 of 23 players on the 1958 Northwest conference all-star offensive and defensive football teams selected by the six coaches.

Two Willamette players, center Bill Long and tackle Gary Raid, were repeaters from last year. Tarry Picknell, Linfield tackle, was the only other repeater.

The conference used rules permitting unlimited substitution this season and as a result offensive and defensive teams were chosen for the first time since 1952. A tie for one tackle spot gave the defensive lineup 12 players.

The offensive teams: Ends - Lee Weaver, Willamette, and Hank Crawford, Linfield; tackles - Raid, Willamette, and Picknell, Linfield; guards - Dennis Mihm, Willamette, and Larry Wilkins, Lewis and Clark; center - Long, Willamette; backs - Royce McDaniel, Lewis and Clark; Stan Solomon, Willamette; Jack Nehring, Pacific, and Sel Spray, Linfield.

The defensive team: Ends - Bill Wall, Willamette, and Ray Simonsen, Linfield; tackles - Marv Stroebel, Willamette, Don Lund, Lewis and Clark, and Don Brandt, Whitman; guard - Tom Thompson, Pacific; linebackers - Gerry Stickley, Lewis and Clark; Chuck Peterson, Pacific, and Earl Jambura, Willamette; backs - Dale Shumway, Willamette, Jack Abdie, Lewis and Clark, and Denny Sarver, Willamette.

The honorable mention list included: Offense - Ends Jerry Hillis, Whitman, and Bob Bennett, College of Idaho; tackles - Jack Smith, Pacific; Wally Sparks, Lewis and Clark; Larry Burlison, Linfield; guards - Tom Thompson, Pacific; centers - John Alsp, Whitman; Jim Ferguson, Pacific; backs - Charlie Alvaro, College of Idaho; Keith Driver, Willamette; Sarver, Willamette; Gary Grill, Lewis and Clark; Ken Brocke, College of Idaho; Larry Groves, Lewis and Clark, and Duane Moodhe, Whitman.

LC Quint, Willamette Post Wins

Salem - (UPI) - Willamette and Lewis and Clark both powered their way to the finals of the Northwest conference Tip-Off basketball tournament Friday night.

The Bearcats swamped Pacific and the Pioneers came from behind to beat Linfield in overtime.

The Bearcats took their contest 86-78 and Lewis and Clark won 81-79 when forward Roger Fleck tipped one in on a leaping one-handed try.

Six Men, Woman Named for Award

Chicago - (UPI) - Six men and one woman Saturday were nominated by the National A - A - U for the Sullivan award, with voting to be held after Jan. 1.

The nominees were Rafof Johnson, world decathlon champion; Glenn Davis, Ohio State track star; David Jenkins, figure skater; Tommy Kono, weight lifter; Sylvia Ruuska, swimmer; Frank McKinney, swimmer, and wrestler Terry McCann.

The AAU, at its annual convention, also awarded sites for additional A-A-U-sponsored tournaments in 1959 and approved several rules changes. Miami Beach, Fla., was chosen as the site of the 1959 A-A-U convention, but no date was set.

Sites and dates of tournaments were: Boxing - Toledo, Ohio, April 2-4. Volley ball - Denver, no date set. Weight-lifting - Philadelphia, Aug. 1-2. Men's basketball - Denver, March 16-21. Women's basketball - St. Joseph, Mo., March 16-21.

Notle, Lewis and Clark; Terry Kent, Willamette; ackle - Del Smith, College of Idaho; middle guard - Marv Cisneros, Willamette; linebackers - Don Wright, College of Idaho; Hugh Yoshida, Linfield; Jerry Hillis, Whitman; John Hinds, Willamette; halfbacks - Bob Anderson, Whitman; Lou Littlejohn, Linfield; safety - Tom Garrett, Whitman; Rick Hintz, Linfield.
