Rewards Offered In Las Vegas Killings

Las Vegas—(UP)—Rewards totaling $35,000 have been offered for information leading to the arrest of the killer of millionaire gambler Gus Greenbaum and his wife. Benny Goffstein, vice president of the plush Riviera hotel in which Greenbaum was major stockholder and president, Sunday night said the hotel was offering a $25,000 reward and that another $10,000 had been offered by friends of the slain couple. Greenbaum, 65, and his wife, Bess, 64, were found last Wednesday in their $50,000 Phoenix home with their throats cut. Nothing of value was stolen from the house.

Catholics Observe Joyful Feast Day

Vatican City—(UP)—Pope John XXIII led the world's half-billion Roman Catholics today in celebrating the joyful Feast Day of the Immaculate Conception. The jovial 77-year-old Pontiff showed himself to his flock in public appearances in St. Peter's Basilica, the Piazza de Spagna and Basilica of St. Mary Major to mark one of the most impressive holidays in the Catholic calendar. The Feast Day of the Immaculate Conception marks the dogma proclaimed by Pope Pius IX in 1854 that the Virgin Mary was exempt from the stain of original sin. The dogma is only a century old, but belief in Immaculate Conception and the festival itself date back as far as the 8th century.

Their Future and Yours Depends on Our Colleges
The number of young men and women who want and deserve a college education will double by 1967. It's a sobering thought.
Our colleges and universities are making a valiant effort to take care of the hosts of eager-eyed young people who are already clamoring for admittance. They have an enormous job to do. For expansion calls for more than adding classrooms, laboratories and dormitory space. There must be a corresponding increase in faculty and in faculty caliber.
Freedom needs educated people. Won't you help overcome this crisis? Help the college of your choice today.

The Hallmark of Circulation Value

In the same way that STERLING on silver signifies a standard of known value, so is the A.B.C. emblem a symbol of integrity for the circulation of newspapers and periodicals. It means that circulation so identified is measured according to the rules and standards of the AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

The A.B.C. is a cooperative and non-profit association of 3,450 publishers, advertisers and advertising agencies. Organized in 1914, these buyers and sellers of advertising brought order out of advertising chaos by setting up standards for paid circulation and establishing rules and methods for measuring, auditing and reporting circulations.

Therefore, the work of the A.B.C., of which this newspaper is proud to be a member, provides you with a direct and valuable service. You can buy advertising as you would make any other sound business investment — on the basis of well known standards, known values.

At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors makes a thorough audit of our circulation records. The results of this exacting audit show: How much circulation we have; where our circulation goes; how it was obtained; and many other FACTS that you need in order to know just what you get for your advertising dollars. This audited information is published by the Bureau in easy-to-read A.B.C. reports which are available to our advertisers on request. Ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.

Pearl Harbor, Hawaii—(UP)—Seventeen years ago today the U.S. Pacific fleet, bulwark of American defense in the Pacific area, lay shattered. Smoke still rose from the partially sunken remains of the Arizona and other ships of the 86-vessel armada. Some 3,303 sailors, marines and soldiers were dead or missing and another 1,272 were wounded. Entry Into War At 10:25 a.m. (PST) the previous day, Dec. 7, 1941, 100 Japanese bombers supported by a number of submarines perpetrated the sneak attack on Pearl Harbor which marked the entry of the United States into World War II. Sunday, the 17th anniversary of the attack, not a single line was carried in the Japanese newspapers to mark the date. But here at the scene of the attack Navy chaplains of three faiths offered prayers for the 1,012 men still entombed in the rusting bulk of the Arizona. A dozen floral wreaths were placed at the base of her flagstaff which still protrudes above the water. A five-man firing squad of Marines crowded onto a small wooden platform erected where the bridge of the Arizona once stood. They fired three volleys over the wreaths while a bugler played taps. Civil Defense Day In Washington the anniversary this year was officially designated as Civil Defense Day with new calls for constant vigilance against a nuclear Pearl Harbor. Defense Mobilizer Leo A. Hoegh led ceremonies held at the tomb of the nation's unknown soldiers in historic Arlington Cemetery. "The greatest tribute we can pay those who have fallen in the defense of our country and in particular to those who fell on this day in 1941," he said, "is the solemn pledge that never again will we be caught unprepared by a surprise attack." Bridge is the most popular card game with American women, while poker is the favorite with men.
