On Journal All-State

Medford's Murray Journal All-Stater

Mike Murray, Medford high defensive guard and placekicking expert, was named Sunday to the Oregon Journal's Oregon prep all-star first team.

He and Jack Dean, Grants Pass back, were the only choices from southern Oregon, on the Journal's first eleven.

Viks Beat Eagle Point

Eagle Point - Myrtle Creek's strong hoop aggression tripped Eagle Point high 58 to 41 at Eagle Point on Saturday.

The Vikings built up most of their lead in the first half, heading 17 to 5 at the quarter and 28 to 12 at the midway buzzer. Third quarter score was 32 to 22.

Bill Turner of Eagle Point was high scorer with 16 markers. Erwood had 15 for Myrtle Creek. Bill Hubbard of EP and Lindquist of MC each had 12.

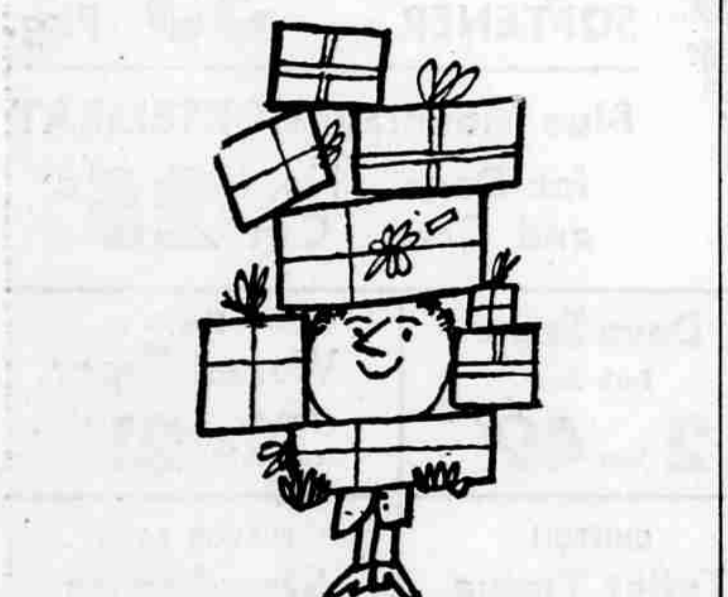

Eagle Point went into the game with only four days of practice, getting a late start after a long football season. However, Turner and Hubbard particularly showed promise of outstanding play in the 1958-1959 campaign. It was a non-league game.

Harney Grabs Dorado Prize
 Dorado Beach, P.R. (UPI)—Paul Harney of Worcester, Mass., has finally recaptured the "winning touch" that deserted him 15 months ago.

Harney, a long-hitting pro who seemed headed for the big money after winning the Carling and Labatt opens in the summer of 1957, picked up his first winner's check since then Sunday when he won the Dorado Beach Open golf tournament with a 72-hole total of 284.

This was one stroke better than the 285 turned in by Ted Kroll of Sarasota, Fla.

Lowell Dean Picked On All-State Eleven

Lowell Dean, end on Medford High's state A-1 runner-up football team, was selected on the first team in the Portland Oregonian's all-state poll.

He was the only Black Tornado player to be chosen on any of the three teams listed by the Oregonian. However, honorable mention was received by Lynn Knight, tackle; John Frohnmayer and Mike Murray, guards, and Dennis Barr, center.

The Oregonian's first team included Gordon Scott, Astoria, and Dean, ends; Gary Bracelin, McMinnville, and C. B. Simons, Roseburg, tackles; Bill Candee, Washington, and John Thies, Jefferson, guards; Reed Daugherty, center; Terry Baker, Raye Renfro and Mel Renfro, Jefferson, and Walt Hunter, Marshfield, backs.

Jack Dean, Grants Pass, was named a back on the second team and Wendell Winterbottom, Grants Pass, a guard on the third team.

Among honorable mentions were Gary Kranenburg, Klamath Falls, end; Wayne Allen and Kerman Bennett, Crater, backs, and Bill Skeeters, Eagle Point, back.

Lowell Dean and Mel Renfro, juniors, were the only non-seniors on the first team.

Tatum's Stars To Use Tried and Proven Tricks Here on Tuesday Night

Some of those side-splitting stunts Goose Tatum's Harlem Stars pull off during a basketball game look like ad libs but some are and some aren't. Many of the Stars' stunts have been tried, proven and perfected over the past five years, since the team has been organized, on basketball floors around the world.

Southern Oregon fans will get their only chance to see Tatum and his club this season at Hedrick Junior high school gym Tuesday night when they oppose Hawkinson Tire of Medford. Game time is 8 o'clock and gym doors will open at 6:30 p.m.

The baseball and football routines, the attempt to drop-kick a basket and other unorthodox maneuvers are in the Stars' bag of tricks and promise to remain there as fans call out from the gallery for these popular standbys of buffoonery.

Tatum teams with popular Sweetwater Clifton, who like his boss is one of the greatest clowns in basketball, to bring the fans a game marked with "know you see it, now you don't" type of basketball along with brilliant play.

Tickets will remain on sale at Lampport's sporting goods store, 228 East Main st., until tomorrow evening.

Indian Cage Club Trips Crater 79-60

Roseburg - A massive 30-point spread built up in the first quarter, sharper shooting and control of the backboards enabled the Roseburg high Indians to dump the Crater Comets 79 to 60 Saturday night and record a two-game basketball series sweep.

Saturday night's verdict followed a 51 to 39 win on Friday.

Crater outscored the Indians 55 to 44 during the last three quarters but a 35 to 5 bulge run up in the first eight minutes on the court provided a cushion against the Comet threat in a tussle marred by constant whistle-tooting.

Steele Scores 29
 Bob Steele, Tom Barrong and Ron Frank with their point tabulation and Barrong, Dave Flury and Frank with their rebound retrieving spurred the Roseburg triumph. Steele had 29 points for the night, 15 of them made at the free throw stripe. Barrong had 14 counters and Frank 12. In clearing the ball from the backboards, Barrong controlled on 21 occasions, almost equalling the Crater total of 24 retrieves. Flury cleared the boards 11 times and Frank nine.

Four Crater men scored in double figures, Wayne Allen 15, Loyal Higinbotham and Bill White each 13 and Chuck Turner 11. John Burns led the Comet rebounding with eight retrieves.

Roseburg ran up a quick 28 to 1 lead in the fray and actually was ahead by some 33 points before Crater began its bid to get back in the ball game.

48 to 23 at Half
 The Comets outfired Roseburg 18 to 13 in the second stanza and trailed by 25 tallies, 48 to 23, at halftime. Indian cagers had slightly the best of it, 14 to 12, in the third period for a 62 to 35 rest time status but Crater had the upperhand 25 to 17 in the last quarter.

A full court press helped the Comets against the taller Indians in second half contention.

Roseburg made good use of its height advantage with 58 to 24 edge under the backboards.

A total of 64 fouls were whistled during the evening, 35 against Crater and 29 on Roseburg. The Indians made 39 of their points at the gift line, almost double the number of their field goal shots

LC Quintet Takes Toga In Tip-Off

United Press International
 Lewis and Clark won the second annual Tip-Off tournament by defeating Willamette 76-69 Saturday night in Portland. Linfield got consolation honors by drubbing Pacific 95-70.

In other action Oregon Tech came back Saturday night to down Humboldt State 47-30 at Klamath Falls while Southern Oregon was being edged 58-55 by Chico State.

Oregon State continues its road trip tonight, playing Idaho State at Pocatello. Lee Harman's 10 points led the Beavers in Saturday night's losing game to Utah.

Yreka Tops Pirate Five

Phoenix - Yreka, Calif., solved a Phoenix High zone defense with good outside shooting and good passing and went on to a 55 to 20 win over the Pirate hoop quintet Saturday night at Yreka.

The Miners romped to a 16 to 5 first panel margin and were ahead by a wide 33 to 9 at halftime. Third stanza score was 50 to 14.

Yreka had its fast break working well. It got good shots and made them while Miner defense made the Pirates force their shooting. The Californians averaged .500 in first half field gunning and .365 for the game. Phoenix hit only .118 for the evening.

B. Wilson had 19 markers for Yreka and G. Gresham 13. Bill Dillree's seven was high for the Pirates.

Athletics Buy Duane Pilette

Portland (UPI)—Right-handed pitcher Duane Pilette, who won 9 and lost 10 last season for Seattle and Portland, has been sold to the Kansas City Athletics by the Beavers.

Los Angeles (UPI)—Está Cody, wife of the famed Jack Cody, who coached Multnomah Athletic club swim teams in Portland for many years, died here Saturday of an apparent heart attack. The Codys had been living here since they left Portland in 1949, after 36 years of residence there.

Ducks Win, Beavers Lose In Week End Hoop Series

Coast Basketball Roundup
 United Press International
 Washington's Huskies, who were accorded the palm in some places as the team most likely to succeed in the Pacific Coast conference, got the back of the hand twice from Colorado last week end but should have easier going tonight against Hawaii.

Colorado opened Washington's season by beating the Huskies, 70-63, in overtime Friday and followed with a 69-51 trimming Saturday. The Buffs held big Bruno Boio of the Huskies to nine points while Gerry Schroeder potted 27 points for the winners in the second meeting.

St. Mary's also regarded as a team of destiny, had better luck and took both its games in a weekend of twin bills at the Cow Palace in San Francisco. After rallying to beat UCLA, 62-59, on Friday, the Gaels downed Stanford with ease on Saturday, 63-45 as Larry Doss tallied 19 points.

Same Team?
 Santa Clara looked like two different teams on Friday and Saturday. The Broncos fell before Stanford, 55-49, in a dull game Friday at the E. Irvine pavilion then ground out a 50-43 win over UCLA Saturday as Frank Sobrero scored 33 points for the Broncos.

California finally caught up with USF and beat the Dons for the first time since 1952 as Al Buch caught fire in the last 90 seconds to assure the Bear victory. The Cal captain, who had been held scoreless all night, slipped in six points during that minute and a half to nail things down. It marked the first time Pete Newell had bested a Phil Woolpert quintet in six shots at his old buddy.

Oregon Two-Times BYU
 Oregon posted two wins over Brigham Young by scores of 79-75 in a Friday overtime and 71-67 Saturday. Stu Robertson paced the Ducks with 21 points.

In the meantime, coach Slats Gill and his Oregon State team had a rough go with powerful Utah. The Utes belted the Beavers, 70-41 on Friday then followed with a 62-38 romp on Saturday although Gill tried to slow them down with a tight ball control game.

Portland's Pilots defeated Utah State, 68-66, to win the third annual Idaho State college tournament behind a 21-point showing by Wally Panch.

Leroy Wright's 14 points, which he sank despite an injured leg, helped College of the Pacific speed to a 89-41 victory over the California Aggies. Washington State downed Gonzaga, 88-79, in another coast game.
