Stocks Get Support From Industries

New York — (UPI) — Stocks met good support today as industry after industry reported improved operations.

Leading chemical stocks showed gains running to around two points or more in DuPont, Dow and Allied. Firestone ran up more than five at its best in the tires, a group which will benefit from increased auto sales.

The autos were firm with some of the leaders up around a point. Oils were generally firm. Rails sported small gains along a broad front.

Among the electronics, Litton stood out with a gain of more than six at its high. Avco rose more than a point at its high. Zenith was up almost three near the close.
