

LOSING Supreme Court appeal, Marie Torre, New York TV columnist, faces 10 days in jail for refusing to divulge source of story about singer Judy Garland.

Eugene Elks Club Destroyed

Eugene—UPI—A general alarm fire that broke out about 2:30 a.m. today destroyed the half-million dollar Eugene Elks Club at 7th and Olive sts.

The building's engineer, George Bullock, suffered a cut thumb when the sidewalk lid to the basement fell on his hand as he and police were attending to get into the building after spotting the blaze. He was treated at a Eugene hospital, then released.

Battalion Chief Everett Hall was treated for an ember in his eye, then returned to the fire fighting.

Lodge Secretary Bill Van Nuys said the building was valued at half a million dollars. Club officials said the loss was fully covered by insurance.

Firemen hosed down adjacent buildings for hours and kept the blaze from spreading.

The last Eugene fire of such major proportions was on July 2, 1956, when the John Warren Hardware store burned, with the loss estimated at $200,000.

Boy Scouts

Pack 6
Cub Scout Pack 6 had their annual Christmas party Tuesday, Dec. 9, in the Washington school gymnasium. A total of 217 people attended. Led by Dennis Kurousky, Den 3, gave the flag salute. David Hamaker was inducted into the cubs, and received his Bobcat pin.

Awards were: Wolf; David Chapman, Mike Madden, Donald Lawrence, Larry Wright; Bear; Tommy Mallons, William Breedlove; Gold arrow on bear; Tommy Mallons, Tim Price; Silver arrow on bear; Tommy Mallons, Tim Price, David Landis.

One-year pins: George Penland, Dennis Kurousky, Larry Wright, Dean Hall, Larry Dusen, Victor Johnson, Bobby Drysdale, Wayne Garrett; Two-year pins: Rodney Dyer, Den Mother Lucille Davis; Three-year pins: Ted Dawson, Dale Wright, Ronny Hale; Denner: Tim Coy, Donald Lawrence, Dennis Holt; Assistant denner: Peter Thanos; David Chapman, Rickey Weaver.

Christmas songs were sung, led by ex-Cubmaster Jim Johnston and a large Christmas tree was decorated by the Cubs, with decorations they had made in den meetings. The tree, and canned goods, the Cubs brought, was donated to the Salvation Army. This has been done for several years. Santa Claus gave candy canes and apples to all the Cubs and their guests and the committee men. To the den mothers he gave giant lollipops, and as a special surprise, a lovely plant was presented to the Cubmaster and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Barraclough, by committee man Roy Rolls.

TRIALS REPORTED

Belgrade—UPI—Twenty-three persons will be brought to trial on charges of anti-state activity before the end of the month, it was reported today. Informed sources said the defendants will be tried separately. The group includes Dusan Brkic, former premier of Croatia, and Fernhard Badnjevic, former Yugoslavian minister to Egypt. They were picked up while trying to cross the Yugoslav-Albanian border last May and have been in custody ever since, the sources said.

ERA ENDS

London—UPI—London's old double-decker buses are up for sale. Transport officials said they have already sold some of the 500 buses declared surplus after recent cuts in service. Ceylon took 140 and 21 went to a private dealer and the atomic energy authority.
