

IF YOU'RE NOT SHOPPING AT THE GROCETERIA YOU'RE PAYING TOO MUCH

REPEAT SPECIAL

Extra Fancy—Large—Meat Type

FRESH DRESSED WHOLE BODIED

FRYING CHICKEN

29
POUND <sup>C</sup>

- Produced in Southern Oregon and N. California
- Processed in Southern Oregon and N. California
- For the People of Southern Oregon and N. California

We are sorry we ran out last weekend, and because we did (and disappointed so many of our customers) we have decided to repeat this special! We reserve the right to limit and CANNOT accept phone calls on this special item.

Actress in Need Of Back Payments

Los Angeles — (UP) — Actress Tina Purdom, 29, says she's penniless because her former husband, Edmund Purdom, has failed to pay her $30,000 in back alimony and child support payments even though he makes $100,000 a year.

Mrs. Purdom Wednesday told Superior Judge Elmer D. Doyle that she was forced to send her two children to England to live with her mother so she would be free to seek work.

Judge Doyle set a hearing on the matter for March 3. The actress and Purdom were divorced in 1955 and he was ordered to pay $1,500 a month to her and their children, Lilan 5, and Marina, 4.

FCC Rejects Bid By Oregon Radio

Washington — (UP) — The Federal Communications Commission Wednesday tentatively rejected a bid by Oregon Radio, Inc., for more time to construct station KSLM-TV on channel 3 at Salem, Ore.

The Commission granted the permit in September, 1953. It has granted extensions of construction time in the past.

In Wednesday's action, the Commission directed its staff to prepare a document denying Oregon Radio's application for an extension. It decided on the move after Oregon Radio declined to participate in the hearing on the matter.

The Dutch bought Manhattan from the Indians in 1624 for trinkets worth $24.

OPENING PROBE of alleged Negro vote discrimination, Dr. John A. Hannah (left), chairman of Civil Rights Commission, and Dean Robert G. Storey, vice chairman, answer questions at Montgomery, Ala., conference.

New York Residents Begin To Dig Out From Snow Drifts

By United Press International Residents of Oswego, N.Y., braved frigid temperatures today to dig out from under the city's crushing burden of snow.

A six-day storm which buried the city of 23,000 under a record six feet of snow and piled up drifts 20 feet high ended Wednesday, but numbing cold clung to the Northeast.

Damage at Oswego was estimated unofficially at $1 million, most of it to several large business and industrial buildings where roofs collapsed under the weight of the snow. The roofs of some homes and barns also caved in, but no one was hurt.

Temperatures Dropped The arctic air in the East plunged southward during the night, dropping temperatures an average of 10 to 17 degrees from eastern Texas through the Gulf Coast to northern Florida.

Weathermen warned of possible freezing rain and hazardous driving conditions today in the Carolinas.

Sub-zero readings retained their grip on the North from North Dakota through the northern Great Lakes, Pennsylvania and parts of New England.

A warming trend dented the nation's central section, boosting temperatures above the zero range and into the 20s from the eastern slopes of the Rockies to the mid-Mississippi and Ohio valleys.

Accidents blamed on the snow and cold claimed at least 25 lives since the week end.

26 Inches in Ohio Snow flurries persisted along the lee shores of the Great Lakes, dumping 26 inches of snow at Ashtabula, Ohio, on Lake Erie. The cold weather Wednesday also broke a water main and shut off the water supply to Cedarville, a community of 2,500 in western Ohio.

Snow continued to plague the hard-hit Erie, Pa., area when accumulations mounted to 23 to 30 inches. Up to five inches of new snow fell in the area Wednesday.

However, highway crews, aided by equipment from adjoining counties, cleared all main roads and most secondary roads in a round-the-clock battle against the drifts.

About 2,000 rural school students who got a day off Wednesday were scheduled to resume classes.

Friend, Quit Claim Deed Give Beck Big Day in Courtroom

Tacoma, Wash. — (UP) — A friend in need and a quit claim deed gave Dave Beck a magnanimous day in court Wednesday.

The friend was Albert W. Irvine. The deed was a document which gave Beck title to Irvine's house. The day was the 21st in Beck's trial on charges of income tax evasion.

Irvine was squirming under examination by U. S. attorneys who are attempting to prove Beck guilty of evading $240,000 in federal income taxes for the years 1950-1953. The questioning involved a matter of the deed to Irvine's house, situated in the Sheridan Beach "compound" which Beck maintains in Seattle.

Beck Guarantees Loan Irvine had built the house on a lot that Beck gave him. He had borrowed $14,000 from the bank on a GI loan, guaranteed by Beck. He had borrowed another $4,872 from the former Teamsters Union president to complete construction and landscaping of the residence. And he had given Beck a quit claim deed so that "in case of an emergency Beck could take care of his family."

The deed was assigned to Beck in 1949, and at one point Irvine brought up the subject of his possible recall into the service because of the Korean conflict.

But when Chief Deputy U. S. Attorney Jack S. Obenour pointed out that the Korean conflict didn't erupt until July, 1950, Irvine seemed to be really on the hook.

Assistant defense attorney William Dwyer then came back for more cross-examination.

"Would you like to have the quit claim deed back?" asked the youthful lawyer.

Gesture of Generosity "The way things look, I'd love to have it," Irvine replied.

From the defense table, Beck waved his hand in a gesture of generosity.

"Give it to him," he said with a chuckle.

Dwyer did, right then and there. "Thanks," said Irvine, blinking.

This particular bit of courtroom-conducted business means simply that Irvine now owns his own home but he still must pay the bank the balance of his loan and technically he still is in debt to Beck for the $4,872 he borrowed at the outset.

Four Appear in District Court

Four persons appeared in district court earlier this week.

Harry A. Helmick, 822 Cedar st., Medford, is scheduled for a further hearing on Dec. 15 in district court on charges of being a fugitive from justice. He is being held in the county jail on $500 bail.

Helmick was arrested by Ashland police on a warrant from Grayson county, Tex., authorities charging him with forgery.

William E. Mc Dermott, Klamath Falls, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, appeared in district court earlier this week and was bound over to the grand jury.

William Cheadle, Ruch, charged with grand larceny, waived right to a preliminary hearing, and was bound over to the grand jury. He is being held on $1,000 bail.

Francis Merle Wallace, 1975 Sunset dr., Medford, pleaded guilty in district court to giving checks with insufficient funds. He was sentenced to six months in the county jail and ordered to pay court costs.

The mayor of New York no longer presides over the city courts, but he still can sit on the bench as committing magistrate. The late Mayor of LaGuardia often did.

Swift Premium Brand—Small Size

PICNICS

Fully Cooked

39<sup>C</sup> lb.

Guaranteed Fresh

Crab Meat

Packed from Large Jumbo Crabs

Serve a Salad this week for sure!

$1<sup>29</sup> lb.

SWIFT PREMIUM BRAND BACON SQUARES SMALL — CELLO WRAPPED 29<sup>C</sup> lb. Meat prices in this ad good through Saturday, December 13, 1958

Sunny Valley — Arizona

GRAPEFRUIT

5 lb. bag 49<sup>C</sup>

Tartly sweet — makes weary appetites come alive!

U.S. No. 1 Klamath Russet

POTATOES

Hutchinson Gold Star Brand

Potatoes Make the Meal 10 lb. 39<sup>C</sup> plio bag

Sunkist Seedless — Small Size

NAVEL ORANGES

5 lb. bag 49<sup>C</sup>

A bargain in good eating and good health!

SHOP GROCETERIA PRODUCE

and give your budget a break! Variety — quality — fair prices!

No. 1 Hands

BANANAS

A Real Budget Item

13<sup>C</sup> lb.

Crisp Sweet Head Lettuce 15<sup>C</sup> lb

From the Sunny Southland Down Yuma Way

GROCETERIA BAKERY

Groceteria Pies, Cakes and Pastries Are Delicious!

Cranberry APPLE PIE 69 <sup>C</sup> ea.	Stollen COFFEE CAKE 79 <sup>C</sup> ea.	Groceteria FRUIT CAKES Loaded with Candied Fruits $1 <sup>19</sup> lb.	Danish PASTRIES Wide Selection 6 for 39 <sup>C</sup>	Groceteria CAKES $1 <sup>19</sup> ea. ½ Cake—63c
---	---	--	---	--

GROCETERIA FOUNTAIN LUNCH

Fried Chicken Dinner
Fried Chicken Dinner with French Fries or Mashed Potatoes, Vegetable, Soup, Salad, Roll and Butter, Coffee, Tea or Milk. $1

Swiss Steak Dinner
Tender Swiss Steak with Mashed Potatoes and Gravy, Soup, Salad, Vegetable, Bread and Butter, Coffee, Tea or Milk. $1

IT'S FUN TO EAT!

Rosarita MEXICAN FOOD

M-M-Marvelous flavor! Different! Exciting! Hours of preparation reduced to minutes! You just heat and enjoy.

Here's a hearty meal for hearty appetites — 2 large Enchiladas, Beef Tamales, Spanish Rice, Refried Beans with Cheese, Chilli con Carne. Genuine Mexican style. Food in minutes from freezer-to-oven-to-table!

energize your cakes and pies... buy White Satin SUGAR