

Earl Knight Walton League President

Earl H. Knight has been elected president for 1959 of the Jackson County chapter of the Izaak Walton League. He succeeds Tom Rickard. Knight has been a Medford resident since 1944 and his home is at 522 King st. He is a contract saw filer for Sierra Cascade Pine company. Mistletoe Wholesale company and Paul Workman Lumber company. He is active in the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Medford Rifle and Pistol club and has been active in Masonic work. He is an ardent fisherman. Other officers elected were Otis Swisher, secretary; Robert A. Huff, treasurer; Hank DeVoss, Paul Weiland, Dr. Lee Harlow, Richard and A. W. (Johnny) Webber, directors; Weiland, state director, and Glen H. Duysen, Gene V. Hunt, Stuart V. McQueen and Dr. Eugene V. Meyerding, vice presidents respectively, for woods, wildlife, waters and soil.

Meeting Monday
Swisher is a teacher and coach at Hedrick Junior High school. He is a singer in First Presbyterian church choir and likes to both fish and hunt. Huff teaches history at Medford High school and will be tennis coach this spring. He is an enthusiastic fisherman.

The chapter will have a regular meeting at 8 p.m., Monday, Dec. 15, at Girls Community club. Cole Rivers, game commission fish biologist and field agent, will discuss Rogue river basin matters, including lake management, Savage Rapids dam fish screen success, progress on fish farms and plans for fish passage at Illinois river falls. The five students were sponsored by the chapter at the Young Outdoor Oregonians state conference.

There will be a short resume of resolutions passed at the Waltonian Oregon division convention.

Chiefs Win, Dons Edged In Tussles

United Press International
How the mighty have fallen. The University of San Francisco Dons, who only lost 10 games in the past four seasons, dropped their third in a row for 1958 Wednesday night to Texas Christian University. The score was 58-56. The main difference between this year's green Don squad and the past USF powerhouses would appear to be on the boards. The Texans out-rebounded the San Franciscans 46-13 in the second half to overcome a five point half-time deficit. The score was tied 13 times and wasn't settled until Derrill Nipper potted a jump shot with 20 seconds to go. Nipper tallied 19 to lead the scoring parade while Ron Cox paced the losers with 16 markers.

Eagles Have Road Trip

Eagle Point - A road jaunt which will take the squad to two widely separated communities is billed for the Eagle Point High basketball team this week. The Eagles vie at Pleasant Hill on Friday evening and then go to Bend for a Saturday night brush with the tough Lava Bear club.

Tris Speaker Funeral Held

Hubbard, Tex. - (UPI) - Funeral services were held this morning for Tris Speaker, former outfielder for the Cleveland Indians and Boston Red Sox and member of the Baseball Hall of Fame. Burial was to be in Fairview Cemetery where Speaker's mother and father are buried. Speaker died of a heart attack Monday at the age of 70 while returning from a fishing trip on Lake Whitney near his native home here.

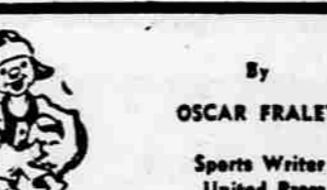

NC State Tutor Receives Token

Raleigh, N.C. - (UPI) - Some 600 North Carolina State students gave head football coach Earle Edwards a unique vote of confidence this week. The students marched on Edwards' home bearing a dummy dressed to represent the wolfpack coach. However, instead of hanging or burning the dummy, they presented it to Edwards as a token of appreciation. Edwards recently completed his fourth losing season in five years at N.C. State, but is considered one of the most popular coaches in the history of the school.

Games Slated By Junior Highs

Five Medford junior high basketball teams play games on Friday afternoon. McLoughlin Junior High school ninth, eighth and seventh graders each play Ashland foes on McLoughlin floors. Hedrick ninth and eighth go to South Grants Pass.

Sport Parade

New York - (UPI) - A hockey player bucking for second lieutenant who didn't win his gridiron letter as a sophomore was installed officially today as the year's outstanding football player.

He is, of course, cadet Pete Dawkins of West Point. His status precludes his acceptance of the numerous pro football "feelers" he has received.

But he holds the Heisman Memorial trophy as the captain and sparkplug of Army's undefeated football forces.

This is not to say that Dawkins, a rangy blond who packs 197 pounds on a six foot, two inch frame, may not eventually turn to pro football or some other form of athletic endeavor.

Can't Give Answer
"I have a three year commitment with the Army," says the embryo infantryman. "A yes or no decision would not be very realistic until I see what Army life is like."

Army rose to the heights this fall by employing a brand new offense designed by Coach Red Blaik and which became known as the "one-son end" offense. Dawkins revealed that, at first, the cadet squad was "quite dubious" about it. Blaik was enthusiastic.

"It was a case," said Dawkins, his blue eyes sparkling, "of poppa knows best."

Pete, who currently is performing as a defenseman on the West Point hockey team, chuckles too over the fact that as a sophomore at West Point he didn't win his football letter.

"It wasn't because I was injured, either," he said, "outside of my feelings being hurt."

He Was Pleased
There is no reason for such a reaction now, however. For as a Heisman winner, Dawkins moves into the class of Army gridiron immortals, which includes such greats as Chris Cagle, Monk Meyer, Ed Garbisch, Doc Blanchard and Glen Davis.

The presentation drew applause in the form of a telegram from another former Army football player, Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Dawkins accepted it all modestly. But then, he is used to acclaim at West Point he is the only cadet ever to be brigaded commander, president of his class, captain of the football team and a star man, meaning he is in the upper five per cent of his class academically.

Bob Cousy Paces Celts To Victory

United Press International
Bob Cousy is still pulling the close ones out for the Boston Celtics.

Cousy, hampered by injuries earlier in the season, calmly caged a pair of free throws in the closing seconds Wednesday night to help Boston to a 100-97 victory over Philadelphia and move the Celtics to within a half game of the Eastern Division lead in the National Basketball Association.

It was Cousy's 11 points in the second period that overcame a Warrior lead and gave the Celtics a 47-45 half-time edge. Philadelphia went on a rampage to score 16 consecutive points in the fourth period and pull up to within 98-95. But Cousy iced the game with his foul shots and some brilliant ball handling.

Cousy was the Celtics' high scorer with 23 points. Paul Arizin, who faltered after a fine first half topped the Warriors with 25.

Pistons Upset Hawks
In the opener of an NBA doubleheader at Boston, the Detroit Pistons upset the St. Louis Hawks 89-82. The Pistons, who finally went over the 500 mark at 12-11, opened a 64-47 lead going into the fourth period. St. Louis rallied as Al Ferrari dropped in four straight baskets, but the Detroit lead was too much to overcome.

Walt Dukes and Phil Jordan each scored 12 points for Detroit. Cliff Hagan dropped in 22 for St. Louis, which lost its second game in 11 starts since Ed McCauley took over the Hawks' reins.

Syracuse beat back a furious last quarter rally by the Cincinnati Royals to win 97-94 and bring the Nationals record up to 11-11. Larry Costello's two free throws with 12 seconds left thwarted a Royal comeback drive that had cut the Syracuse lead to 95-94. Costello and John Kerr paced the Nationals with 19 points each. Jack Twyman had 20 for Cincinnati.

Kentucky Favored To Grab 4th Fray

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
Three of last year's champions - Kentucky, West Virginia and Xavier of Ohio - put unbeaten records on the line tonight, and the odds-makers claim all should come out in "perfect" shape.

Kentucky's NCAA champs are solid favorites to make their record 4-0 in a game against Southern Methodist at Lexington. The third-ranked Wildcats already licked Florida State, Temple and Duke.

West Virginia's defending national titleists will be shooting for their fifth straight victory when they take on a Duke team which hasn't won a game yet. Currently ranked seventh, the Mountaineers already have hurdled Furman, VMI, Penn State and The Citadel.

Memphis State Wins
Memphis State University reeled off its third victory without a defeat by tumbling Alabama, 59-55, Wednesday night. Substitute guard Gene Wilfong sparked a late second-half drive that carried Memphis State to victory.

Center Wilson Eison hit for 32 points to lead Purdue to an 89-71 win over DePaul of Chicago. Eison scored 19 points in the second half and was assisted by guard Willy Merriweather, who totaled 22 points.

Maryland overcame an early lead by Virginia to score its first triumph of the season, 63-56. Jerry Bechtel was high man for Maryland with 13 points while Jay McKenzie of Virginia was individual high scorer with 19.

Utah State bottled up a hot-shooting West Texas State team, 91-61, as center Bob Ipson of the winners collecting 25 points, and Scranton defeated Seton Hall for the first time in 20 years, 61-58. Dayton registered its fourth victory without a setback by nipping Miami of Ohio, 54-50.

Princeton crushed Temple, 90-54 with guard Jim Brangan scoring 32 points for the Tigers.

Wheaton Choice To Gain Small School Cage Toga

By EARL WRIGHT
New York-(UPI)-The Wheaton (Ill.) Crusaders, beaten in only three of their last 55 basketball games, were picked today by the United Press International Board of Coaches as national 1958-59 season champions.

Eleven of the coaches who will rate the nation's small college teams weekly for UPI made Wheaton their No. 1 pick to finish on top. Wheaton finished second to Steubenville (Ohio) in the final 1957-58 ratings after winning 24 of 25 regular season games.

Evanville (Ind.) which compiled a 23-4 record last season, was placed second in the coaches' pre-season sizeup. Tennessee A&I, winner of the NAIA tournament the past two seasons, was close behind in third place. Western Illinois, which bowed to Tennessee A&I in the NAIA final last March, was fourth.

South Dakota Seventh
Southwest Missouri State was fifth and Steubenville was sixth. South Dakota, which won the NCAA college division crown last March by defeating St. Michael's (Vt.) in the final, was seventh. St. Michael's, Texas Southern and West Virginia Tech completed the top 10 in that order.

Louisiana Tech headed the second 10 group. Grambling (La.), Pacific Lutheran, Fresno State, Kentucky Wesleyan, Idaho State, Hope (Mich.), Mississippi Southern, Chap.(Calif.) and McNeese (La.) completed the first 20 in that order.

Tennessee A&I received seven first-place votes while Evansville and Steubenville each received five. Western Illinois received four and South Dakota two. Southwest Missouri, Pacific Lutheran, Fresno State, Idaho State, Mississippi Southern, Chapman and Northwestern (La.) each received one first-place vote.

The rating board will begin rating the teams next week. New York-(UPI)-The United Press International 1958-59 preseason small-college basketball ratings (first place votes in parentheses):

Team	Points
1. Wheaton (Ill.)	320
2. Evansville (Ind.)	222
3. Tennessee A&I	219
4. Western Illinois	179
5. Southwest (Mo.) St.	129
6. Steubenville (Ohio)	117
7. South Dakota	115
8. St. Michael's (Vt.)	109
9. Texas Southern	71
10. West Virginia Tech	61
Second 10 teams--11. Louisiana Tech. 54; 12. Grambling (La.) 50; 13. Pacific Lutheran (1); 14; 14. Western Illinois (1); 15; 15. Fresno State (1); 16. Kentucky Wesleyan, 37 each; 16. Idaho State (1); 36; 17. Hope (Mich.), 31; 18. Mississippi Southern (1); 25; 19 (tie), Chapman (Calif.) (1) and McNeese (La.) 24 each.
