Methodist Church Scene Of Grey-Isaacs Ceremony

Miss Marcia Sue Isaacs became the bride of Donald Joseph Gray in a double ring ceremony, held Wednesday, November 26 in the First Methodist Church, Medford. Dr. George Roseberry officiated.

Mrs. Gray is the daughter of Mrs. Edward L. Isaacs, 552 Haven street and the late Mr. Isaacs. Mr. Gray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gray, 614 Plum street, Medford.

For her wedding the bride chose a waltz length gown of white chantilly lace with a white satin cummerbund. She wore an elbow length veil and carried a cascade of baby pink rosebuds centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Harry Hopkins, Yreka, Calif., was matron of honor. She wore an ice blue brocade dress and carried a cascade of pink carnations. Kenneth Greiss was best man.

Miss Shirley Isaacs, sister of the bride and Jerry Bevis, cousin of the bridegroom, were candlelighters.

Everette Hagebusch, Fortuna, Calif., gave his niece in marriage.

Ushers were Harry Hopkins of Yreka, Calif., Larry Anderson and Gary Picard, Medford.

Mrs. Gregory Mac Douglass was soloist and Mrs. Leslie Boardman played the organ.

A reception was held in the church following the ceremony, with Miss Ann Isaacs, sister of the bride, in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Jack Dennis, Medford, and Miss Karen Eberius, Seattle, Wash., poured punch. Mrs. Everette Hagebusch, Fortuna, and Mrs. Eugene Eberius, Seattle, cut and served the wedding cake.

The Misses Judy Benge and Sharon Wymore took care of the gifts.

About 200 guests attended. The couple made a short wedding trip to Eugene, and will be home at 211 Vancouver avenue.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Gray attended Medford schools, and Mr. Gray is now a student at Southern Oregon college, Ashland. Mrs. Gray is a dance instructor in Yreka, Ft. Jones and Etna, Calif.

Hostess Gives Tea Saturday; Couple to Leave

Mrs. E. A. Littrell was hostess for a holiday tea yesterday afternoon at the Littrell home on Greenway circle. The event honored women employees of Mr. Littrell's firm, and the wives of men employees. Guests were from Medford, Grants Pass and Brookings, Ore., and numbered about 35.

Assisting Mrs. Littrell were Mrs. Wesley Coleman, Mrs. Floyd Lewis, Mrs. Edmund Simmons, Mrs. William Littrell, Mrs. Harold Littrell and Mr. Littrell's granddaughter, Kathy Stacy.

The decorations included a Christmas tree trimmed entirely with pink ornaments, and the tea table was decorated with pink angels.

Thursday night the Littrells will be hosts for an annual family dinner and Christmas party at home. Saturday they will leave for Petaluma, Calif., to spend Christmas with Mrs. Littrell's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Brainerd and two daughters, Jan and Lyn. Later the couple will travel in Arizona, California and Mexico for several weeks.

During the Littrell's absence, Mrs. L. L. Sanders will occupy their home.

Holiday Dinners Given by Couples

Holiday time is a favorite season for parties, and a number are on the calendar in Medford.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Vilas and Mr. and Mrs. Gain Robinsons were hosts for a dinner. The event was at the Vilas home on Vilas road.

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Marris Gibbons invited a small group of guests to their home on Old Military road for a dinner. The previous Saturday, December 6, the Gibbons entertained a larger group for dinner, the list numbering 20.

Medford Couple Married in Reno

Mrs. Gwendolyn Peterson and John T. Mardon, both Medford, were married November 30 in Park chapel, Reno, Nev. The Rev. Raymond Walters officiated.

The couple is living at 310 West Jackson boulevard, the bride's home. She has been a resident of Medford for the past 18 years. Mr. Mardon has made his home at 713 Narrengan street.

Among the guests attending the annual Military Ball December 6 at Rogue Valley Country club were Colonel Charles E. Stafford, retired officer of the United States Army, and Mrs. Stafford, 1914 Westerlund drive. The annual ball provides officers with a rare opportunity to wear full dress uniform. The ball is sponsored by Rogue Valley chapter, Reserve Officers' association.

Medford Woman Honored At Parties; Leaves Friday

Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini, who left Medford Friday for Lexington, N.C., where she will make her home, was honored at a number of parties before her departure. Mrs. D'Albini, widely known for her civic and club activities in Medford and Jackson county, had made her home at 308 North Ivy street.

Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, gave a farewell tea and reception for Mrs. D'Albini December 1 at the home of Mrs. Ray K. Bailey, 135 North Holly street. Mrs. D'Albini is a long-time member of the DAR and for more than 30 years conducted citizenship in the chapter's name for the foreign born of Jackson county.

Last Sunday members of Eastwood Baptist church, of which Mrs. D'Albini was a member, gave a farewell party in her honor. She was presented a sum of money with which to buy dishes for her new home in North Carolina. Another party for Mrs. D'Albini was given by Mrs. George Canode and Mrs. Rawles Moore at the former's home on Crown avenue. Guests were women who had formerly belonged to an organization known as the Dixie club.

Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. George R. Carter and Mrs. Willis A. Scott, Applegate, were hostesses for a luncheon which honored Mrs. D'Albini. The luncheon was held at Mrs. Carter's home on East Jackson boulevard. Guests were Mrs. Paul B. Rynning, Mrs. Anton A. Laumann, Mrs. Smith E. Trent, Mrs. Michael C. Loftus, Mrs. Samuel D. Earhart, Mrs. Ernest J. Smith and Mrs. Bren H. Starcher.

Mrs. D'Albini went from Medford to Danville, Calif., where she planned to make a brief visit with her daughter, Mrs. Henry J. Mondot. Monday she will leave by plane for Lexington where she will make her home at 527 East Center street, adjacent to the home of her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Briggs.

A tea was given for Miss Gray in late November by Mrs. Lewis Dusenberry, Trail, in order that she might meet family members. Also attending the tea was Miss Gray's mother, Mrs. Edward Gray and sister Mrs. Carl Christian from Eagle Point.

Lady Elks Plan Luncheon, Cards

Lady Elks will meet Tuesday, November 16, at 1 p.m. at the Elks Temple party lounge for a dessert luncheon and afternoon of cards.

Mrs. G. N. Gitzen, Mrs. Frank Little and Mrs. Alva Perkins will be hostesses. Members are to take their donations for the Christmas basket.

All wives and widows of Elks are invited to attend.

Sandra Jean Farlow

Sandra Farlow, Richard Schauble Plan June Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Farlow, 526 West Tenth street, Medford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Jean to Richard Brian Schauble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schauble, Shady Cove.

Miss Farlow is employed by F. W. Woolworths and Mr. Schauble by the Steve Wilson Logging company. Both are 1958 graduates of Eagle Point High school. A June wedding is planned.

Election Held by Cow Belles

Mrs. Donald Nichols was reelected president of the Jackson County Cow Belles Thursday at a meeting at the Central Point Grange held in conjunction with the annual stockmen's meeting and dinner.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Dora Krouse, vice-president, and Mrs. Eddie Meeker, secretary-treasurer. Retiring officers, Mrs. John Bohmert and Mrs. Richard Hein, will serve on the executive committee.

A progress report was given on the beef cooking school to be held in January. The school will be open to everyone and will feature economy cuts of beef. Prizes will be given.

The new Father of the Year applications were discussed and found to be much more satisfactory than in previous years. They will be passed out to youth groups in the county sometime after Christmas.

After the meeting and dinner, the Cow Belles attended the Stockmen's meeting where Mrs. Nichols reported the year's activities for beef promotion.

Mr. Hamilton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harper K. Hamilton, 114 Highland drive.

The family will remain in the valley until later this month and plan to attend many holiday activities. They will also be honored at several parties. They plan to visit other relatives in the state prior to returning to Alaska.

Members of Wednesday Study club will meet at 1 p.m. Wednesday, December 17, in Girls' Community club for dessert luncheon. A Christmas program and a gift exchange are planned.
