Traditional Party Planned by Court Thursday Evening

Roxy Ann court, Order of Amaranth, will hold the monthly meeting and a Christmas party Thursday, December 18, at 8 p.m. in Medford Masonic temple. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. by Reames Social club, assisted by members of Bethel 55, International Order of Job's Daughters.

Mrs. Marshall Day, royal matron, and Fred Purdin, patron, extend an invitation to all members, their husbands and wives, to attend the event.

Annual Parties Announced By Kiwanis, DAR, Others

Christmas parties, large and small, fill the social calendar this week. In the spirit of the season, lodges, clubs and service groups are assembling food, clothing and toys which will be distributed to less fortunate families just before Christmas day. Some groups will give annual parties for those confined to convalescent homes.

Wives will be guests of Kiwanis club members at their noon luncheon on Wednesday, December 17, at Rogue Valley Country club. The luncheon for the wives is an annual event. Prior to this year it was associated with a Kiwanian Dames doll project.

This year members of the club are asked to bring gifts or $1.50 each for purchase of Christmas gifts for children who are in classes for the physically handicapped in Medford schools.

Kiwanians will give their annual party for residents of the county farm home on Thursday evening, December 18.

Christmas parties will be held Monday, December 15, by two Wesleyan Service guilds of the First Methodist church.

At 7:30 p.m. the Ruth Esther group will meet in Meeker Memorial chapel with Mrs. George G. Roseberry in charge of the devotions.

The party will be held in the social rooms with Mrs. G. L. Watson and Mrs. S. H. Gay in charge. Instead of the usual gift exchange, members are asked to take an unwrapped gift for a child and a jar or can of food to be used in a basket for the needy.

Hostesses will be Mrs. L. A. White, Miss June Wheaton, Mrs. G. P. Renaker, and Mrs. Ellen Lynner.

Susannah unit will meet at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Richard Stratton, 454 Grand avenue, Central Point.

Mrs. Carl G. Burk will be in charge of the program and will present the gifts to be sent to two girls in Fairview home, Salem. Members are to take gifts for an exchange within the group.

A Christmas party will be given by Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at the home of Mrs. T. J. Gifford, 419 South Oakdale avenue, Saturday, December 20. The Christmas story will be given by Mrs. E. G. Harding, and seasonal music is planned. Members are to take a small gift for exchange.

Assisting Mrs. Gifford will be Mrs. E. M. Wilson, Mrs. Guy Garrett and Miss Florence Gifford.

Scottish Rite Women's club will hold the annual Christmas party for all Scottish Rite Masons and their guests Monday, December 15, at 6:30 p.m. at the Masonic temple.

Dinner will be served followed by dancing and entertainment. A visit by "Saint Nick" is also planned for the evening.

Olive Rebekah lodge will meet Monday, December 15, at the Odd Fellows hall at 8 p.m. for a gift exchange and Christmas program.

Refreshment committee includes Mrs. William Roberts, chairman, Mrs. Flora Freeman, Mrs. Edith Baker, and Mrs. Riley Applegate.

Reames Social Club To Hold Luncheon

Reames Social club will hold the monthly luncheon at 12 o'clock Wednesday, December 17, at Medford Masonic hall.

Members having birthdays in October, November and December will be honored.

Mrs. Jennie Creager is chairman of the luncheon committee.

A business meeting will be followed by an afternoon of cards.

All Eastern Star members are welcome to attend.
