

Trial of Newman Continued Again

The trial of Roger Newman, Merlin, Ore., on charges of obtaining money under false pretenses, has been continued to Friday, Dec. 19 when he is directed to appear in district court with or without an attorney.

Newman's case was continued previously to Dec. 5 to allow him to get an attorney and again to Dec. 12 for the same reason.

Newman is charged with giving a false check to the Triangle Food Market in Phoenix on Sept. 20.

Friday, District Court Judge James M. Main suspended the jail sentence of Levi Anson Lewis, general delivery, Medford, on the condition that he commit himself to the state hospital. He was sentenced to three months in the county jail on Nov. 28 on charges of trespassing to real property. He pleaded guilty to kicking out a glass window in Stan's Shoe Repair shop at 137 North Central ave. on Nov. 25.
