

Marilyn Monroe Has Miscarriage; Condition Good

New York—UPI—Tragedy has come once more into the life of actress Marilyn Monroe. For the second time in 15 months, she has suffered a miscarriage.

The actress' press agent, who revealed Wednesday night that the miscarriage occurred earlier this week, said that Miss Monroe was in good physical condition but was "terribly depressed."

The blonde actress, who inherited the glamour throne once held by such Hollywood beauty queens as Jean Harlow, Betty Grable, and Rita Hayworth, was under a doctor's care at her Manhattan home today.

It was known that since her marriage June 29, 1936, to playwright Arthur Miller, Miss Monroe's fondest wish has been for a child. Two previous marriages were childless.

A year ago last summer, she was rushed to a Manhattan hospital from the Millers' summer home at East Hampton, on Long Island, because of complications that developed during early stages of pregnancy.

Doctors were forced to operate and she lost the child. For months the actress was despondent and friends said she couldn't bear to talk about the tragedy.

It was while Miss Monroe was in Hollywood filming her latest movie, "Some Like It Hot," that it was revealed she was again pregnant. The actress was off the set often because of illness and the completion of the picture was delayed several weeks.

Her agent said the baby was lost "not quite in the third month" of Miss Monroe's pregnancy.

Dennis Crosby Adopts Young Boy

Los Angeles—UPI—Dennis Crosby, 24, one of crooner Bing Crosby's sons, is the new father of a 7-year-old boy today—and hopes to become the father of a baby girl early next year.

Crosby Wednesday formally adopted Franz Nicholas Gregory Von Douglas-Iltu, son of his show-girl wife by a previous marriage.

This will make our marriage complete and we hope Santa Claus will bring us a little girl," Pat Sheenan, Crosby's wife, said.

Crosby and the former Las Vegas showgirl were married May 4 and she is now expecting a child.
