

Syracuse Orange Depend On Balanced Grid Squad

(This is the fourth of 10 dispatches on the football teams playing in the post-season bowl games.)

By ANDY PURCELL
Syracuse, N. Y. —(UP)—The last time Syracuse played in a bowl game, a power runner named Jim Brown put on a superb one-man show, scoring 21 points in a 28-27 losing cause against Texas Christian.

It was generally conceded the Syracuse team which played in the Cotton Bowl in 1957 was pretty much a one-man array.

Not so the Syracuse Orangemen who meet mighty Oklahoma Jan. 1 in the Orange Bowl at Miami.

There is no one in sight with near the all-around talent of big Jim Brown, now the scourge of the National Football League. The present Syracuse team depends instead on a balanced squad.

But an unheralded sophomore from the Cotton Bowl club should play a vital attack. He is Chuck Zimmerman, senior quarterback and captain of the Orange.

Plays Consistent Ball
Zimmerman, the only regular from the '56 club, will have a totally different role Jan. 1, 1959, than he did three years ago when he threw but three passes—one for a touchdown—and the rest of the time looked for Brown.

While not a spectacular performer, Zimmerman played consistently good football this season and earned a berth on the United Press International All-East team.

Coach Ben Schwartzwalder says: "Zimmerman is the guy who makes us tick. For most of the season he was the most under rated quarterback in the East, probably because he fits so well into our attack you hardly know he's there." Zimmerman was "there" long enough to post a .605 passing completion mark, a school record. He hit on 46 of 78 attempts, good for 645 yards and seven touchdowns. He carried for nine others to lead the team in scoring. The Syracuse native, an honor student in accounting, threw 65 passes before he had one intercepted.

Zimmerman had ample backfield help from Gerhard Schwedes, a German-born junior who first saw a football when he was 10 years old. That was one year before his family moved to Whitehouse, N.J. Tom Stephens, a senior from Mohawk, N. Y., and sophomore Art Baker, Ed Keiffer and Mark Weber showed well during the season.

Syracuse, in building its 8-1 regular-season mark, set a school record by averaging 29.3 points per game. The Orange won four games by lopsided shutouts, took squeakers from Penn State, Pittsburgh and West Virginia, beat Boston College by a touchdown and lost 14-13 to Holy Cross.

In the five close ball games, Syracuse suffered from faulty pass defense.

Throughout the season, Syracuse effectively used the punt as an offensive weapon. Two sophomores, Ed Keiffer and Tom Gilburg, averaged over 40 yards per try on 37 punts. Keiffer 40.9 and Gilburg 39.4 finished 1-2 in the east in that department.

Nearly three-quarters of Finland's 130,000 square mile is covered by forests.

Indian Quarterback Leads Northeastern Oklahoma Win

St. Petersburg, Fla. —(UP)—Quarterback Johnnie Allen, a full-blooded Indian, led his Northeastern Oklahoma State Redmen to a 19-13 victory over Arizona State in the holiday bowl Saturday to win the NAAIA football championship.

Allen, a Sac-and-Fox Indian from Tahlequah, Okla., passed for one touchdown—and sneaked for another as the Oklahoma State Redmen overpowered the speedy Flagstaff team.

The Redmen, whose offense was not as deceptive as Flagstaff's tricky "fly-T" formation, scored in the first, third and fourth periods to claim the NAAIA championship.

King's Canasta Nabs Tanforan Handicap

San Bruno, Calif. —(UP)—King's Canasta, a three-year-old colt, won a blanket finish from Gaelic Gold and Nice Guy to annex the $25,000 Tanforan handicap Saturday.

Given a superb come-from-behind ride by jockey Alex Maese, King's Canasta came through at the wire to wind up a long stretch duel between Gaelic Gold and Nice Guy.

The winner's margin was a nose over Gaelic Gold, with Nice Guy a half length back.

The winner, packing 122 pounds, went the mile and one-eighth in a mediocre 1:49 4/5.

King's Canasta was coupled with Ordained as an entry and the duo was bet down to even money favorites. The payoff was $4, $2.60 and $2.20.

Gaelic Gold paid $4.80 and $3.00, and Nice Guy, another three-year old and winner of the California derby last week, paid $2.80.

"My colt ran a perfect race," said Maese. "I didn't get into any trouble. I wasn't able to save any ground and had to circle horses to the turn at the stretch. I had to ride him all out to get him to the wire in front."

Heavy Booming Heard
When the results of the photo finish were posted on the tote board, there was heavy booming from the crowd of 13,978, many of whom apparently had thought Gaelic Gold the winner.

King's Canasta's previous biggest win was the St. Louis handicap July 12 at Cakhkia Downs in East St. Louis.

The victory was his fifth in 21 starts and brought his winnings for one year to $45,685. The win Saturday was worth $15,775.

King's Canasta is owned by the Double-F stable of Colorado Springs, Colo.

Gaelic Gold took the early lead and held it coming into the stretch. Most of the way, Barbarian was second and Sam's Shipahoy third, with King's Canasta far back in the pack of 12 starters.

Then Maese made his bid coming around the outside of the field, getting up just at the wire.

The race was the closing day feature of Tanforan, which drew 438,566 paid attendance for the 45-day meeting. From here, the thoroughbreds move on to Santa Anita for the opening of the rich Southland meeting after Christmas.

Big Drills Held by Iowa, Bears

Berkeley, Calif. —(UP)—The University of California Bears held their heaviest pre-Rose Bowl practice to date Saturday, a 90-minute scrimmage 1/2 mile in which the Blues defeated the Whites 32-6.

The Blues were the first and second stringers, the Whites were the third and fourth teams. Quarterback Joe Kapp scored twice, both times on keeper plays inside tackle, from 22 and 17 yards out.

Coach Pete Elliott said afterwards his team's offense was "much better than defense."

"We're just beginning to really develop," Elliott said. He said fumbles were causing some trouble, and we'll have to stop that."

The squad will practice Monday morning. A 46-man team will make the trip to Pasadena. So far no injuries have cropped up in practice.

Pasadena, Calif. —(UP)—The University of Iowa football team scrimmaged Saturday the second day in a row as Coach Forest Evashevski stepped up drills for the Hawkeyes New Year's Rose Bowl battle with California.

The first three teams scrimmaged both on offense and defense, with the fourth squad—the scout team—providing the opposition. Iowa appeared particularly sharp on the ground and all-American Quarterback Duncan struck accurately with his passes.

On defense the first three clubs held the "scout team" with Tom Moore impersonating Cal's star Joe Kapp, to negligible gains. On offense, in addition to Duncan's pinpoint passing, Fullback John Nocera and Halfback Bob Jeter each ripped off several long gains. Nocera ran over tackle for nearly 15 yards for his longest gain, while Jeter swept end for more than 15 yards for his longest gain.

Huskies Nip Iowa 81-68 In 2nd Game

Iowa City, Iowa —(UP)—Washington slipped ahead of Iowa midway in the first half Saturday night and went on from there to pile up an 81-68 win in the second game of an Iowa-hosted double header.

In the opener, California guard Danny Fitzpatrick dropped in 19 to lead the Golden Bears to a 68-53 victory over Wisconsin.

Iowa took an early lead, running it up to 18-13 before Washington bounced back. The winning Huskies had a 44-34 halftime edge.

Iowa's Dave Gunther managed to drop in 35 points before fouling out in the final 77 seconds. Top Washington scorer was center Doug Smart, who accounted for 33. Huskie forward Bruno Boin had 17.

California and Wisconsin fought on even terms for the game's first 10 minutes, the score being tied five times. California then pulled ahead, 17-15, and never again fell behind. The winning Golden Bears, who shot .500 for the night, led at the half, 30-26.

Friday night, California beat Iowa, 71-52, and Washington beat Wisconsin, 62-48, at Madison, Wis.

California's 6-10 center, Darrall Imhoff, who scored 27 against Iowa, was held to 13 by the Badgers. Top scorer for Wisconsin was 6-6 guard Brian Kulas, who accounted for 14.

It was California's fifth win against a lone defeat, at the hands of Kansas State, and Wisconsin's fifth loss against two wins.

Pathologist Doubts Fist Caused Death

Salem —(UP)—Dr. William Lidbeck, Salem pathologist, told a coroner's jury here Friday investigating the death of a boy at McLaren School for Boys at Woodburn that the victim died of a blow on the head.

Dr. Lidbeck said, however, that he doubted that the injury could have been caused by a fist.

William Edward James, 16, an inmate at the boy's school, died Thursday about 11 hours after a fight with another youth, Donald Paul Long of Toledo.

Further hearings by the jury are scheduled at Grover cottage at MacLaren, the scene of the fight.

Indiana Hoosiers Nudge Oregon State Quint 57-53

Corvallis —(UP)—The Indiana Hoosiers made good a second half rally Friday night after a 30-29 halftime deficit to defeat the Oregon State Beavers, 57-53, in a nip-and-tuck intercollegiate basketball contest. The game was tied 13 times, seven of them in the first half.

The Beavers increased their advantage after halftime to seven points but Indiana fired back with about six minutes to go. Oregon State tied it up at 51-51 but the Hoosiers promptly dropped in two more field goals.

With five seconds remaining, Indiana guard Herbert Lee ended the scoring with two free throws.

Walter Bellamy, 6-10 Hoosier sophomore center, and Oregon State's Steve Flynn tied for scoring honors with 17 points each.

Indiana made 22 field goals in 69 attempts and for the Beavers it was 19 for 74. The Hoosiers had 66 rebounds and Oregon State had 59.

Orders Title Be Defended

Hagerstown, Ind. —(UP)—The National Boxing Association Saturday ordered Sugar Ray Robinson, world middleweight boxing champion, to make plans before Jan. 11 for a defense of his title.

Arch Hindman, NBA executive secretary, informed Robinson by letter of the NBA ultimatum calling for a defense of the crown he won last March 25 from Carmen Basilio.

Robinson has not fought a title match since that time. NBA regulations require a champion to defend his title at least once every six months.

Fire Destroys The Dalles Store

The Dalles —(UP)—Red's Trading Post, about two miles west of here, was destroyed by fire Friday as firemen stood helplessly by because of a lack of water.

Frank R. Stovall, owner of the store, estimated loss at $65,000. He said he had only partial insurance on the building and contents.

The wood and corrugated metal structure, within a block of the big Harvey Aluminum plant here, was filled with used furniture, mattresses, tools and rifle and shotgun shells. Shells were heard exploding inside the building as flames shot 50 feet into the air.

Stovall said the flames apparently spread from a trash barrel stove in the rear of the store.

An aluminum container for air cargo weighs only 230 pounds, but carries a load of 5,000 pounds.
