

LATE SHOW
Stanley, N.D. — (UPI) — Mrs. Mike Hovda was on the verge of calling police to help locate her missing eight-year-old son one night when she decided to look one more place. At her request, the manager of the local movie house unlocked the door and found the boy sound asleep in his seat in the darkened theater.

California's seacoast is the second longest in the United States.

OUT TO LUNCH
Ithica, N.Y. — (UPI) — Prof. John M. Anderson, a Cornell University zoologist, is using a $12,800 National Science Foundation grant to find out more about the stomach of a starfish. He is studying in detail the starfish method of sliding its stomach out of its mouth and surrounding food with a baglike structure which is then retracted. Anderson describes the starfish as an "animal which sends its stomach out for dinner."

SIOUX TAKES A BROTHER
Cannonball, Ill. — (UPI) — The tribal drums of the Sioux Indian tribe boomed again this fall to celebrate the adoption of a white man into the Sioux nation. Attorney Marvin Sonosky of Washington, D.C., was made a Sioux blood brother in ceremonies conducted by the tribe's 75-year-old chief, Basil Two-Bears. Sonosky was honored for his work in obtaining Congressional passage of legislation that resulted in a $12,500,000 grant to the Sioux.
