

Brennan Given Pink Slip by Notre Dame; Kuharich Gets Job

South Bend, Ind.—(UPI)—Joe Kuharich, head coach of the Washington Redskins of the National Football league and former Notre Dame guard, today was named football coach at Notre Dame, succeeding Terry Brennan.

Kuharich's appointment was announced by the Rev. Edmund P. Joyce, Notre Dame executive vice president and chairman of the faculty board in control of athletics.

Father Joyce said that Kuharich has been given a four-year contract.

Since 1934, Kuharich has been coach of the Washington Redskins.

The new Notre Dame mentor, who is a native of South Bend, actually began his coaching career at Notre Dame in 1938, the year of his graduation, when he served as an assistant freshman coach while taking graduate studies.

South Bend, Ind.—(UPI)—Natre Dame's Terry Brennan, a major college football coach at 25 and Coach of the Year at 27, was out of a job at 30 today.

Notre Dame announced Brennan's firing Sunday night.

Brennan first received his pink slip in a just-before-Christmas meeting of the university's faculty board in control of athletics. He said the board called him in "a couple of days ago" and told him he was through.

"I had no indication this was going to happen," Brennan said. "All they said was they were going to change the coaches. They didn't say they weren't satisfied and there wasn't any discussion."

Shrine Grid Stars Open Practices

San Francisco—(UPI)—The East and West Shrine football teams today buckled down to a week of hard work in preparation for the 33rd version of the annual football classic in Kezar Stadium next Saturday.

The 48 players-top grid-ders from the 48 states-arrived Sunday and lost no time in getting started under East Coach Duffy Daugherty of Michigan State and West Coast Jack Curtis of Stanford.

The teams performed mostly for photographers this morning but were to start heavy work this afternoon after the Shrine luncheon in San Mateo. The East team is camped at Santa Clara university and the West squad at Cur-tice's home base of Stanford.

The East team is expected to concentrate on a ground game, with such running backs as Nick Pietrosante of Notre Dame, Wray Carlton of Duke, and Don Clark of Ohio State. Daugherty is assisted by Milt Bruhn of Wisconsin and John Michelosen of Pitt.

Curtice, assisted by Len Casanova of Oregon and Bill Meek of Southern Methodist, may bank on an aerial offense to defeat the Easterners. He has Washington State's Bobby Newman and Utah's Lee Grosscup, two of the nation's most dangerous passers, among his backs.

SE Suspension Follows Earlier OSAA Warning

Portland—(UPI)—Suspension of South Eugene High school from the Oregon School Activities association on Saturday was the first such action in eight years against a large school by the group's board of control.

The OSAA removed South Eugene from all interschool competition in sports and other activities. Suspension could remain in effect for one year but will be reviewed by the board on Jan. 15.

Board decision resulted from a protest by Albany superintendent of schools John Cox. The protest stemmed from the painting of an Albany school bus with obscene language last Tuesday.

Last OSAA suspension of an A-1 school was ruled against Corvallis in 1930 when Albany was victim of a painting incident.

In November the OSAA had issued a warning to South Eugene in regard to "un-sportsmanlike conduct" of some of its students during the 1938 football season. Dean Mickelwait, principal of South Eugene, said he had warned students earlier about the possibility of a loss of privileges if further incidents occurred.

Larry Hiron, South Eugene student body president, said he "felt very bad" about the suspension but added he believed the shock of the ban would bring an improvement in conduct of the guilty students and that South Eugene would "soon be back in the association's good graces."

Landry Praised For Defensive Preparations

New York—(UPI)—Texas Tom Landry really did the job up brown and all that the triumphant New York Giants asked today was that he do an encore against the Baltimore Colts next week.

From Head Coach Jim Lee Howell on down to the water boy, the Giants all credited Sunday's 10-0 playoff victory over the Cleveland Browns to Landry, a tall silent technical-minded ex-halfback who now serves as New York's defensive coach.

"I've never seen a team play a better defensive," Howell said, "and Tom Landry was the key to the whole thing."

OSC Beavers Nudge Indiana Hoopsters

Corvallis—(UPI)—Oregon State's Beavers grabbed a 73-69 inter-sectional basketball victory from the Indiana Saturday night with four free throws in the final 10 seconds to even a two-game series between the two squads.

The Beavers were behind 28-24 at halftime and trailed most of the second half before they tied it at 63-63 with four minutes and 15 seconds remaining.

The lead changed hands five times after that and with 18 seconds left the score was knotted at 69-69. Then Roy Critzer was fouled by Indiana's Gene Flowers, and Critzer made the free throw. With five seconds left a technical foul was called on Indiana coach Branch McCracken and Critzer hit the free shot to make the score 71-69.

Hoopster guard Allen Schlegelmich fouled OSC's Jim Woodland with two seconds remaining and Woodland sunk

Ashburn's Batting Title In NL Becomes Official

New York—(UPI)—Let everyone else shoot for homers, Richie Ashburn is going to stay with those singles that brought him his second National league batting crown.

Even though he hit only two homers and drove in 33 runs this year, the fleet, left-handed hitting Phillies' outfielder compiled a .350 average that was good enough to win him his second batting title in four seasons, according to official figures released here.

Ashburn, who won his first crown in 1955 with a .338 mark, practically singled his way to the championship this year. He led the league in hits with 215 and of that total, 176 were singles.

At that, the 32-year-old Ashburn had to finish with a rush to gain the title over Willie Mays of the Giants, who was runnerup with a .347 average.

Mays scored the most runs in the circuit, 121, and led in stolen bases for the third successive year with a total of 31.

Ernie Banks of the Cubs, named the league's Most Valuable Player, was off by himself in the power department. He was high man with 129 runs batted in; 47 homers; and 379 total bases.

Frank Thomas of the Pirates, with 109 RBI's was the only other NL player to drive in 100 or more runs. Harry Anderson of the Phils totaled 97; Mays and rookie Orlando Cepeda of the Giants, 96 apiece, and Hank Aaron of the Braves, 95.

Stan Musial of the Cardinals, the 1957 batting champ, finished third to Ashburn and Mays this year with a .337 average. Aaron was fourth with .326; Skinner of the Pirates with .231 and Banks sixth with .313.

second half to pace the Beards to their triumph.

Fourth-ranked North Carolina cut down Kansas, 66-63, and fifth-ranked Michigan State rolled to an 80-55 victory over Nebraska in a final tune-up for the Dixie classic tournament.

Sophomore Davy Miller, who hadn't scored a point previously, netted seven points in an overtime period to lead Oklahoma State to a 63-59 win over Ohio State in the consolation game of the Kentucky Invitational tournament, while Natre Dame ended a four-game losing streak by beating Louisville, 61-53, in the consolation game of the Blue Grass Festival.

Archie Carroll scored 20 points in leading Texas A&M to a 74-64 victory over Wyoming in the Birmingham Classic consolation contest.

The University of Miami, opened in 1926, now has 13,000 students filing three campuses.

Philadelphia—(UPI)—John Guzik, All-American guard from the University of Pittsburgh has been named 1958's outstanding collegiate lineman by the Philadelphia Sports-writers association. Guzik will play his pro football with the Los Angeles Rams.

Ducks Host Montana

Eugene—(UPI)—Oregon's Ducks host the Montana Grizzlies tonight at McArthur court in the first of a two-game series.

Oregon has won four straight non-conference games since dropping its initial test to Oregon State.

Coach Steve Belko is expected to open with a starting five of Stu Robertson, Dale Herron, Denny Strickland, Chuck Rask and Bud Kucken-dall.

Montana is rated as a threat to win the Skyline conference this year and only last week downed Washington State at Missoula.

Bruins Trip Phoenix HS

Brookings—Brookings high broke away in the late second quarter to take command and went on to down the Phoenix cagers 36 to 24 here on Saturday night.

It was a slow, ragged game with both clubs cold in field shooting. The Bruins of Brookings averaged just 28 per cent from the field and the Pirates were even colder at 17 per cent.

Bill Workinger of Brookings was the game's main scorer with 13 markers. Quarter margins were 7 to 4, 20 to 11 and 30 to 19 all for Brookings.
